

- 1 Set 1 - Words 201-210. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column. (10 marks)

Words: utility | organ | acute | corpus | complement | embed | aggregate | verbal | equality | leaf

Sentence	Answer
1. The researcher tried to _____ the new survey items within a broader framework, so that each question reflected the same theoretical assumptions.
2. The hospital introduced a faster triage system because patients with _____ symptoms needed to be identified before less urgent cases.
3. The practical _____ of the model became clear only when teachers began using it to predict which students needed extra support.
4. The visual timeline was designed to _____ the written report, giving readers a clearer sense of how the project developed over time.
5. The editor removed one _____ from the manuscript because it repeated material that had already appeared in an earlier chapter.
6. Although the agreement was never written down, the company treated the manager's _____ promise as a serious professional commitment.
7. The analyst calculated the _____ result from several smaller datasets, rather than relying on a single incomplete source.
8. The new policy was intended to promote _____ by giving rural schools the same access to online resources as urban schools.
9. The linguist built a large digital _____ of student essays to study how academic vocabulary develops over several years.
10. The liver is an essential _____ because it processes nutrients, breaks down toxins, and supports several major bodily functions.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

Set 2 - Words 211-220. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column. (10 marks)

Words: diagnostic | tumor | methodology | infinite | paradigm | psychology | gradient | entity | diverse | fiber

Sentence	Answer
1. Students often struggle with the concept of a mathematical _____ because it describes how quickly a value changes across space or time.
2. The strength of the research lies not only in its findings but also in its transparent _____, which allows other scholars to replicate the study.
3. The law treats the corporation as a separate legal _____, meaning it can own property and sign contracts in its own name.
4. Doctors recommended further testing after the scan revealed a small _____ that could not yet be classified as harmless or dangerous.
5. A diet rich in dietary _____ can improve digestion and may help reduce the risk of several chronic health problems.
6. The discovery forced scientists to rethink the dominant _____ through which they had interpreted language development for decades.
7. Developmental _____ examines how children learn, form relationships, and change emotionally as they grow.
8. The number of possible combinations is theoretically _____, although only a small fraction can be tested in practice.
9. The school deliberately recruited students from _____ backgrounds so that classroom discussions would include a wider range of perspectives.
10. The new blood test is mainly _____ because it helps doctors identify the disease before visible symptoms appear.

3

Set 3 - Words 221-230. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column. (10 marks)

Words: magnitude | continuity | notation | comparable | migration | outer | variability | mathematical | likelihood | probe

Sentence	Answer
1. The film maintains narrative _____ by repeating certain visual details, even though the story moves across several different time periods.
2. Climate scientists study seasonal _____ in rainfall because small changes can strongly affect farming, water supply, and long-term planning.
3. The satellite detected unusual activity in the planet's _____ atmosphere, where solar radiation is much stronger than at the surface.
4. Students must learn standard algebraic _____ before they can read advanced textbooks or follow complex proofs independently.
5. Engineers used a tiny _____ to inspect the inside of the pipeline without cutting through the metal surface.
6. Bird _____ patterns are changing as warmer temperatures alter food availability along traditional routes.
7. The teacher asked students to provide a _____ explanation rather than a vague impression, because the task required precise numerical reasoning.
8. The two experiments are not directly _____ because they used different samples, time frames, and measurement instruments.
9. The _____ of success increased after the team simplified the design and removed several unnecessary technical risks.
10. The earthquake's _____ surprised geologists because the region had not experienced such powerful movement for more than a century.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

4

Set 4 - Words 231-240. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column. (10 marks)

Words: simultaneously | array | disturbance | consciousness | rotation | inclusion | hierarchy | emission | non | inference

Sentence	Answer
1. The software displays an _____ of possible answers, allowing users to compare several alternatives before making a final choice.
2. The university improved student _____ by adding wheelchair access, captioned videos, and flexible assessment formats across all departments.
3. The factory reduced carbon _____ by replacing old machines with more efficient equipment and monitoring fuel use more carefully.
4. The researcher's conclusion was an _____ rather than a direct observation, because the original data did not explicitly state the cause.
5. In academic writing, the prefix _____ often signals negation, as in words such as "nonverbal," "nonlinear," and "nonfiction."
6. Philosophers have long debated whether human _____ can be fully explained by brain activity or whether something remains unresolved.
7. The two systems must operate _____ during the launch, since a delay in either one could cause the entire mission to fail.
8. Even a minor _____ in the classroom can break students' concentration when they are working through a difficult listening task.
9. The company has a strict management _____, so junior employees rarely make major decisions without approval from senior staff.
10. Crop _____ helps preserve soil quality because planting the same species every year can quickly exhaust key nutrients.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

5

Set 5 - Words 241-250. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column. (10 marks)

Words: consonant | partition | validity | archaeology | autonomy | atom | periodic | initiate | inhibit | modification

Sentence	Answer
1. The committee questioned the _____ of the survey because the sample was too small and the questions were poorly designed.
2. The machine requires _____ maintenance every six months, even if it appears to be functioning normally.
3. Modern _____ uses satellite images, chemical analysis, and careful excavation to reconstruct how ancient communities lived.
4. A single _____ contains a nucleus surrounded by electrons, although its internal structure is more complex than early models suggested.
5. The software update included a small _____ that made the interface easier to navigate for first-time users.
6. The architect proposed a glass _____ to separate the meeting area from the open office without blocking natural light.
7. The school decided to _____ a mentoring program after several new teachers reported feeling isolated during their first year.
8. Greater local _____ allowed the region to design education policies that better matched its economic and cultural conditions.
9. Excessive screen time before bed can _____ sleep by delaying the release of hormones that help the body relax.
10. In the word "black," the final sound is a _____ because air is partly blocked as it leaves the mouth.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

