

SET

3

damaging

abortion

undergraduate

yell

backing

vacuum

ward

calculation

earnings

faction

No.	Sentence
1	As a first-year _____, she struggled to balance lectures, part-time work, and the pressure of living away from home.
2	Scientists created a near-perfect _____ in the chamber so that they could study how materials behaved without air resistance.
3	The nurse moved him to a quieter hospital _____ after his surgery because he needed closer observation overnight.
4	The politician refused to discuss _____ publicly, knowing the issue could divide both supporters and opponents within hours.
5	The campaign would have collapsed without financial _____ from local businesses and several influential community groups.
6	A small error in the tax _____ led the company to overstate its profits by several million dollars.
7	The investigation revealed _____ evidence that the minister had ignored warnings about pollution near the river.
8	A hard-line _____ inside the party blocked every compromise proposed by the leadership team.
9	Her monthly _____ increased sharply after she moved from freelance work into a permanent consulting role.
10	The coach had to _____ over the noise of the crowd so that the players could hear his instructions.