

- 1 Set 1 - Words 701-710. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column. (10 marks)

Words: parenthesis | noble | potassium | reactive | genetically | bacteria | wisdom | crude | realism | deliberately

Sentence	Answer
1. In academic writing, additional clarification is often placed in a _____ when the information is useful but not central to the argument.
2. The scientist argued that the tribe's oral traditions preserved a form of practical _____ that modern policy makers had largely ignored.
3. Because the metal is highly _____, it must be stored carefully to prevent it from reacting violently with moisture or air.
4. The painter rejected romantic idealization and instead embraced _____, showing poverty, labour, and ordinary domestic life without decoration.
5. The charity described the doctor's decision to remain in the war zone as a _____ act of professional courage and human responsibility.
6. The laboratory confirmed that the infection was caused by antibiotic-resistant _____, making the treatment more complicated than expected.
7. The oil company reported that global demand for _____ had fallen slightly after several countries tightened environmental regulations.
8. The crop had been _____ modified to resist drought, but local farmers were still worried about long-term ecological consequences.
9. The nutritionist warned that a serious lack of _____ could affect muscle function, heart rhythm, and fluid balance in the body.
10. The manager was not careless; he had _____ left the document unsigned so that the legal team would review it one final time.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

2

Set 2 - Words 711-720. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column. (10 marks)

Words: chemotherapy | surplus | capillary | directive | globalization | alien | portfolio | monopoly | lifestyle | invert

Sentence	Answer
1. After the company sold several small businesses, its investment _____ became less diverse but much easier to manage.
2. The government issued a new _____ requiring hospitals to report critical drug shortages within twenty-four hours.
3. Because one firm controlled nearly the entire market, regulators accused it of maintaining an illegal _____ over digital payments.
4. The patient suffered severe fatigue during _____, although the treatment significantly reduced the size of the tumour.
5. When pressure rises in tiny blood vessels, fluid may leak through the _____ walls and cause swelling in nearby tissue.
6. The country produced a wheat _____ that year, forcing officials to decide whether to export the extra grain or store it.
7. The professor asked students to _____ the diagram so they could understand how the image changed when viewed upside down.
8. The documentary examined how _____ has transformed supply chains, labour markets, and cultural habits across several continents.
9. To many older villagers, the new factory felt almost _____, not because it came from another planet but because it disrupted familiar routines.
10. The doctor said medication would help, but lasting improvement depended on a healthier _____ involving sleep, diet, and regular exercise.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

3

Set 3 - Words 721-730. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column. (10 marks)

Words: thread | clay | dye | transcribe | dilute | tribe | damp | economically | critically | secrete

Sentence	Answer
1. The journalist tried to follow the main _____ of the argument, but the speaker kept moving between law, history, and personal experience.
2. The archaeologists found cooking pots made of _____, suggesting that the settlement had developed basic craft production.
3. The fabric factory used a natural _____ made from plants, which gave the cloth a softer colour than synthetic chemicals.
4. The assistant was asked to _____ the interview word for word so that researchers could analyse the speaker's exact phrasing.
5. The chemical solution was too strong, so the technician had to _____ it before applying it to the delicate sample.
6. The hikers slept in a _____ tent after the storm, and by morning most of their clothes smelled of wet canvas.
7. The indigenous _____ negotiated with the state to protect ancestral land from mining and commercial logging.
8. The project was technically impressive but not _____ viable, since production costs were far higher than expected revenue.
9. The reviewer responded _____ to the proposal, questioning not only its evidence but also its basic assumptions.
10. Some glands _____ hormones directly into the bloodstream, allowing the body to regulate growth, stress, and metabolism.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

4

Set 4 - Words 731-740. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column. (10 marks)

Words: hip | plantation | prejudice | onwards | anti | helix | interrupt | domination | undergraduate | soluble

Sentence	Answer
1. The athlete injured his _____ during the final race and could barely walk without assistance afterward.
2. The old sugar _____ depended heavily on forced labour, leaving a social legacy that lasted long after slavery ended.
3. The company's market _____ allowed it to set prices without serious pressure from smaller competitors.
4. The university introduced an _____ programme for students who wanted research experience before entering postgraduate study.
5. The medicine is water-_____, so patients can dissolve it in a glass instead of swallowing a large tablet.
6. The campaign was clearly _____ corruption, but critics said it offered slogans rather than serious institutional reform.
7. The discovery of the double _____ structure helped explain how genetic information could be copied and transmitted.
8. The judge warned the jury not to let personal _____ influence their interpretation of the evidence.
9. From the second year _____, students are expected to design their own research projects with less direct supervision.
10. Please do not _____ the witness while she is answering, because even small disruptions can affect the accuracy of her testimony.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

5

Set 5 - Words 741-750. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column. (10 marks)

Words: innate | dioxide | goat | emit | confound | competent | degrade | layout | fabric | container

Sentence	Answer
1. The researcher argued that language ability is partly _____, although social interaction remains essential for development.
2. The machine began to _____ a high-pitched sound whenever the internal temperature rose above the safety limit.
3. The mountain villagers kept a _____ for milk, meat, and occasional trade with neighbouring communities.
4. The poor lighting and confusing _____ of the museum made it difficult for visitors to move through the exhibition logically.
5. The engineer was clearly _____, but she lacked the political skill needed to persuade senior executives.
6. Plastic waste can slowly _____ into smaller particles, creating environmental risks that are difficult to monitor.
7. The rare disease can _____ doctors because its early symptoms look almost identical to several common infections.
8. The dress was made from a light silk _____ that moved elegantly but tore easily under pressure.
9. The chemicals were stored in a sealed _____ to prevent evaporation, contamination, or accidental exposure.
10. Sulfur _____ released by factories can contribute to air pollution and acid rain when not properly controlled.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

