

- 1 Set 1 - Words 901-910. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column. (10 marks)

Words: pastor | scope | layout | harsh | ray | mandatory | imprison | operational | glorious | noble

No.	Sentence	Answer
1	After months of poor planning, the design team finally changed the office _____ so that staff could collaborate without constant noise.
2	Because several witnesses were threatened before the trial, the judge decided to _____ the defendant until the full investigation was complete.
3	The mountain village looked almost unreal at sunrise, with a single golden _____ breaking through the clouds above the valley.
4	The school's new safety course is not optional; for every laboratory student, attendance is now completely _____.
5	Although the charity received little publicity, many residents described the volunteer's decision to risk his life as truly _____.
6	The factory is not fully automated yet, but the main production line became _____ after the engineers replaced the damaged control system.
7	The committee rejected the proposal because its financial analysis was too narrow in _____ to justify such a large investment.
8	The new manager's feedback was technically accurate, but his tone sounded unnecessarily _____ during a meeting with junior staff.
9	During the memorial service, the local _____ spoke about forgiveness, courage, and the responsibility of rebuilding trust.
10	For the athlete, winning after three years of injury was a _____ moment that restored her reputation internationally.

2

Set 2 - Words 911-920. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column. (10 marks)

Words: battlefield | well-being | accessible | verdict | electoral | terminate | deed | fibre | casualty | uphold

No.	Sentence	Answer
1	The company may _____ the contract immediately if the supplier repeatedly fails to meet the agreed delivery standards.
2	After reviewing the evidence for six weeks, the jury finally reached a unanimous _____ in the corruption case.
3	A democratic court must _____ basic legal rights even when public anger against the accused person is intense.
4	The museum redesigned its entrance so that the main exhibition would be fully _____ to wheelchair users and elderly visitors.
5	Modern employers increasingly recognize that productivity depends not only on salaries but also on workers' mental _____.
6	The historian argued that one brave _____ during the occupation saved hundreds of civilians from being deported.
7	Several international observers questioned whether the _____ process had been fair, especially in rural districts with limited media access.
8	The old fortress later became a _____ where thousands of soldiers fought under extremely difficult winter conditions.
9	Rescue teams confirmed that the driver was the only serious _____ after the bus slid off the icy mountain road.
10	Doctors often advise patients to increase dietary _____ because it helps digestion and supports long-term heart health.

3

Set 3 - Words 921-930. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column. (10 marks)

Words: readily | patch | screw | glory | nod | imprisonment | manifest | leak | opt | harvest

No.	Sentence	Answer
1	The old empire's military _____ faded quickly once economic decline and internal corruption weakened its control over distant provinces.
2	Farmers in the region expect a poor _____ this year because heavy rain damaged the wheat before it fully ripened.
3	The activist described his ten years of _____ as the price he paid for openly criticizing an authoritarian government.
4	After the confidential report began to _____ online, several ministers were forced to explain their private negotiations.
5	Stress does not always appear as anger; in some people, it may _____ as sleeplessness, stomach pain, or constant fatigue.
6	When asked whether she understood the revised instructions, the trainee gave a quick _____ but still looked uncertain.
7	Many families now _____ for online banking because it saves time and reduces the need to visit local branches.
8	Good researchers do not accept convenient explanations too _____ when the data can still support alternative interpretations.
9	The cyclist stopped beside the road to fix a small _____ on his jacket after falling against a sharp rock.
10	The technician warned us not to tighten the _____ too aggressively because it might damage the plastic casing.

4

Set 4 - Words 931-940. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column. (10 marks)

Words: fierce | catalogue | verify | terrain | elevate | accomplishment | whatsoever | utility | deem | bay

No.	Sentence	Answer
1	The rescue helicopters struggled to land because the rocky _____ made it almost impossible to find a flat surface.
2	Before publishing the investigation, the newspaper hired independent lawyers to _____ every claim made by the anonymous source.
3	The witness insisted that he had no connection _____ with the stolen documents found in the minister's office.
4	Completing the research project while working full-time was a remarkable _____ that few students in the program had achieved.
5	The fishing town grew around a sheltered _____ where boats could avoid the worst waves during winter storms.
6	The library's online _____ allows students to search old manuscripts, journals, and government records from one platform.
7	The panel may _____ the building unsafe if the engineers confirm that several major structural supports have failed.
8	The charity hopes the campaign will _____ public discussion beyond short-term donations toward deeper questions of poverty.
9	The new battery has limited _____ for emergency teams because it cannot operate reliably in cold weather.
10	Competition for places at the academy is extremely _____ because only twenty applicants are accepted each year.

5

Set 5 - Words 941-950. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column. (10 marks)

Words: manipulate | scrutiny | patent | inability | governance | optical | realization | leap | hatred | nominate

No.	Sentence	Answer
1	The documentary showed how political consultants can _____ public opinion by repeating misleading claims across multiple media channels.
2	Her sudden _____ that the company had been hiding losses for years changed the direction of the entire investigation.
3	The scientist applied for a _____ after developing a cheaper battery design that could store energy more efficiently.
4	The candidate's _____ to answer basic economic questions damaged his credibility during the televised debate.
5	The committee will _____ one researcher for the international prize after comparing the impact of all shortlisted projects.
6	Effective _____ requires clear rules, public records, and leaders who can be questioned about their decisions.
7	The invention represented a major _____ in medical imaging, allowing doctors to detect smaller tumors much earlier.
8	After years of mutual suspicion, political _____ between the two communities made any serious negotiation almost impossible.
9	The new microscope uses advanced _____ technology to produce clearer images of cells without damaging the sample.
10	Public officials who control large budgets should expect intense _____ from journalists, auditors, and ordinary taxpayers.

