

- 1 Set 1 - Words 101-110. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column. (10 marks)

Words: configuration | transmission | magnetic | syllable | essentially | intermediate | namely | infect | chromosome | numerical

Sentence	Answer
1. Although the policy looked complicated at first, the dispute was _____ about who had the authority to approve emergency funding.
2. In English pronunciation training, students often improve faster when they learn to hear the stressed _____ in longer academic words.
3. The researchers found that a small change on one _____ could influence how the inherited disorder appeared in different family members.
4. Hospitals introduced stricter cleaning procedures because one careless contact could _____ several vulnerable patients in the same ward.
5. The new material has a strongly _____ property, so it can attract tiny metal particles during the recycling process.
6. The software failed after the update because its network _____ did not match the requirements of the new security system.
7. The report included a _____ summary of the survey results, showing exact percentages rather than general impressions.
8. The committee focused on two urgent problems, _____ rising maintenance costs and the lack of trained technical staff.
9. The course is designed for _____ learners who already understand basic grammar but are not yet ready for advanced academic writing.
10. Public health officials studied the _____ of the virus through schools, workplaces, and crowded public transport systems.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

2

Set 2 - Words 111-120. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column. (10 marks)

Words: rational | locus | approximation | maternal | thesis | occurrence | dose | elite | sin | axis

Sentence	Answer
1. The doctor adjusted the daily _____ because the original amount made the patient feel dizzy after each meal.
2. The sudden _____ of similar errors in several laboratories suggested that the problem came from the shared measuring equipment.
3. Many studies examine how _____ stress during pregnancy may influence a child's early emotional development.
4. On the graph, the horizontal _____ represents time, while the vertical one shows the level of economic growth.
5. A _____ decision should be based on evidence, costs, and likely consequences rather than on panic or social pressure.
6. Geneticists identified the specific _____ associated with the condition after comparing DNA samples from hundreds of families.
7. The school created a scholarship programme for _____ athletes who could compete nationally while maintaining high academic standards.
8. The estimate was only an _____, because the researchers did not have complete data from every region in the country.
9. Her central _____ argues that digital platforms have changed not only how people communicate but also how they define trust.
10. In the old religious text, the king's greatest _____ was not weakness but the deliberate abuse of power.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

3

Set 3 - Words 121-130. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column. (10 marks)

Words: classification | encode | threshold | facilitate | adolescent | comparative | activate | utterance | vocabulary | syndrome

Sentence	Answer
1. The library's new _____ system makes it easier for students to find books by topic, level, and academic discipline.
2. The alarm will not sound until the smoke level reaches a dangerous _____ set by the building's safety engineers.
3. Doctors recognised the rare _____ because the patient showed the same combination of symptoms described in earlier clinical studies.
4. The essay requires a _____ analysis of two political speeches, focusing on tone, structure, and use of evidence.
5. The technician pressed the reset button to _____ the backup generator after the main power supply suddenly failed.
6. An _____ may appear confident in class while privately struggling with social pressure, identity, and academic expectations.
7. Learners expand their academic _____ more effectively when they meet new words repeatedly in meaningful reading and listening contexts.
8. The child's first clear _____ was recorded by her parents, who were carefully tracking her early language development.
9. The system can _____ personal information so that even stolen files cannot easily be read by outsiders.
10. Good visual design can _____ learning by reducing unnecessary confusion and helping students focus on the main task.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

4

Set 4 - Words 131-140. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column. (10 marks)

Words: trajectory | incidence | adaptation | amplitude | induction | grammatical | cortex | commonly | manuscript | accuracy

Sentence	Answer
1. The rising _____ of childhood asthma in polluted cities has forced public health officials to review environmental regulations.
2. In physics class, students measured the _____ of each wave to compare how strongly different sounds moved through the air.
3. During the experiment, electromagnetic _____ produced a current in the wire without direct contact with a power source.
4. The missile's _____ changed slightly after launch, which made the engineers question the reliability of the guidance system.
5. The historian discovered an unpublished _____ containing corrections in the author's own handwriting.
6. Although the sentence was _____, it sounded unnatural because the writer used formal structures in a casual conversation.
7. High test _____ depends not only on careful marking but also on whether the exam actually measures the intended skill.
8. The film is a loose _____ of the novel, keeping the main characters but changing the historical setting completely.
9. Neuroscientists studied activity in the visual _____ to understand how the brain processes shape, colour, and movement.
10. The method is _____ used in large surveys because it is simple, inexpensive, and easy for participants to understand.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

5

Set 5 - Words 141-150. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column. (10 marks)

Words: diameter | projection | cone | organism | synthesis | dependence | horizontal | minimal | emergence | systematic

Sentence	Answer
1. The company made only _____ changes to the design, so most users barely noticed the difference after the update.
2. A _____ approach to learning requires students to connect grammar, vocabulary, pronunciation, and meaning rather than study them separately.
3. The architect used a _____ line across the drawing to show that the two windows should be placed at the same height.
4. The chemist explained the _____ of the new compound by describing how two simpler substances were combined under heat.
5. Sales teams questioned the optimistic _____ because it assumed that demand would continue growing at the same rate for five years.
6. The engineer measured the pipe's _____ before ordering a replacement part that would fit the existing drainage system.
7. The ice cream was served in a crisp _____, which slowly softened as the warm afternoon air melted the dessert.
8. Long-term _____ on imported energy can make a country vulnerable when international prices suddenly rise.
9. A living _____ must obtain energy, respond to its environment, and maintain internal conditions suitable for survival.
10. The _____ of online education has forced universities to rethink assessment, attendance, and the role of physical classrooms.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