6

Set 6 - Words 251-260. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column. (10 marks)

Words: scenario | injection | discrete | effectiveness | classroom | contrary | lateral | biology | morphological | conditional

Sentence	Answer
1. Molecular _____ has changed rapidly as new technologies allow scientists to examine life at the level of genes and proteins.
2. In the worst-case _____, the company would lose access to its main supplier and have to redesign the entire production plan.
3. The scholarship offer was _____ on the student maintaining a high grade average throughout the first academic year.
4. _____ to early reports, the evidence showed that the new policy had produced benefits rather than additional costs.
5. The teacher divided the task into several _____ steps so that students could focus on one problem before moving to the next.
6. The noisy _____ made it difficult for students to hear the recording, especially during the more detailed note-taking section.
7. The _____ structure of the skull helped researchers identify the species, even though only a few bones had been preserved.
8. A _____ movement is useful in many sports because athletes often need to shift quickly from side to side.
9. The patient received an _____ of antibiotics after the oral medication failed to control the infection effectively.
10. The _____ of the training program was measured by comparing student performance before and after the six-week course.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

Set 7 - Words 261-270. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column. (10 marks)

Words: usage | marginal | logical | characterization | client | ethical | longitudinal | insect | calculus | neutral

Sentence	Answer
1. The biologist placed the unknown _____ under a microscope to examine its wings, legs, and segmented body more carefully.
2. Her explanation was clear and _____, moving from evidence to conclusion without making unsupported assumptions.
3. Many engineering students find _____ difficult at first because it requires them to think about continuous change and accumulation.
4. The dictionary records current _____, but it does not always explain why certain expressions sound natural in real conversation.
5. A _____ study follows the same participants over several years, making it useful for tracking development and long-term change.
6. The mediator remained _____ throughout the dispute, refusing to support either side before all the evidence had been reviewed.
7. The profit increase was only _____, so the company could not justify opening another branch immediately.
8. The lawyer met with her _____ to discuss the risks of accepting the settlement before the trial began.
9. The novel's subtle _____ of its main character makes readers gradually understand his fear, ambition, and moral weakness.
10. Researchers must consider _____ issues carefully when collecting personal data from children or vulnerable adults.

Set 8 - Words 271-280. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column. (10 marks)

Words: span | composer | implicit | fetal | oxygen | approximate | superior | converge | comprehension | singular

Sentence	Answer
1. The new microscope produced images of _____ quality, allowing researchers to identify details that older equipment had missed.
2. The figures are only _____ because several regions submitted incomplete data and some categories had to be estimated.
3. The _____ wrote the score for three different instruments, creating a piece that sounded simple but was technically demanding.
4. In grammar, a _____ noun refers to one person, place, thing, or idea rather than more than one.
5. The two political parties began to _____ on education policy after both accepted the need for long-term curriculum reform.
6. Doctors monitored _____ development closely because complications during pregnancy can affect the child's health after birth.
7. Reading _____ improves when students learn to connect pronouns, references, and implied meanings across an entire passage.
8. The speaker made an _____ criticism of the policy by praising every alternative except the one currently being used.
9. The bridge has a central _____ of more than one kilometer, making it one of the longest structures of its kind.
10. Without enough _____, brain cells can be damaged within minutes, which is why emergency treatment must begin quickly.

Set 9 - Words 281-290. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column. (10 marks)

Words: dialect | immune | derivative | appendix | colony | diffusion | formulation | loop | algebra | overview

Sentence	Answer
1. The final _____ of the policy was clearer than earlier drafts because it defined responsibilities, deadlines, and assessment criteria.
2. The villagers spoke a regional _____ that differed from the national standard in pronunciation, vocabulary, and several grammatical patterns.
3. The island began as a trading _____, but it gradually developed its own institutions, economy, and political identity.
4. After vaccination, most participants became _____ to the virus, although a small number still developed mild symptoms.
5. The program entered an endless _____ because one command repeatedly triggered another without reaching a stopping condition.
6. Students who understand basic _____ can solve equations, recognize patterns, and express relationships using symbols rather than words.
7. In calculus, a _____ measures the rate at which one quantity changes in relation to another quantity.
8. The report includes an _____ that lists interview questions, raw survey results, and additional methodological notes.
9. The article begins with a brief _____ of the debate before examining each argument in more detail.
10. The _____ of new ideas across professional networks often depends on trust, repeated contact, and clear evidence of usefulness.

10

Set 10 - Words 291-300. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column. (10 marks)

Words: assert | competence | virtue | fusion | residual | constrain | widespread | conservation | differentiate | specimen

Sentence	Answer
1. The laboratory kept each _____ in a sealed container to prevent contamination before the genetic analysis was completed.
2. The lawyer will _____ that the contract is invalid because one party signed it under pressure and without proper legal advice.
3. The belief that online learning is always cheaper has become _____, although the actual costs vary greatly between institutions.
4. Professional _____ requires not only technical knowledge but also judgment, communication skills, and the ability to solve unfamiliar problems.
5. After the treatment, only _____ traces of the chemical remained in the water, far below the legal safety limit.
6. Nuclear _____ releases energy by combining light atomic nuclei, a process similar to the reactions that power the sun.
7. Wildlife _____ depends on protecting habitats, limiting illegal hunting, and reducing human pressure on fragile ecosystems.
8. Strict regulations may _____ innovation if companies become too afraid of penalties to test new ideas responsibly.
9. Patience is often treated as a _____, but in negotiation it can also be a practical strategic advantage.
10. Good teachers can _____ between careless mistakes and genuine misunderstanding, which leads to more accurate feedback.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.