

- 1 Set 1 - Words 401-410. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column. (10 marks)

Words: peripheral | mineral | spontaneous | reliability | clone | orient | elaborate | nominal | insert | reproduction

Sentence	Answer
1. Although the new airport terminal looks impressive, several transport links remain _____ to the city's long-term economic plan.
2. The geologist explained that the unusual colour of the rock came from a rare _____ found deep underground.
3. Her speech sounded natural because she avoided reading from notes and gave a largely _____ response to the audience's questions.
4. Before purchasing the medical equipment, the hospital tested its long-term _____ under heavy daily use.
5. Scientists warned that creating a genetic _____ of an endangered animal would not solve the problem of habitat loss.
6. New employees need several weeks to _____ themselves to the company's reporting system and internal communication style.
7. The museum displayed an _____ model of the ancient city, complete with streets, markets, temples, and drainage systems.
8. The charity charged only a _____ fee, mainly to discourage people from booking places and then not attending.
9. The editor asked the writer to _____ a short explanation before the final paragraph so readers could follow the argument.
10. The textbook described plant _____ as a biological process involving seeds, pollen, and environmental conditions.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

2

Set 2 - Words 411-420. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column. (10 marks)

Words: dominance | allocation | lung | productive | decay | conscious | thickness | transmit | conceive | offspring

Sentence	Answer
1. The company's market _____ became clear when smaller competitors began copying its pricing strategy and product design.
2. The committee criticized the unfair _____ of funds, arguing that poorer districts received far less support than wealthy ones.
3. Years of smoking had damaged his left _____, making even a short walk up the stairs difficult.
4. The meeting was surprisingly _____ because every participant arrived prepared and focused on solving specific problems.
5. Without proper storage, the fruit will quickly _____, especially in warm and humid conditions.
6. The patient remained fully _____ after the accident and could answer the doctor's questions accurately.
7. Viruses can _____ rapidly in crowded indoor spaces when ventilation is poor and people stay close together.
8. It is difficult to _____ of a fair education system without considering teacher training, school funding, and family background.
9. Engineers measured the _____ of the protective glass before approving it for use in the laboratory.
10. Many animals protect their _____ aggressively when food is limited or predators are nearby.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

3

Set 3 - Words 421-430. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column. (10 marks)

Words: resemble | circulation | correctly | necessity | metaphor | tract | liver | subjective | accumulate | rejection

Sentence	Answer
1. The twins _____ each other so closely that even their teachers occasionally confused them during the first few weeks.
2. Poor blood _____ can cause cold hands, fatigue, and slower recovery after physical exercise.
3. The technician checked whether the machine had been installed _____ before allowing students to use it independently.
4. During the crisis, remote communication became a practical _____ rather than a convenient option for international teams.
5. Calling the internet “a digital highway” is a common _____ because it compares online movement to physical travel.
6. The doctor examined the patient’s digestive _____ after several months of unexplained stomach pain and poor appetite.
7. Excessive alcohol consumption can seriously damage the _____, especially when combined with poor diet and lack of sleep.
8. Taste is highly _____, so a dish that one critic praises may seem ordinary or unpleasant to another person.
9. Dust tends to _____ behind heavy furniture unless the room is cleaned thoroughly and regularly.
10. His application ended in _____ because he had failed to provide the required documents before the deadline.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

4

Set 4 - Words 431-440. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column. (10 marks)

Words: maximize | replacement | amongst | complication | valve | plural | absorption | monetary | thermal | likewise

Sentence	Answer
1. The coach adjusted the training plan to _____ each athlete's strengths while reducing the risk of injury before the tournament.
2. Finding a suitable _____ for the damaged engine part took longer than expected because the model was no longer manufactured.
3. The report was circulated _____ senior staff before it was released to the public.
4. Several guests developed a serious medical _____ after the surgery, so the hospital reviewed its safety procedures immediately.
5. The engineer replaced the broken _____ because water pressure kept rising beyond the safe operating limit.
6. In English grammar, regular nouns usually form the _____ by adding -s or -es to the singular form.
7. The medicine's slow _____ into the bloodstream means patients should not expect immediate pain relief after taking it.
8. The government introduced new _____ measures to control inflation and stabilize the national currency.
9. The building uses advanced _____ insulation to reduce heat loss during winter and lower energy costs.
10. The first proposal was rejected for being unrealistic, and the second was _____ dismissed for ignoring basic financial limits.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

5

Set 5 - Words 441-450. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column. (10 marks)

Words: tolerance | articulate | donor | flux | mobility | manipulation | elevate | nationalism | analogy | adverse

Sentence	Answer
1. The school promotes cultural _____ by encouraging students to discuss differences without treating disagreement as personal attack.
2. A good spokesperson must be able to _____ complex policy decisions clearly under pressure from journalists.
3. She thanked the first blood _____ publicly, hoping that more people would volunteer after hearing his story.
4. Seasonal temperature changes create constant _____ in the lake's oxygen levels, affecting fish and plant life.
5. Greater social _____ allows talented students from poor families to enter professions once dominated by wealthy groups.
6. The investigation found clear evidence of data _____, including deleted records and selectively reported results.
7. The new scholarship programme aims to _____ disadvantaged students by giving them access to mentoring and academic support.
8. Extreme _____ can unite people during a crisis, but it may also encourage hostility toward outsiders.
9. The teacher used an _____ between the human brain and a computer network to explain memory and information processing.
10. The drug was withdrawn after researchers discovered several _____ effects in patients with heart conditions.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

