

- 1 Set 1 - Words 301-310. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column. (10 marks)

Words: amino | partially | preliminary | philosophical | pre | transaction | prominent | indigenous | render | independently

Sentence	Answer
1. Because proteins are built from chains of _____ acids, students first need to understand their chemical structure before studying nutrition.
2. The report was only _____ complete, since several departments had not yet submitted their latest financial data.
3. Before launching the full investigation, the research team conducted a _____ review to identify the most obvious methodological weaknesses.
4. Rather than becoming angry about the delay, she took a surprisingly _____ attitude and accepted it as part of the process.
5. The company required all candidates to complete a _____-employment assessment before they were invited to the final interview.
6. The bank flagged the international _____ because the payment pattern looked unusual compared with the customer's previous activity.
7. Several _____ scientists criticized the policy because it ignored their communities' long-standing knowledge of the local environment.
8. The software can _____ complex three-dimensional images quickly, even when the original model contains millions of small details.
9. The student became a _____ figure in the debate club after winning several national speaking competitions.
10. Although the researchers worked in the same laboratory, each experiment was designed and analyzed _____ to reduce bias.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

Set 2 - Words 311-320. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column. (10 marks)

Words: symbolic | utilize | physiological | indirect | calcium | assembly | strictly | unity | psychiatric | critique

Sentence	Answer
1. The white dove is often used as a _____ representation of peace, especially in public ceremonies and political speeches.
2. The school encouraged students to _____ the online library more effectively instead of relying only on printed textbooks.
3. Sleep, digestion, and heart rate are all examples of _____ processes that can be affected by chronic stress.
4. The manager avoided making a direct accusation and instead gave an _____ warning about professional behavior.
5. Children need enough _____ during their early years because it plays an essential role in building strong bones and teeth.
6. The national _____ voted on the proposal after several weeks of public discussion and legal review.
7. Access to the laboratory is _____ limited to trained staff because the chemicals inside may be dangerous.
8. The speech emphasized national _____ at a time when political disagreements were becoming increasingly visible.
9. After the accident, the patient was referred for _____ evaluation because doctors were concerned about his emotional stability.
10. The professor asked us to _____ the article by identifying its assumptions, evidence, and possible weaknesses.

3

Set 3 - Words 321-330. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column. (10 marks)

Words: differentiation | closure | minimize | selective | availability | depict | cue | parental | ritual | fertility

Sentence	Answer
1. Successful language teaching often depends on clear _____ between what students can recognize passively and what they can produce accurately.
2. The sudden _____ of several factories left many workers uncertain about their future employment and financial security.
3. To reduce unnecessary costs, the hospital introduced new procedures designed to _____ waste without lowering the quality of care.
4. Universities have become more _____ in recent years because the number of qualified applicants has increased sharply.
5. The _____ of affordable housing remains one of the most serious challenges facing young families in major cities.
6. The documentary tries to _____ rural life without romanticizing poverty or ignoring the difficulties faced by local residents.
7. A raised eyebrow can serve as a social _____, telling the speaker that the listener is confused or skeptical.
8. Strong _____ involvement is often associated with better academic habits, although excessive control can damage independence.
9. The lighting of candles became a small daily _____ that helped the community remember those who had been lost.
10. Soil _____ declined after years of intensive farming, so the villagers began using more sustainable agricultural methods.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

4

Set 4 - Words 331-340. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column. (10 marks)

Words: adjacent | readily | observer | inhibition | questionnaire | generalization | qualitative | tense | transcription | locally

Sentence	Answer
1. The new library was built on a small piece of land _____ to the main lecture hall, making it easy for students to reach.
2. Because the instructions were clearly written, most participants could _____ understand what they were expected to do.
3. The trained _____ recorded how children interacted with each other during the group problem-solving activity.
4. Fear of making mistakes can create strong _____, preventing students from speaking even when they know the answer.
5. The researcher distributed a detailed _____ to collect information about students' study habits, reading preferences, and access to technology.
6. The survey was criticized because it encouraged a broad _____ from a very small and unrepresentative sample.
7. The study used _____ interviews to explore how patients described pain, rather than measuring symptoms only with numbers.
8. The atmosphere became increasingly _____ when the negotiators realized that neither side was willing to compromise.
9. The researcher checked the audio _____ carefully because even one missing word could change the meaning of the interview.
10. The charity works _____ with schools and clinics instead of sending all decisions to its central office.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

5

Set 5 - Words 341-350. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column. (10 marks)

Words: nutrient | reinforce | statistically | simulate | dense | ecology | null | terminal | informal | discharge

Sentence	Answer
1. Vitamin C is an important _____ that supports the immune system and helps the body repair damaged tissue.
2. Teachers used short review tasks to _____ key concepts before students moved on to the next unit.
3. After several rounds of analysis, the difference between the two groups was found to be _____ significant.
4. Teachers can _____ exam conditions in class by setting strict time limits and removing unnecessary sources of help.
5. The old city center is extremely _____, with narrow streets, crowded housing, and very little open public space.
6. Her research focuses on forest _____, especially the relationship between soil quality, rainfall, and plant diversity.
7. The experiment produced a _____ result, meaning the treatment showed no measurable effect under the tested conditions.
8. The train arrived at the central _____ shortly before midnight, where passengers transferred to buses and taxis.
9. The interview was deliberately _____, so participants could speak naturally rather than follow a strict script.
10. Factories must not _____ untreated chemicals into the river because they can damage wildlife and public health.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

