

SET 1	cabinet	facilitate	gallon	eager	backdrop
	judicial	abolish	identification	dam	hail

No.	Sentence
1	After years of criticism from civil groups, the government finally agreed to _____ the outdated law that punished peaceful protest.
2	The director used the abandoned factory as a bleak _____ for a film about unemployment and urban decline.
3	During the emergency meeting, the prime minister asked every member of the _____ to prepare a detailed response plan.
4	Engineers warned that if the old _____ collapsed during the storm, thousands of homes downstream could be flooded.
5	Although the internship was unpaid, the students were still _____ to gain experience inside a respected research institute.
6	The new online portal was designed to _____ communication between patients, doctors, and insurance providers across the city.
7	The charity estimated that each family would need at least one _____ of clean water per person every day.
8	Critics were quick to _____ the peace agreement as a historic breakthrough, even though several details remained unresolved.
9	Airport staff refused to let him board because he could not provide valid _____ at the security checkpoint.
10	The report raised serious concerns about political pressure on the country's _____ system and its independent courts.

SET

2 tackle

kidnap

query

sack

machinery

objection

radar

namely lad

pad

No.	Sentence
1	The gang planned to _____ the businessman's son and demand a large payment before releasing him safely.
2	The old _____ from the village later became a respected doctor who returned every summer to treat local patients.
3	The factory had to close for two weeks because its ageing _____ could no longer meet basic safety standards.
4	Three departments were blamed for the failure, _____ sales, logistics, and customer support, which all ignored early warnings.
5	The lawyer raised a formal _____ when the witness began discussing events that were not directly related to the case.
6	She kept a small _____ beside her bed so that she could write down ideas before they disappeared.
7	The database team received a difficult _____ from the finance department about missing payments from overseas clients.
8	Military officials said the aircraft disappeared from _____ shortly after it entered the mountainous border region.
9	The company decided to _____ several senior managers after investigators found evidence of serious financial misconduct.
10	Before the fishing trip, he checked every piece of _____ carefully because broken equipment could ruin the whole weekend.

SET

3 damaging abortion

undergraduate yell

backing

vacuum

ward

calculation

earnings

faction

No.	Sentence
1	As a first-year _____, she struggled to balance lectures, part-time work, and the pressure of living away from home.
2	Scientists created a near-perfect _____ in the chamber so that they could study how materials behaved without air resistance.
3	The nurse moved him to a quieter hospital _____ after his surgery because he needed closer observation overnight.
4	The politician refused to discuss _____ publicly, knowing the issue could divide both supporters and opponents within hours.
5	The campaign would have collapsed without financial _____ from local businesses and several influential community groups.
6	A small error in the tax _____ led the company to overstate its profits by several million dollars.
7	The investigation revealed _____ evidence that the minister had ignored warnings about pollution near the river.
8	A hard-line _____ inside the party blocked every compromise proposed by the leadership team.
9	Her monthly _____ increased sharply after she moved from freelance work into a permanent consulting role.
10	The coach had to _____ over the noise of the crowd so that the players could hear his instructions.

SET
4 landlord

ideological

oblige

gambling

parameter junction

nationwide

halfway magical

kidney

No.	Sentence
1	His addiction to online _____ left him with heavy debts and badly damaged relationships with his family.
2	She stopped _____ through the report when she realized the data had been copied from an outdated source.
3	The debate became increasingly _____, with both sides defending abstract political principles rather than practical solutions.
4	Traffic police closed the busy _____ after two trucks collided and blocked every lane leading into the city.
5	Doctors said his remaining _____ was functioning well, but he would still need regular medical checks.
6	The _____ refused to repair the heating system until the tenants threatened to take legal action.
7	The children described the winter festival as almost _____ because the whole square was filled with lights and music.
8	The education ministry launched a _____ campaign to improve reading levels among children in rural and urban schools.
9	Contract law may _____ employers to provide safe working conditions, even when employees accept risky jobs.
10	The researchers changed one _____ in the model and immediately produced a completely different forecast.

SET
5 quest

warehouse

tactic

backup

yield radical vague underlying sacred absence

No.	Sentence
1	His lifelong _____ to understand human memory took him from hospital clinics to advanced neuroscience laboratories.
2	The proposal was considered too _____ because it would replace the entire tax system within only two years.
3	For many communities, the ancient forest is not merely useful land but a _____ place linked to identity and history.
4	The company used an aggressive pricing _____ to drive smaller competitors out of the regional market.
5	The symptoms looked minor at first, but later tests revealed an _____ heart condition that required immediate treatment.
6	The instructions were so _____ that even experienced staff disagreed about what the new policy actually required.
7	The online retailer built a larger _____ near the port to speed up delivery during the holiday season.
8	Better irrigation helped the farm increase its annual crop _____ despite unusually dry weather in early summer.
9	In the manager's sudden _____, the assistant had to lead the meeting and answer questions from investors.
10	Always keep a secure _____ of important files because a single hardware failure can destroy months of work.

