

SET 1	stun	constitutional	pump	auto	pulse structural	authorize	stumble	punch	constitution

No.	Sentence
1	After climbing the stairs too quickly, the patient asked the nurse to check his _____ before the examination continued.
2	The engineers warned that the cracks were not decorative but _____ weaknesses that could affect the safety of the building.
3	Only the finance director can _____ payments above this amount after the legal team has reviewed the documents.
4	The new government promised to protect free speech by revising the country's _____ through a public process.
5	The emergency team used a machine to _____ water out of the flooded basement before the electrical system failed.
6	During the presentation, the speaker began to _____ over the figures when investors asked for exact quarterly data.
7	The city plans to limit private _____ traffic downtown and improve public transport during the trial period.
8	The court ruled that the search was not _____ because officers had entered the house without proper legal authority.
9	The boxer landed a clean _____ in the final round, but the judges still awarded the match to his opponent.
10	The announcement was serious enough to _____ the entire room into silence before anyone asked a question.

SET

2 contempt

subscription

autonomy

await consultation

constraint

subscriber contemplate

submission

availability

No.	Sentence
1	The research team valued academic _____ because it allowed scientists to choose methods without political interference.
2	Budget pressure became the main _____ on the project, forcing managers to delay several non-essential features.
3	The journal rejected his _____ because it lacked original data and did not follow the required citation format.
4	Before booking the workshop, please check the trainer's _____ because she is already committed to several schools.
5	The ministry opened a public _____ so teachers and parents could comment on the proposed curriculum changes.
6	Each _____ receives weekly grammar exercises and a monthly progress report through the online platform.
7	The athletes now _____ the final decision from the committee after the appeal hearing finished yesterday.
8	Many graduates _____ moving abroad, but they often underestimate the administrative and emotional costs involved.
9	The streaming service raised its monthly _____, which led thousands of users to cancel within a week.
10	The lawyer was held in _____ of court after refusing to obey the judge's direct instruction.

SET 3

content substantially contender

subsidy

substitution

contend continually substantial substitute

contention

No.	Sentence
1	The city introduced a rent _____ to help low-income families remain in their homes despite rising prices.
2	Critics _____ that the policy rewards inefficient companies instead of forcing them to improve productivity.
3	The school received a _____ donation, enough to renovate the library and upgrade the science laboratories.
4	Although she was not the favourite, the young swimmer became a serious _____ after breaking the national record.
5	Energy costs fell _____ after the factory replaced old machines with more efficient equipment.
6	After years of chasing promotions, he finally felt _____ with a quieter job and more time for his family.
7	The chef used yoghurt as a _____ for cream because several guests wanted a lighter dessert.
8	The main _____ in the debate was whether exam scores should decide admission to elite schools.
9	The _____ of online meetings for travel reduced costs but also weakened informal team relationships.
10	The software team had to revise the app _____ because users kept reporting the same login error every week.

SET

4 successor

conversion

suburban contrary

contractor

succession

contributor contradiction

subtle successive

No.	Sentence
1	The editor made a _____ change to the title, but it completely altered the tone of the article.
2	The developer hired a local _____ to repair the roof after the inspection revealed serious water damage.
3	Many young families prefer _____ neighbourhoods because housing is larger and schools are usually less crowded.
4	The witness's second statement created a direct _____ because it denied what he had said under oath earlier.
5	_____ to popular belief, the cheaper course produced better exam results than the expensive one.
6	The magazine thanked every _____ who had written articles, donated images, or reviewed drafts before publication.
7	The old warehouse's _____ into student housing required new plumbing, windows, and fire-safety systems.
8	After three _____ defeats, the coach changed the team's training schedule and starting line-up.
9	The royal family avoided discussing the line of _____ until the king's health became a public issue.
10	The board has not yet named a _____ to replace the retiring chief executive next spring.

SET

5 coordinate sue cooperative suicide summit

suite convict cooperate

suck

conviction

No.	Sentence
1	The child used a straw to _____ the last drops of juice from the bottom of the carton.
2	Prosecutors failed to _____ the suspect because the key witness changed her testimony during the trial.
3	His earlier _____ for fraud prevented him from getting a senior position at the bank.
4	The company plans to _____ the supplier for breach of contract after several shipments arrived damaged.
5	The charity urged schools to discuss _____ prevention openly rather than treating mental health as a taboo subject.
6	Different departments must _____ during the inspection, or the auditors will receive incomplete information.
7	The receptionist upgraded the family to a larger _____ with two bedrooms and a view of the harbour.
8	The two presidents met at a climate _____ to negotiate stronger limits on industrial emissions.
9	The usually difficult client became surprisingly _____ after we explained the legal consequences of delaying payment.
10	One project manager will _____ the volunteers, transport, and equipment before the festival opens.