6

Set 6 - Words 451-460. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column. (10 marks)

Words: plausible | nitrogen | vein | controversy | wheat | rewrite | manual | strategic | peasant | absorb

Sentence	Answer
1. Her explanation sounded _____ at first, but several details became doubtful once the evidence was examined closely.
2. Plants need _____ for healthy growth, which is why farmers often add fertilizers to poor soil.
3. The nurse had difficulty finding a clear _____ because the patient was dehydrated and his arms were very cold.
4. The new policy caused public _____ because critics believed it would benefit large companies more than ordinary workers.
5. Global food prices rose sharply after drought reduced the harvest of _____ in several major farming regions.
6. The teacher asked the student to _____ the conclusion because it repeated earlier points without developing the argument.
7. The machine can be operated automatically, but there is also a _____ setting for emergency use.
8. The firm hired consultants to design a _____ plan for entering the Asian market over the next five years.
9. The novel describes a poor _____ family struggling to survive during a period of political violence.
10. Young children often _____ new vocabulary faster when they hear words repeatedly in meaningful contexts.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

Set 7 - Words 461-470. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column. (10 marks)

Words: sketch | justification | lifetime | binary | definite | contour | execution | rhythm | ultimate | dictionary

Sentence	Answer
1. The architect made a quick _____ of the building's entrance before developing a more detailed digital model.
2. The minister offered no convincing _____ for cutting school funding while increasing spending on advertising.
3. After a _____ of teaching, she still remembered the first student who had inspired her career.
4. Computers store information in _____ code, using combinations of zeros and ones to represent data.
5. We need a _____ answer before Friday because the venue cannot hold the room without confirmation.
6. The map shows each _____ line clearly, allowing hikers to judge how steep the mountain path will be.
7. Careful planning matters, but poor _____ can ruin even the most intelligent business strategy.
8. The poem's regular _____ helps the reader hear the movement of waves throughout the passage.
9. The _____ goal of the project is not simply profit, but long-term educational access for rural students.
10. Students should use a learner's _____ to check pronunciation, collocations, and common example sentences.

Set 8 - Words 471-480. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column.

Words: constitution | acceleration | undermine | disadvantage | myth | strand | unify | randomly | philosopher | pronounce

Sentence	Answer
1. The country's written _____ protects basic rights and defines the powers of each branch of government.
2. Sudden _____ can throw passengers backward if they are not wearing seat belts during take-off.
3. Constant criticism from senior managers may _____ employees' confidence and reduce their willingness to take initiative.
4. Students from remote areas are often at a _____ because they have fewer teachers and limited internet access.
5. The belief that success depends only on talent is a damaging _____ because it ignores discipline, opportunity, and training.
6. Police found a single _____ of hair on the jacket, which later became important evidence in the investigation.
7. The new policy was designed to _____ several separate departments into one more efficient organization.
8. Participants were selected _____ by computer to prevent researchers from influencing the results consciously or unconsciously.
9. The ancient _____ argued that self-control was more important than wealth, fame, or political power.
10. Many learners can recognize the word in writing but still struggle to _____ it accurately in conversation.

Set 9 - Words 481-490. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column. (10 marks)

Words: workshop | objection | meaningful | wavelength | diagnose | accent | realm | replication | basin | admission

Sentence	Answer
1. The design students attended a weekend _____ where they learned how to turn rough ideas into practical prototypes.
2. Several parents raised an _____ to the new timetable because younger children would have to leave home before sunrise.
3. A truly _____ apology requires more than polite words; it must include responsibility and changed behaviour.
4. Different colours of light have different _____ values, which determine how they interact with materials.
5. The doctor needed additional blood tests to _____ the disease accurately rather than relying on symptoms alone.
6. His regional _____ became less noticeable after years of living abroad, though some pronunciation patterns remained.
7. Online learning has entered the _____ of mainstream education, not just experimental technology projects.
8. Scientific findings become stronger when independent researchers achieve successful _____ under similar conditions.
9. The river _____ collects water from many smaller streams before carrying it toward the sea.
10. University _____ depends not only on exam scores but also on recommendations, interviews, and personal statements.

10

Set 10 - Words 491-500. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column. (10 marks)

Words: interestingly | clarify | grid | curriculum | displacement | coherent | standardize | civilization | positively | bacterial

Sentence	Answer
1. _____, the weakest students improved fastest once the teacher reduced the number of new words introduced each week.
2. The manager asked the assistant to _____ the client's requirements before the design team started building the prototype.
3. City planners used a digital _____ to divide the district into smaller zones for traffic and pollution analysis.
4. The school revised its science _____ to include climate change, data literacy, and basic programming.
5. Large dams can cause the _____ of local communities when villages are flooded to create reservoirs.
6. A strong essay needs a _____ line of argument rather than a collection of disconnected examples.
7. The company decided to _____ its training materials so that all branches would follow the same safety procedures.
8. Ancient Egyptian _____ developed advanced systems of writing, architecture, agriculture, and religious organization.
9. The teacher responded _____ to the student's question because it showed careful thinking rather than simple confusion.
10. The laboratory confirmed that the infection was _____, so antibiotics were considered appropriate after further testing.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.