

- 1 Set 1 - Words 501-510. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column. (10 marks)

Words: deficiency | legitimate | sophisticate | accelerate | exponential | formally | socially | accurately | influential | progression

Sentence	Answer
1. The hospital introduced routine blood screening because even a minor nutritional _____ can seriously affect recovery after major surgery.
2. Although the charity's finances were questioned at first, the investigation later confirmed that its fundraising activities were entirely _____.
3. The consultant warned that adding unnecessary reporting layers would only _____ the workflow without improving accountability or decision-making.
4. Governments often invest in transport infrastructure because reliable rail links can _____ economic development across neglected regions.
5. Once the platform reached a critical mass of users, its data storage needs began to grow at an almost _____ rate.
6. The two universities had collaborated for years, but the partnership was not _____ recognized until the agreement was signed.
7. In some communities, refusing an invitation without explanation may be considered _____ inappropriate, even if no rule has been broken.
8. The witness described the suspect so _____ that the police were able to reconstruct the sequence of events.
9. Her early research was not widely read at first, but it later became highly _____ in debates about climate policy.
10. The course is designed as a gradual _____ from basic statistical concepts to advanced methods used in academic research.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

2

Set 2 - Words 511-520. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column. (10 marks)

Words: essence | cylinder | scholarship | sodium | predominantly | oscillation | impulse | theorist | manipulate | alliance

Sentence	Answer
1. The lecture was dense, but the professor managed to explain the _____ of the argument in one clear final paragraph.
2. The engine failed because pressure had built up unevenly inside one _____ during the final stage of testing.
3. She received a full _____ to study abroad after submitting an outstanding portfolio and passing several interviews.
4. Doctors advised him to reduce his intake of _____ because his blood pressure had remained dangerously high for months.
5. The region is _____ rural, although several small cities have expanded rapidly along the new railway line.
6. The graph shows a regular _____ between high and low temperatures over each twenty-four-hour cycle.
7. He resisted the sudden _____ to reply angrily and instead waited until he could write a more measured response.
8. As a political _____, she is less interested in election results than in the ideas that shape public institutions.
9. The company was accused of trying to _____ consumer behavior by hiding important information in confusing contract language.
10. The two parties formed an uneasy _____ to pass the emergency bill, despite disagreeing on nearly every other issue.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

3

Set 3 - Words 521-530. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column. (10 marks)

Words: crystal | importantly | stack | drift | nest | fossil | resistant | dimensional | punishment | rhetoric

Sentence	Answer
1. The committee accepted the proposal because it was affordable, practical, and, _____, supported by evidence from several independent studies.
2. Under the microscope, the mineral formed a nearly perfect _____ structure, with each surface reflecting light sharply.
3. The assistant placed every application in a separate _____ so that the committee could review them by department.
4. Without a clear agenda, the discussion began to _____ away from policy details and toward personal complaints.
5. The birds returned to the same tree each spring to repair their _____ before the breeding season began.
6. A nearly complete dinosaur _____ was discovered in the desert, preserved beneath several layers of ancient rock.
7. The new strain of bacteria proved _____ to several common antibiotics, forcing doctors to use a less familiar treatment.
8. Architects used three-_____ modeling software to test how sunlight would move through the building during winter.
9. The school introduced restorative conversations instead of automatic _____ for minor rule-breaking incidents.
10. His speech was full of patriotic _____, but it offered very few practical proposals for solving the crisis.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

4

Set 4 - Words 531-540. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column. (10 marks)

Words: artifact | carrier | surgical | coordination | turbulent | quantum | sediment | ray | conserve | primer

Sentence	Answer
1. The museum displayed the ancient _____ in a glass case to prevent damage from humidity and careless handling.
2. The airline became the country's largest international _____ after expanding its routes across Asia and Europe.
3. The patient required immediate _____ treatment because the infection had spread too quickly for medication alone.
4. Large rescue operations require close _____ among police, medical teams, and local volunteers.
5. After months of _____ negotiations, the government finally reached a fragile agreement with opposition leaders.
6. In physics, a _____ event may involve behavior that appears impossible under ordinary classical assumptions.
7. Over centuries, layers of _____ collected at the bottom of the lake and preserved traces of earlier climates.
8. A single _____ of sunlight entered through the broken roof and illuminated the dusty floor of the abandoned house.
9. The campaign encouraged households to _____ water by repairing leaks and using more efficient appliances.
10. Before beginning the advanced course, students were asked to read a short _____ on basic economic theory.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

5

Set 5 - Words 541-550. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column. (10 marks)

Words: grasp | bulk | terminology | vegetation | triangle | traditionally | execute | intensive | reconstruct | broadly

Sentence	Answer
1. After several demonstrations, most students could finally _____ why the theorem worked rather than simply memorizing it.
2. The company buys grain in _____ during harvest season, when prices are usually lower and supply is more predictable.
3. New interns often struggle with medical _____ because familiar words can have highly specific meanings in clinical settings.
4. Satellite images showed that the fire had destroyed most of the dense _____ covering the lower mountain slopes.
5. The designer used a simple _____ to create a logo that looked balanced, memorable, and easy to reproduce.
6. In many legal systems, property has _____ been passed to the eldest son, though that practice is now widely challenged.
7. The military was ordered to _____ the evacuation plan before the storm reached the coastal cities.
8. The language program offers an _____ summer course for students who need rapid improvement before university begins.
9. Historians used letters, maps, and tax records to _____ how the medieval town was organized.
10. The proposal was _____ supported by environmental groups, although some criticized its weak enforcement mechanisms.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

