

NAWL-A

Name

Date

Score

SET

3 electron receptor velocity

discourse

acid

finite induce interval

vector stimulus

No.	Sentence
1	The laboratory technician added a weak _____ to the solution, causing the indicator to change colour immediately.
2	Certain medicines may _____ sleep, but doctors usually warn patients not to rely on them every night.
3	The car's _____ increased sharply as it moved downhill, forcing the driver to brake before entering the tunnel.
4	Participants completed the same memory task after a short _____, allowing researchers to compare immediate and delayed recall.
5	Public _____ around climate policy often becomes emotional when economic costs are discussed alongside environmental responsibility.
6	The committee had only a _____ amount of funding, so it could not support every promising research proposal.
7	In the experiment, the flashing light acted as a visual _____ that triggered a rapid response from the animal.
8	In mathematics, a _____ has both magnitude and direction, making it different from a simple scalar quantity.
9	When an atom gains an extra _____, its overall electrical charge becomes negative rather than neutral.
10	The hormone binds to a specific _____ on the cell surface before sending a signal into the cell.