6

Set 6 - Words 151-160. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column. (10 marks)

Words: neural | conceptual | explicitly | detection | evident | integral | substitution | chronic | overlap | interact

Sentence	Answer
1. The two departments _____ in several areas, so the manager merged their responsibilities to reduce confusion and repeated work.
2. The coach allowed a late _____ after the defender injured his ankle during the final minutes of the match.
3. The contract states _____ that employees must not share confidential client data with any outside organisation.
4. It became _____ during the interview that the candidate understood theory but had very little practical experience.
5. The course introduces a _____ framework before asking students to apply individual theories to real historical examples.
6. Early _____ of the disease greatly increases the chance of successful treatment and prevents unnecessary complications.
7. Students learn more effectively when they _____ with the material actively instead of simply rereading notes before an exam.
8. Scientists used brain scans to examine the _____ pathways involved in memory, attention, and emotional regulation.
9. The patient suffered from a _____ illness that required regular treatment rather than a short course of medication.
10. Clear feedback is an _____ part of effective teaching because students need to know exactly what to improve.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

Set 7 - Words 161-170. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column. (10 marks)

Words: mediate | enzyme | quantitative | ex | conception | sphere | conference | sperm | instability | ideology

Sentence	Answer
1. The digestive _____ breaks down complex molecules so that nutrients can be absorbed more efficiently by the body.
2. At the international _____, researchers presented new evidence on climate migration, public health, and urban planning.
3. The philosopher's _____ of justice was shaped by both classical political theory and modern debates about equality.
4. The former policy was criticised because its underlying _____ treated economic growth as more important than social protection.
5. During reproduction, a _____ cell must successfully reach and fertilise the egg before an embryo can begin developing.
6. The study used _____ methods, collecting numerical data from thousands of participants instead of relying only on interviews.
7. The public _____ includes politics, education, media, and any other area where shared decisions are debated openly.
8. Economic _____ often discourages investment because companies become uncertain about future demand, prices, and regulations.
9. The lawyer agreed to _____ between the two sides before the dispute became an expensive and public court case.
10. After the divorce, she and her _____ agreed to communicate only about childcare and school decisions.

Set 8 - Words 171-180. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column. (10 marks)

Words: evolutionary | classify | computation | feedback | physician | indicator | specification | oral | variant | mid

Sentence	Answer
1. The product failed inspection because one component did not meet the technical _____ listed in the manufacturer's safety document.
2. Scientists often _____ organisms according to shared features, genetic relationships, and patterns of development.
3. A qualified _____ should examine persistent chest pain instead of leaving patients to diagnose themselves through online searches.
4. The final _____ took several hours because the data set contained millions of variables and complex probability estimates.
5. Doctors warned that high blood pressure can be an early _____ of more serious cardiovascular problems.
6. A new _____ of the virus spread quickly because it was better able to escape existing immune responses.
7. The theory offers an _____ explanation for cooperation, suggesting that group survival may depend on more than individual competition.
8. After each draft, the teacher gave detailed _____ on argument structure, evidence, and sentence-level accuracy.
9. The exam includes an _____ presentation, so students must explain their research clearly without reading directly from notes.
10. The team made several changes in _____ season, when poor results showed that the original strategy was failing.

Set 9 - Words 181-190. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column. (10 marks)

Words: deviation | compact | arbitrary | morphology | nonlinear | estimation | tropical | diagram | fraction | collective

Sentence	Answer
1. The judge criticised the _____ punishment because it seemed to depend more on personal preference than on legal principle.
2. Only a small _____ of the applicants had the advanced statistical training required for the research position.
3. Cost _____ became difficult after suppliers changed prices twice in the same month without warning.
4. The data showed a clear _____ from the expected pattern, forcing the analysts to recheck their original assumptions.
5. In complex systems, a small change can have _____ effects, producing results that are not proportional to the original cause.
6. The camera is surprisingly _____, yet it still includes a large sensor, manual controls, and strong battery performance.
7. The teacher drew a simple _____ to show how information moved from short-term memory into long-term storage.
8. Many _____ regions experience heavy rainfall, high temperatures, and ecosystems with exceptional biological diversity.
9. In linguistics, _____ examines the structure of words and how smaller meaningful units combine to form them.
10. The workers negotiated as a _____ group because individual complaints had repeatedly been ignored by management.

10

Set 10 - Words 191-200. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column. (10 marks)

Words: separation | convergence | radiation | defect | valid | syntax | interface | sufficiently | thereby | vertical

Sentence	Answer
1. The new policy reduced unnecessary paperwork, _____ allowing staff to spend more time with students and clients.
2. Computer scientists study _____ to understand how words and symbols must be arranged for a program to run correctly.
3. A hidden manufacturing _____ caused the device to overheat after several hours of continuous use.
4. The physical _____ of the two departments created communication problems because staff rarely met in the same workspace.
5. The _____ of several technologies made smartphones possible, combining computing, communication, photography, and navigation.
6. The evidence was not _____ because the witness had changed his story several times during the investigation.
7. The website's _____ confused older users because important buttons were hidden behind unfamiliar icons and menus.
8. The sample was not _____ large to support such a strong conclusion about the whole population.
9. Doctors carefully measured the patient's exposure to _____ before deciding whether additional tests were necessary.
10. The building's _____ structure allowed the company to fit more offices into a narrow city-centre site.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.