

SET
1

hostile

infant

fluid

acute

circulate

guilt

worthwhile

density

encouraging

blade

No.	Sentence
1	Although the research project required months of unpaid interviews and repeated revisions, the final policy impact made it genuinely _____.
2	In the emergency ward, doctors treated the patient first because his chest pain was sudden, severe, and medically _____.
3	The chef warned the apprentice that even a slightly damaged _____ could make the knife unpredictable during fast preparation.
4	False claims can _____ rapidly on social media when users share emotional stories before checking reliable sources.
5	Urban planners measured population _____ carefully before deciding whether the district could support another metro station.
6	The early trial results were not conclusive, but the improvement in several patients was still considered highly _____.
7	After the surgery, nurses monitored the patient's blood pressure and the amount of _____ entering through the intravenous line.
8	He accepted responsibility for the failed inspection, but his private sense of _____ became unhealthy and disproportionate.
9	The negotiations collapsed because several representatives adopted a deliberately _____ tone instead of addressing the proposal calmly.
10	The charity focused on early nutrition because damage during the first year can seriously affect an _____ later in life.