

NAWL-G

Name

Date

Score

SET 1 intervene compensate atomic trivial stance stabilize profound whereby ancestor genetics

No.	Sentence
1	The central bank decided to _____ only after market volatility had begun to threaten the wider financial system.
2	The company offered to _____ customers whose personal data had been exposed during the security breach.
3	In modern medicine, _____ research has changed how doctors understand inherited diseases and individual treatment risks.
4	The judge dismissed the complaint because the alleged error was too _____ to affect the fairness of the trial.
5	During the debate, the minister avoided giving a clear _____ on whether the policy would be delayed.
6	Emergency measures were introduced to _____ food prices after months of inflation and supply-chain disruption.
7	The novelist's final work had a _____ influence on younger writers because it changed what the form could achieve.
8	The agreement created a mechanism _____ smaller states could challenge unfair trade restrictions without direct confrontation.
9	Genetic testing suggested that the remains belonged to a distant _____ shared by several families in the region.
10	Scientists used an _____ clock to measure time with extraordinary precision during the physics experiment.

NAWL-G

Name

Date

Score

SET 2 proton

phosphate gravity pole puzzle respiratory elimination exit corruption circulate

No.	Sentence
1	A hydrogen atom contains one _____ in its nucleus, which gives the nucleus its positive electric charge.
2	Farmers often apply _____ fertilisers because crops need phosphorus for healthy root development.
3	Astronauts must adapt to low _____ because ordinary movements become very different in space.
4	The expedition set out to measure changes in sea ice near the North _____ during late summer.
5	The sudden disappearance of several documents created a legal _____ that investigators struggled to solve.
6	Doctors warned that the virus could cause serious _____ complications in elderly patients and people with asthma.
7	The tournament uses a single-_____ system, so one defeat is enough to remove a team from the competition.
8	Passengers were asked to move calmly toward the nearest emergency _____ after smoke was detected on the train.
9	Years of political _____ had weakened public trust in the police, the courts, and local government.
10	False rumours began to _____ online before officials had released any verified information about the accident.

NAWL-G

Name

Date

Score

SET

3 obscure contradict interfere trauma upward gross optical communist continent physics

No.	Sentence
1	The report was criticised because its technical language was so _____ that even specialists found parts difficult to interpret.
2	Witnesses sometimes _____ one another, especially when they remember the same event from different positions.
3	Parents should support their children's choices, but they should not constantly _____ with every minor decision.
4	Many survivors of the earthquake experienced psychological _____ long after their physical injuries had healed.
5	After the new training programme began, employee productivity showed a steady _____ trend across all departments.
6	The company reported a _____ profit of two million dollars before taxes and operating costs were deducted.
7	The laboratory uses _____ sensors to detect tiny changes in light reflected from the surface of the material.
8	During the Cold War, several countries adopted a _____ system and placed major industries under state control.
9	Africa is the second-largest _____ in the world, both in population and in land area.
10	Advanced students of _____ often need strong mathematical skills to model motion, energy, and matter.

NAWL-G

Name

Date

Score

SET

4 viable limb retrieve presume rationality stereotype slavery artistic faculty anthropology

No.

Sentence

1

The engineers concluded that the original design was not commercially _____ because production costs would exceed likely demand.

2

After the crash, divers were sent to _____ the aircraft's black box from the bottom of the lake.

3

You should not _____ that silence means agreement, especially in cultures where direct disagreement is considered impolite.

4

In public policy, emotional reactions are common, but decisions still require evidence, consistency, and _____.

5

The advertisement was criticised for reinforcing a harmful gender _____ rather than representing people realistically.

6

Historians continue to study the economic systems that depended on _____ and the long-term damage they caused.

7

Her paintings reveal a strong _____ sensibility, even when the subject matter is ordinary domestic life.

8

The university's science _____ voted to introduce a new interdisciplinary degree in environmental technology.

9

Social _____ examines human cultures, rituals, languages, and social structures across different societies.

10

The soldier lost a _____ in the explosion but later learned to walk again with a prosthetic device.

NAWL-G

Name

Date

Score

SET

5 antibiotic portray sexuality chemistry axiom pest fracture transplant goods

shortly

No.	Sentence
1	Doctors try not to prescribe an _____ unless there is clear evidence that the infection is bacterial.
2	The documentary attempted to _____ the refugee crisis through the personal stories of three families.
3	Modern discussions of _____ often include identity, attraction, social norms, and personal autonomy.
4	Organic farmers use natural methods to control each _____ without relying too heavily on chemical pesticides.
5	The X-ray showed a small _____ in the patient's wrist, although the bone had not fully broken apart.
6	Surgeons performed a kidney _____ after a compatible donor was found within the patient's family.
7	Imported _____ were delayed at the port because customs officers had discovered irregular paperwork.
8	In geometry, an _____ is accepted as true without proof and used as the basis for further reasoning.
9	The two researchers had excellent intellectual _____, which made their collaboration unusually productive.
10	The prime minister is expected to make a statement _____ after meeting senior members of the cabinet.

