

NAWL-A

Name

Date

Score

SET 6 diagnosis statistical partial candidate identification

vowel

node intensity

equilibrium

regression

No.	Sentence
1	The report used advanced _____ methods to estimate how income, education, and location influenced voting behaviour.
2	In English, the sound /i■/ is a long _____, as in the words “see” and “machine”.
3	After several hours, the chemical reaction reached _____, meaning the forward and reverse processes occurred at equal rates.
4	The _____ of the earthquake was so great that buildings hundreds of kilometres away still shook slightly.
5	The economist used linear _____ to examine whether housing prices could be predicted from interest rates and population growth.
6	An early _____ allowed doctors to begin treatment before the infection spread to the patient’s lungs.
7	Biometric _____ systems can recognise individuals by comparing fingerprints, facial features, or patterns in the iris.
8	Each _____ in the network stores information and passes signals to neighbouring units when certain conditions are met.
9	The leading _____ promised to reform education, but critics questioned whether her plan was financially realistic.
10	The committee gave only _____ approval because several safety documents still needed to be reviewed.