SET 6 gathering

ease jurisdiction

canvas

landmark halt

ideology

faculty dawn

kingdom

No.	Sentence
1	The artist stretched a fresh _____ across the wooden frame before beginning the portrait in natural light.
2	At _____, rescue teams resumed their search for survivors after working through most of the freezing night.
3	The new medication helped _____ the pain enough for him to sleep properly for the first time in weeks.
4	Several members of the university _____ criticized the decision to close the language department without consultation.
5	The family _____ began as a small dinner but soon turned into a noisy celebration with relatives from three cities.
6	The railway company had to _____ all services after inspectors discovered cracks in the main bridge.
7	The dictator's official _____ shaped textbooks, newspapers, and public speeches for more than a generation.
8	The court ruled that the case fell outside its _____ because the alleged crime had occurred in another country.
9	The medieval _____ controlled trade routes across the mountains and became wealthy from taxes on merchants.
10	The opening of the new science museum was seen as a cultural _____ for the whole region.

SET

7 sacrifice

parental undermine naval validity

tactical magistrate

rage

quota

obsess

No.	Sentence
1	The local _____ released the suspect on strict conditions after hearing evidence from both police and lawyers.
2	The government announced a major _____ exercise involving aircraft carriers, submarines, and coastal defence units.
3	Parents complained that the school had introduced the new app without proper _____ consent or data protection safeguards.
4	The university set a strict admissions _____ for each programme to prevent overcrowding in popular courses.
5	He tried not to _____ over every minor mistake, but the failed interview kept returning to his mind.
6	The crowd reacted with visible _____ when officials cancelled the concert only minutes before the singer was due on stage.
7	Soldiers made a painful _____ by destroying the bridge behind them to slow the enemy's advance.
8	The coach made a _____ substitution late in the game to protect a narrow lead against stronger opponents.
9	Constant public criticism can slowly _____ trust in institutions, even when the accusations are never proven.
10	Researchers questioned the _____ of the survey because most responses came from a small and unrepresentative group.

SET
8 gaze

debris

capability

warfare

fade

youngster

absent

bail

echo

handful

No.	Sentence
1	Modern cyber _____ can damage hospitals, banks, and transport networks without a single soldier crossing a border.
2	The coach praised the _____ who kept training every morning despite being much younger than the rest of the team.
3	She was marked _____ from the seminar because she had not informed anyone about her illness in advance.
4	The judge set _____ at a high amount because prosecutors argued that the defendant might leave the country.
5	The company's technical _____ improved after it hired engineers with experience in artificial intelligence and robotics.
6	After the explosion, rescue workers searched through the _____ for documents, phones, and signs of trapped survivors.
7	His voice seemed to _____ through the empty station long after the announcement had ended.
8	Without proper protection, the bright red paint will gradually _____ under strong sunlight and heavy rain.
9	Visitors often stop to _____ at the ceiling, which is covered with thousands of tiny glass stars.
10	Only a _____ of applicants were invited to the final interview after the written test and group task.

SET 9 raid

neglect

lap

just parish magnetic obsession

saint taxpayer

idiot

No.	Sentence
1	Calling someone an _____ during a meeting may feel satisfying, but it usually destroys trust and weakens your argument.
2	A truly _____ legal system must protect unpopular minorities, not only people who already have social power.
3	The child sat on her grandmother's _____ while the family waited for news from the operating room.
4	The speaker had a _____ personality, and even hostile audiences found themselves listening carefully after a few minutes.
5	Chronic _____ of public housing created unsafe buildings, broken lifts, and anger among residents for decades.
6	His _____ with rankings made him ignore whether the course actually improved students' language ability.
7	The small rural _____ raised money to repair its church roof after years of storms and water damage.
8	Police carried out a dawn _____ on three apartments suspected of being used by an organized crime network.
9	Although she was no _____, she had spent most of her life helping strangers without expecting public praise.
10	Every _____ has a right to ask whether public money is being used efficiently and honestly.

SET 10 absurd

ecological vanish

debut

gear

ballot

warrant

fairness

capitalism

undoubtedly

No.	Sentence
1	The new policy will _____ increase costs for small firms, even if officials claim the impact will be limited.
2	The magician made the coin _____ from his hand, but the children later found it hidden inside his sleeve.
3	Police cannot normally enter a private home without a legal _____ signed by a judge.
4	The idea that students can master academic writing in two days is completely _____ and ignores how learning works.
5	Voters marked their choices on a paper _____ before placing it into a sealed box at the school hall.
6	Modern _____ encourages innovation and competition, but it can also produce serious inequality without regulation.
7	Her professional _____ at the international film festival attracted attention from critics across Europe.
8	The factory’s waste created serious _____ damage by poisoning the river and killing fish downstream.
9	The school revised its scholarship rules to improve _____ for students from lower-income families.
10	Climbers checked their safety _____ twice before attempting the icy route near the mountain summit.