6

Set 6 - Words 351-360. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column. (10 marks)

Words: adaptive | ecological | protocol | progressive | aesthetic | exploit | agriculture | practitioner | occupation | equivalence

Sentence	Answer
1. The school introduced an _____ learning system that changes question difficulty according to each student's performance.
2. The new housing project was rejected because it would cause serious _____ damage to the surrounding wetland.
3. Every laboratory must follow a clear safety _____ before handling biological samples or dangerous equipment.
4. The course follows a _____ structure, introducing basic concepts first and then gradually moving toward complex analysis.
5. The museum's new design has strong _____ appeal, but some visitors complain that the building is difficult to navigate.
6. Some companies try to _____ legal loopholes in order to reduce costs, even when the practice damages workers' rights.
7. Modern _____ depends not only on machinery and fertilizers but also on water management and soil protection.
8. A skilled medical _____ must combine technical knowledge with careful communication and professional judgment.
9. Many graduates choose an _____ based on salary expectations, social status, and the possibility of long-term development.
10. The two qualifications have rough _____, but employers may still value one more highly in specific professional contexts.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

Set 7 - Words 361-370. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column. (10 marks)

Words: pragmatic | productivity | arrow | reproduce | commentary | residue | unstable | consensus | simplify | radius

Sentence	Answer
1. Instead of defending an ideal plan, the mayor took a _____ approach and supported the option most likely to pass.
2. Higher workplace _____ does not always mean longer hours; it often depends on better tools and clearer processes.
3. The diagram used a thick _____ to show the direction in which information moved through the system.
4. Some plants can _____ without seeds, using roots, stems, or other biological structures to create new individuals.
5. The radio station provided live _____ throughout the election night, explaining each result as it was announced.
6. After the chemical reaction, a sticky _____ remained at the bottom of the container and had to be removed carefully.
7. The patient's condition was still _____, so doctors decided to keep him under close observation overnight.
8. After months of debate, the committee finally reached a broad _____ on how the new policy should be implemented.
9. The teacher tried to _____ the explanation without removing the key ideas students needed for the exam.
10. The search team checked every house within a five-kilometer _____ of the missing child's last known location.

Set 8 - Words 371-380. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column. (10 marks)

Words: artificial | harvest | suicide | pi | monkey | habitat | assignment | replicate | mechanical | disability

Sentence	Answer
1. The flowers looked beautiful, but their color was clearly _____ because it had been added during processing.
2. Farmers had to _____ the wheat earlier than usual because heavy rain was expected later in the week.
3. The organization focuses on _____ prevention by training teachers to recognize warning signs and respond responsibly.
4. The value of _____ is commonly introduced in geometry when students learn how to calculate the area of a circle.
5. The children watched a young _____ copy the movements of its mother while climbing through the trees.
6. Pollution has destroyed much of the bird's natural _____, forcing it to search for food in nearby towns.
7. The final _____ required students to compare two research articles and evaluate the strength of their evidence.
8. Other scientists were unable to _____ the original experiment, raising doubts about the reliability of its findings.
9. The engineer blamed the accident on a _____ failure in the braking system rather than on human error.
10. A physical _____ should not prevent someone from receiving equal access to education, employment, or public services.

Set 9 - Words 381-390. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column. (10 marks)

Words: cattle | purely | contradiction | scatter | problematic | correction | linguistics | hormone | primitive | ethics

Sentence	Answer
1. The farmer moved the _____ to higher ground before the river flooded the lower fields.
2. The decision was made _____ for economic reasons, with no serious consideration of cultural or environmental effects.
3. His public statement contained a clear _____ because he denied the problem while also promising to fix it.
4. The seeds began to _____ across the field after strong winds broke open the dry outer shells.
5. In academic writing, vague claims are _____ because they make it difficult for readers to evaluate the argument.
6. The editor made one small _____ to the paragraph because the original sentence contained a misleading statistic.
7. Modern _____ examines how language is structured, learned, used, and changed across different communities.
8. Insulin is a _____ that helps regulate blood sugar levels after a person eats carbohydrates.
9. The tool may look _____, but it solved an important practical problem for people living thousands of years ago.
10. Research _____ requires scientists to protect participants, report results honestly, and avoid unnecessary harm.

10

Set 10 - Words 391-400. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column. (10 marks)

Words: accumulation | static | consent | substrate | straightforward | discrimination | separately | randomize | sensory | confine

Sentence	Answer
1. The long-term _____ of plastic waste in the ocean has become a serious environmental and political concern.
2. The image on the screen remained _____ for several minutes, which suggested that the software had stopped responding.
3. Participants must give informed _____ before researchers are allowed to collect or analyze their personal medical data.
4. The plant roots spread through the artificial _____ that scientists had designed to test water retention.
5. The instructions were surprisingly _____, so even students with little technical experience completed the task successfully.
6. Laws against racial _____ are meant to protect people from unfair treatment in housing, education, and employment.
7. The two issues should be discussed _____ because combining them would make the policy debate unnecessarily confusing.
8. Researchers decided to _____ the order of the questions so that earlier items would not influence later answers.
9. Babies gradually develop _____ awareness as they learn to respond to sounds, colors, textures, and movement.
10. The government tried to _____ the disease to one region by restricting travel and increasing local testing.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.