6

Set 6 - Words 951-960. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column. (10 marks)

Words: eligible | whereby | terrific | accordance | cater | beam | film-maker | default | utilize | verse

No.	Sentence	Answer
1	The university confirmed that only students with a final grade above 85 are _____ for the overseas research scholarship.
2	The director was praised as a bold _____ who could turn ordinary family stories into visually powerful cinema.
3	The restaurant changed its menu to _____ for customers who avoid meat, dairy products, or food containing gluten.
4	The contract must be signed in _____ with local employment law, otherwise the agreement may not be legally valid.
5	The engineer directed a narrow _____ of light across the tunnel to check whether the ceiling had started to crack.
6	The software returns to its _____ settings if users delete their personal preferences during the update process.
7	The organization created a system _____ local volunteers could report problems directly to regional coordinators.
8	The team managed to _____ old warehouse space as temporary classrooms after the main school building was damaged.
9	The poet changed the final _____ because its rhythm sounded weaker than the rest of the poem.
10	The doctor said her recovery was _____ considering the seriousness of the accident and the length of the operation.

7

Set 7 - Words 961-970. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column. (10 marks)

Words: optimism | pathway | legacy | haunt | seal | manipulation | inadequate | nomination | grace | realm

No.	Sentence	Answer
1	The dancer moved with unusual _____, making even the most technically difficult sequence appear natural and effortless.
2	Years after leaving office, the president's political _____ remained controversial because his reforms helped some groups but harmed others.
3	The memory of the failed rescue continued to _____ the firefighter long after the official investigation had ended.
4	The inspection report concluded that the hospital's emergency equipment was _____ for a city with such a large population.
5	Several economists accused the government of currency _____ after it repeatedly intervened to keep exports artificially cheap.
6	Her _____ for the national teaching award surprised many colleagues because she had never tried to promote herself publicly.
7	Despite the recession, investors showed cautious _____ after unemployment fell for the third consecutive month.
8	The new apprenticeship scheme offers a practical _____ into engineering for students who do not want a traditional university route.
9	Questions about artificial intelligence now reach far beyond technology and enter the _____ of ethics, law, and education.
10	Please _____ the envelope carefully before sending it because the documents inside contain confidential financial information.

8

Set 8 - Words 971-980. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column. (10 marks)

Words: testify | versus | beast | utterly | cattle | whilst | accordingly | defect | elite | filter

No.	Sentence	Answer
1	The engineer discovered a small _____ in the engine design that could become dangerous under extreme heat.
2	Many rural families keep _____ not only for meat and milk but also as a sign of long-term household wealth.
3	The debate focused on economic growth _____ environmental protection, although several experts argued that the contrast was misleading.
4	Several former employees agreed to _____ before the inquiry about safety warnings that managers had ignored.
5	We adjusted the timetable _____ after several teachers reported that the original schedule left no time for assessment.
6	The army called the new tank a technological _____ because it could cross rivers and rough ground with unusual speed.
7	The first prototype was _____ useless in heavy rain, so the engineers had to redesign the exposed control panel.
8	Only a small political _____ had access to the private negotiations that shaped the country's new constitution.
9	The machine can _____ polluted water through several layers of sand, charcoal, and chemical treatment.
10	The professor continued answering emails _____ the students waited outside his office for feedback on their essays.

9

Set 9 - Words 981-990. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column. (10 marks)

Words: inappropriate | rear | secular | nominee | manuscript | patrol | legendary | oral | hazard | grasp

No.	Sentence	Answer
1	The committee considered his joke deeply _____ because it mocked people who had suffered during the recent disaster.
2	Drivers should check the _____ mirror carefully before changing lanes on a busy highway.
3	The city increased night _____ around the station after several passengers reported thefts and threatening behavior.
4	The novelist sent the completed _____ to her editor after revising the final chapter for nearly three months.
5	The coach became _____ after leading a small local team to five national championships in eight years.
6	The final exam includes an _____ presentation, so students must explain their research clearly without reading from notes.
7	Loose cables across the laboratory floor are a serious safety _____ because students could trip while carrying chemicals.
8	Many first-year students struggle to _____ the difference between correlation and causation without concrete examples.
9	The award _____ answered questions calmly, although reporters kept asking about the controversy surrounding his selection.
10	The court remained _____ in its language, avoiding religious references when explaining the legal basis of the ruling.

10

Set 10 - Words 991-1000. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column.

(10 marks)

Words: defensive | testimony | fine | behalf | grave | caution | embark | vessel | accountability | whip

No.	Sentence	Answer
1	The witness's _____ contradicted the earlier police report and forced investigators to reopen several parts of the case.
2	The charity director spoke on _____ of the volunteers who had worked through the night during the flood.
3	The company received a heavy _____ after inspectors found that it had dumped chemicals into the river illegally.
4	Mountain guides urged extreme _____ because sudden weather changes could trap inexperienced climbers above the snow line.
5	The minister sounded unusually _____ when journalists asked why public funds had been spent without proper records.
6	True _____ requires officials not only to publish reports but also to explain failures and accept consequences.
7	The museum displayed a wooden _____ that had carried merchants across the Indian Ocean three centuries earlier.
8	The chef told the trainee to _____ the cream until it became thick enough to hold its shape.
9	After graduation, she decided to _____ on a demanding legal career rather than accept a safer administrative job.
10	Visitors placed flowers beside the soldier's _____ to honor his sacrifice during the final battle.	