

10

Set 10 - Words 391-400. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column. (10 marks)

Words: accumulation | static | consent | substrate | straightforward | discrimination | separately | randomize | sensory | confine

| Sentence                                                                                                                        | Answer |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------|
| 1. The long-term _____ of plastic waste in the ocean has become a serious environmental and political concern.                  |        |
| 2. The image on the screen remained _____ for several minutes, which suggested that the software had stopped responding.        |        |
| 3. Participants must give informed _____ before researchers are allowed to collect or analyze their personal medical data.      |        |
| 4. The plant roots spread through the artificial _____ that scientists had designed to test water retention.                    |        |
| 5. The instructions were surprisingly _____, so even students with little technical experience completed the task successfully. |        |
| 6. Laws against racial _____ are meant to protect people from unfair treatment in housing, education, and employment.           |        |
| 7. The two issues should be discussed _____ because combining them would make the policy debate unnecessarily confusing.        |        |
| 8. Researchers decided to _____ the order of the questions so that earlier items would not influence later answers.             |        |
| 9. Babies gradually develop _____ awareness as they learn to respond to sounds, colors, textures, and movement.                 |        |
| 10. The government tried to _____ the disease to one region by restricting travel and increasing local testing.                 |        |

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.