NAWL-G

Name

Date

Score

SET

6 epidemic inversion irrelevant mechanic epidemiology dissolve fatigue nonetheless bargain infectious

No.

Sentence

1

The government declared an _____ after thousands of new cases were reported in several major cities.

2

In English grammar, subject-verb _____ can occur after negative adverbials such as “rarely” or “never”.

3

The judge ruled that the witness’s personal opinion was _____ to the central question of whether fraud had occurred.

4

My car made a strange noise, so I asked a _____ to inspect the engine before the journey.

5

Public-health students study _____ to understand how diseases spread through populations and how outbreaks can be controlled.

6

Sugar will _____ more quickly in hot tea than in cold water because higher temperatures increase molecular motion.

7

Long-term sleep deprivation can lead to serious _____, reducing concentration, memory, and emotional control.

8

The evidence was incomplete; _____, the committee decided that immediate action was necessary.

9

The buyer tried to _____ with the dealer, but the price had already been reduced significantly.

10

Measles is highly _____, so one infected child can expose many others in a crowded classroom.

NAWL-G

Name

Date

Score

SET

7 individually psychologist trans irrigation diary treaty rehabilitation illusion

bat

optimum

No.

Sentence

1

Students were assessed _____ rather than in groups, so each person's contribution could be measured fairly.

2

A clinical _____ can help patients understand patterns of anxiety, memory, and behaviour after severe stress.

3

The prefix _____ often means "across" or "beyond", as in "transnational" or "transatlantic".

4

Farmers built an _____ system to bring water from the river to fields during the dry season.

5

She kept a private _____ during the expedition, recording weather conditions and personal observations every evening.

6

The two countries signed a peace _____ after months of negotiation and international pressure.

7

After the stroke, the patient needed months of physical _____ before he could walk independently again.

8

The magician created the _____ that the coin had vanished, although it was hidden in his sleeve.

9

At night, a _____ can navigate using sound waves rather than relying only on vision.

10

The machine works at its _____ temperature when efficiency is highest and energy loss is lowest.

SET 8	fever	paradox	kidney	predator	migrate
	infinity	shallow	fundamentally	synthetic	solar

No.	Sentence
1	A persistent high _____ may indicate infection and should be monitored carefully in young children.
2	The philosopher described freedom as a _____ because unlimited choice can sometimes make people feel less free.
3	Patients with severe _____ failure may need dialysis or a transplant if the organ can no longer filter blood.
4	A lion is a powerful _____, but its success still depends on habitat, prey availability, and group behaviour.
5	Many birds _____ thousands of kilometres each year to find warmer climates and better feeding grounds.
6	In mathematics, _____ is not simply a very large number but a concept without an upper limit.
7	The lake looked safe, but the water near the edge was too _____ for diving.
8	The two proposals differ _____ because one treats education as a public good and the other as a private investment.
9	Some fabrics are made from _____ fibres rather than natural materials such as cotton or wool.
10	The school installed _____ panels on the roof to reduce electricity costs and carbon emissions.

NAWL-G

Name

Date

Score

SET

9 hepatitis ton bubble bracket elasticity cure contradictory sensation sustainable elastic

No.

Sentence

1

The kidneys filter waste from the blood, but _____ affects the liver and can be caused by several viruses.

2

The warehouse stores nearly a _____ of rice, enough to feed hundreds of families for several weeks.

3

A financial _____ forms when asset prices rise far beyond their real economic value.

4

Put the extra explanation in a _____ so that readers know it is separate from the main sentence.

5

Demand for luxury goods often has high price _____ because buyers can postpone or avoid unnecessary purchases.

6

Doctors could treat the symptoms, but they could not promise to _____ the disease completely.

7

The witness gave two _____ statements, so the court questioned the reliability of his evidence.

8

Touch, pain, heat, and cold are all forms of physical _____ processed by the nervous system.

9

A city needs a _____ transport system that reduces pollution without making travel unaffordable.

10

The material is highly _____, so it returns to its original shape after being stretched.

Name

Date

Score

SET 10	machinery	dictate	vitamin	incline	leisure enforcement	prey	cyclic	clue	friction

No.	Sentence
1	The factory replaced its old _____ with automated equipment that could produce parts faster and more accurately.
2	Authoritarian leaders often try to _____ what newspapers may publish and what citizens may say publicly.
3	A balanced diet should provide enough _____ C, which helps maintain healthy skin and immune function.
4	The path began to _____ sharply after the bridge, making the final part of the hike more difficult.
5	Many people have less _____ time than they expect because work messages continue into evenings and weekends.
6	Strict _____ of environmental laws is necessary; otherwise, companies may ignore pollution limits without consequence.
7	Rabbits are common _____ for foxes, eagles, and other animals that hunt to survive.
8	Economic activity is often _____, with periods of expansion followed by slowdown or recession.
9	The detective found a small but important _____ that connected the suspect to the abandoned car.
10	Too much _____ between the two departments slowed the project because each side defended its own priorities.