SET 6 supervision

superb

supervisor

coordinator

copyright

superior copper cop

coordination

supervise

No.	Sentence
1	The restaurant earned a _____ review because the food, service, and atmosphere were all consistently excellent.
2	The new camera is _____ to the old model in low light, although it is heavier and more expensive.
3	Children under twelve may use the laboratory only under direct adult _____ during the science workshop.
4	The company hired a safety officer to _____ workers while they installed equipment on the factory roof.
5	Poor _____ between the sales and delivery teams caused customers to receive the wrong products repeatedly.
6	The event _____ sent updated schedules to every speaker after the venue changed several session times.
7	The frightened shopkeeper called a _____ when two men tried to force open the back door at midnight.
8	Older electrical wires often contain _____, which conducts electricity well but can become dangerous if exposed.
9	The publisher owns the _____ for the textbook, so teachers cannot copy entire chapters without permission.
10	The trainee asked her _____ to review the report before she submitted it to the client.

Name

Date

Score

SET 7	supportive	correspond	supreme	correlation	suppress correction	correspondence	supposedly	supplement	correlate

No.	Sentence
1	The teacher advised students to _____ textbook reading with podcasts so they could hear academic vocabulary in context.
2	The editor made one small _____ to the headline after noticing that the date was wrong.
3	Her parents were financially and emotionally _____ while she prepared for the demanding medical entrance exam.
4	Researchers found that sleep quality and memory scores _____ strongly among older adults in the study.
5	A clear _____ exists between daily reading time and vocabulary growth, although it does not prove direct causation.
6	The new restaurant is _____ owned by a famous actor, but no official company records confirm the claim.
7	The government tried to _____ criticism by blocking independent media during the crisis.
8	The figures in this table do not _____ with the numbers published in last year’s annual report.
9	The case reached the _____ court, leaving no higher authority to hear another appeal.
10	The lawyer saved every piece of email _____ because it could prove what the client had agreed to.

SET
8 surplus surveillance corresponding surrender

costly surge corruption surgical corrupt correspondent

No.	Sentence
1	The hospital reported a sudden _____ in emergency visits after the heatwave began on Monday afternoon.
2	The foreign _____ described the election protests from the capital as police blocked several main roads.
3	The doctor recommended a _____ procedure because medication had failed to reduce the patient's pain.
4	Each online order has a _____ tracking number, so customers can follow the exact delivery status.
5	The factory produced a large _____ of masks after demand fell faster than managers had expected.
6	The former mayor was widely seen as _____ after investigators found payments from construction companies.
7	The investigation exposed serious _____ within the department, including bribery and illegal contract awards.
8	The army refused to _____ even after losing control of the airport and two major supply routes.
9	After repeated thefts, the museum installed video _____ throughout the building and near every exit.
10	The delayed safety inspection proved _____ when the bridge later required emergency repairs.

SET 9 counselling swing

counterpart

suspicion

councillor sustain counter

suspension

counsellor

suspicious

No.	Sentence
1	The athlete received a six-month _____ after failing a drug test before the regional championship.
2	The local _____ promised to improve bus services for elderly residents during the election campaign.
3	After the accident, several students received grief _____ to help them process the shock and anxiety.
4	The school _____ advised the teenager to speak with his parents before choosing subjects for next year.
5	Police became increasingly _____ when the driver gave three different explanations for the same journey.
6	Her sudden deletion of financial records raised _____ among auditors reviewing the charity's accounts.
7	The charity needs regular donations to _____ its free meal programme through the winter.
8	The minister tried to _____ the criticism by publishing data showing that waiting times had actually fallen.
9	Public opinion may _____ sharply after the televised debate if either candidate makes a serious mistake.
10	The British finance minister will meet his French _____ to discuss a joint response to inflation.

SET 10 sword countless symbolic coup

syndrome

courtesy

synthesis craft

systematic crawl

No.	Sentence
1	The opposition dismissed the president's resignation as the result of a carefully orchestrated political _____ rather than a voluntary transfer of power.
2	The researcher's argument is not merely a summary of existing theories, but a sophisticated _____ of psychological, economic and sociological perspectives.
3	After the company's reputation collapsed, its public apology was widely criticised as a purely _____ gesture with little practical consequence.
4	The committee adopted a more _____ approach to reviewing applications, using fixed criteria rather than relying on personal judgement.
5	The journalist faced _____ obstacles while trying to verify the claims, from missing documents to contradictory witness statements.
6	The diplomat's remark was delivered with formal _____, but everyone in the room understood the underlying hostility.
7	The child's unusual combination of physical symptoms was later identified as part of a rare neurological _____.
8	The novelist managed to _____ a convincing narrative out of fragmented memories, unreliable testimony and historical records.
9	Once celebrated as the nation's military saviour, the general eventually chose to die by his own _____ rather than surrender.
10	As neither side was willing to make even a minor concession, negotiations began to _____.