6

Set 6 - Words 551-560. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column. (10 marks)

Words: metabolism | revolutionary | merge | dilemma | motif | motive | subtle | clinic | allocate | hydrogen

Sentence	Answer
1. Regular exercise can affect the body's _____ by changing how efficiently it converts food into usable energy.
2. The invention was considered _____ because it changed not only production methods but also the structure of the entire industry.
3. The two departments decided to _____ their databases so that researchers could access patient records more efficiently.
4. The manager faced a difficult _____: reduce staff to cut costs or keep everyone and risk bankruptcy.
5. The same floral _____ appears throughout the novel, linking scenes of memory, loss, and renewal.
6. Investigators still could not identify a clear _____ for the attack, even after interviewing dozens of witnesses.
7. The difference between the two editions is _____, but careful readers may notice changes in tone and emphasis.
8. The local _____ provides free vaccinations for children whose families cannot easily afford private medical care.
9. The committee voted to _____ more funding to mental health services after reviewing the latest hospital data.
10. When burned, _____ produces water rather than carbon dioxide, which is why it is discussed as a cleaner fuel.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

7

Set 7 - Words 561-570. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column. (10 marks)

Words: dissertation | susceptible | architect | coronary | breakdown | inject | economist | momentum | polar | backward

Sentence	Answer
1. Her doctoral _____ examines how digital platforms have changed the relationship between readers, publishers, and authors.
2. Young children are especially _____ to respiratory infections because their immune systems are still developing.
3. The lead _____ designed the new library to maximize natural light without increasing summer heat.
4. Doctors discovered a serious _____ blockage and recommended immediate treatment to reduce the risk of a heart attack.
5. A complete _____ in communication between departments caused the project to miss several important deadlines.
6. The nurse prepared to _____ the vaccine only after confirming the patient's identity and medical history.
7. The government hired an _____ to assess whether the tax reform would increase investment or reduce consumer spending.
8. The campaign gained _____ after the televised debate, attracting volunteers and donations from across the country.
9. The two candidates took almost _____ positions on immigration, leaving little room for compromise.
10. The software update is not compatible with older systems, so installing it may make some functions move _____ rather than forward.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

Set 8 - Words 571-580. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column.

Words: multiply | morality | communicative | physically | rainfall | politically | invasion | inevitably | capitalism | expertise

Sentence	Answer
1. Bacteria can _____ rapidly in warm conditions, which is why cooked food should not be left out overnight.
2. The novel raises questions about _____ by showing characters who break the law for reasons they believe are justified.
3. The new teacher is highly _____, encouraging students to ask questions, clarify ideas, and negotiate meaning in English.
4. The job is _____ demanding because workers must lift heavy equipment and stand for most of the day.
5. Annual _____ has decreased in the region, putting pressure on farmers who depend on seasonal storms.
6. The sudden _____ of foreign troops forced thousands of civilians to leave their homes within days.
7. If the city continues expanding without planning, traffic congestion will _____ become worse over the next decade.
8. The reform was _____ risky because it angered powerful interest groups before the election.
9. Critics argue that modern _____ rewards innovation but can also deepen inequality when markets are poorly regulated.
10. The hospital relied on her _____ in infectious diseases when designing new safety procedures.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

9

Set 9 - Words 581-590. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column. (10 marks)

Words: inferior | actively | quotation | composite | historically | textbook | bundle | elementary | capitalist | flexibility

Sentence	Answer
1. The cheaper material looked similar at first, but laboratory tests showed that it was clearly _____ in strength and durability.
2. The coach encouraged injured players to participate _____ in recovery rather than waiting passively for treatment to work.
3. The article begins with a famous _____ from Darwin before discussing how scientific theories change over time.
4. The aircraft wing is made from a lightweight _____ material that combines strength with resistance to corrosion.
5. The policy can only be understood _____ because it developed through decades of conflict, compromise, and reform.
6. The judge described the case as a _____ example of negligence because the company had ignored repeated safety warnings.
7. The farmer tied the branches into a _____ before carrying them back to the storage shed.
8. The course covers _____ algebra before moving on to functions, graphs, and more abstract mathematical reasoning.
9. As a wealthy _____, he invested in factories, railways, and shipping companies during the industrial boom.
10. Remote work gives employees greater _____ in managing their schedules, but it also requires stronger self-discipline.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

10

Set 10 - Words 591-600. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column. (10 marks)

Words: cord | realistic | initiation | horizon | consultation | ruler | freely | rotate | commodity | elevation

Sentence	Answer
1. The technician replaced the damaged electrical _____ after discovering that the outer covering had melted near the socket.
2. A successful _____ must balance authority with legitimacy, especially when governing a society divided by class and region.
3. The proposal is ambitious, but it is not _____ unless the team receives more staff and a longer timeline.
4. Joining the professional association requires an official _____ process that introduces members to its rules and values.
5. From the mountain's higher _____, the climbers could see clouds forming far below them in the valley.
6. The architect requested a formal _____ with engineers before approving changes to the building's foundation.
7. Students were encouraged to speak _____ during the seminar, provided they supported their claims with evidence.
8. Farmers worry that water may become a traded _____ if shortages continue and private companies gain control of supplies.
9. Staff members _____ between morning and evening shifts so that no one is permanently assigned the most difficult hours.
10. After years of routine work, the fellowship broadened her intellectual _____ and introduced her to new research questions.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.