Set 6 - Words 751-760. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column. (10 marks)

Words: fungus | reservoir | footnote | bodily | niche | vague | affirm | urine | afterward | jazz

Sentence	Answer
1. The damp basement encouraged the growth of a dangerous _____, forcing the landlord to remove the damaged walls immediately.
2. The mountain _____ supplied drinking water to three cities, but prolonged drought reduced its level to a record low.
3. The author added a _____ to explain that the statistic came from an unpublished government report.
4. The start-up found a profitable _____ by serving small clinics that larger software companies had ignored.
5. The witness gave only a _____ description of the attacker, making it difficult for police to identify a suspect.
6. The court asked the official to _____ that the documents were authentic and had not been altered.
7. Doctors tested the patient's _____ to check kidney function, infection markers, and possible drug use.
8. The athlete suffered _____ injuries in the crash, though none of them appeared life-threatening at the time.
9. The small club became famous for live _____, attracting musicians who improvised late into the night.
10. The experiment failed on the first attempt; _____, the team redesigned the procedure and obtained more reliable results.

Set 7 - Words 761-770. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column. (10 marks)

Words: antiquity | unemployed | toxic | yeast | punish | forum | bleed | overhead | republic | processor

Sentence	Answer
1. The historian specialised in Mediterranean _____, focusing on trade, religion, and political institutions before the medieval period.
2. After the factory closed, hundreds of workers became _____ and had to rely on temporary government support.
3. The chemical spill released a _____ gas, so emergency teams evacuated nearby residents within minutes.
4. Bakers add _____ to dough because it produces carbon dioxide and helps bread rise during fermentation.
5. The school should not _____ students simply for making mistakes, but it must respond firmly to cheating or violence.
6. The international _____ allowed scientists, ministers, and activists to debate climate policy in front of a global audience.
7. The wound continued to _____ despite the bandage, so the nurse applied pressure and called for medical assistance.
8. The aircraft flew _____ for several minutes before disappearing behind a thick layer of cloud.
9. The ancient city eventually became a _____, replacing hereditary rule with elected officials and civic institutions.
10. The new laptop has a faster _____, allowing it to handle video editing and data analysis more efficiently.

Set 8 - Words 771-780. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column. (10 marks)

Words: goodness | comply | audit | legend | slot | drain | abdominal | media | tempt | outlet

Sentence	Answer
1. The charity praised her _____, but critics argued that kindness alone could not solve structural poverty.
2. Companies must _____ with data protection laws or face heavy fines and reputational damage.
3. The finance department ordered an independent _____ after several irregular payments appeared in the accounts.
4. The map's _____ explained what each colour and symbol represented, preventing readers from misinterpreting the data.
5. The conference organiser gave each speaker a twenty-minute _____, leaving only five minutes for questions.
6. Heavy rain overwhelmed the street _____, causing dirty water to flood the underground station.
7. The patient complained of severe _____ pain, so the doctor ordered tests to rule out internal bleeding.
8. The scandal spread quickly through social _____, forcing the minister to respond before the evening news.
9. Advertisers often _____ consumers with limited-time discounts, even when the product is not genuinely necessary.
10. The company opened a new retail _____ near the airport to reach travellers and international customers.

Set 9 - Words 781-790. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column. (10 marks)

Words: precipitation | founds | invade | interviewer | apple | planner | supposedly | gut | swell | emperor

Sentence	Answer
1. Meteorologists predicted heavy _____ in the northern region, increasing the risk of floods and landslides overnight.
2. Researchers are studying how bacteria in the human _____ may influence immunity, digestion, and even mood.
3. Foreign armies attempted to _____ the island several times, but difficult terrain and local resistance slowed their advance.
4. The _____ asked follow-up questions when the candidate avoided giving a clear answer about her previous experience.
5. The project _____ created a detailed schedule, but unexpected supply problems disrupted almost every deadline.
6. The company _____ a research institute every year to support innovation in clean energy and medical technology.
7. The child ate an _____ before practice because he wanted a light snack rather than a heavy meal.
8. The CEO _____ knew about the safety problem months earlier, although the company denied any formal warning.
9. His ankle began to _____ after the fall, so the coach told him to stop playing immediately.
10. The ancient _____ ordered the construction of a vast road system to strengthen control over distant provinces.

10

Set 10 - Words 791-800. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column. (10 marks)

Words: altitude | gauge | transparency | sub | blank | chloride | sensible | weave | destination | precipitate

Sentence	Answer
1. At high _____, the air contains less oxygen, so climbers may suffer headaches, dizziness, and reduced concentration.
2. The mechanic used a pressure _____ to check whether the tyres had been inflated to the correct level.
3. The government promised greater _____ in public spending, but several contracts were still awarded without open competition.
4. The restaurant offered a vegetarian _____ for customers who did not want the meat-based lunch option.
5. Students should leave a _____ line between paragraphs so that the examiner can follow the structure of the answer.
6. Sodium _____ is commonly known as salt, though the chemical term is more precise in laboratory contexts.
7. A _____ decision would be to delay the launch until the security flaws have been properly tested.
8. Skilled workers can _____ thin threads into complex patterns that are both decorative and structurally strong.
9. For many migrants, the capital city became a final _____ rather than a temporary stop on the journey.
10. A careless statement from the central bank could _____ a market panic if investors interpret it as a signal of crisis.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.