

1

Set 1 - Words 1001-1010. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column.

(10 marks)

Words: texture | nonetheless | march | reasoning | heighten | incidence | patron | organizational | seemingly | legislation

No.	Sentence	Answer
1	The committee introduced stricter safety rules after several minor failures began to _____ public anxiety about the ageing transport system.
2	Researchers found that the _____ of respiratory illness was significantly higher in districts with poor housing and limited access to healthcare.
3	The new environmental _____ requires factories to report their emissions publicly and face penalties for repeated violations.
4	Thousands of workers joined a peaceful _____ through the capital after negotiations over wages collapsed for the third time.
5	The proposal is expensive and politically risky; _____, it may be the only realistic way to prevent long-term damage.
6	The charity's failure was not caused by lack of money but by weak _____ structures and unclear lines of responsibility.
7	The museum thanked an anonymous _____ whose donation allowed several fragile paintings to be restored before the exhibition opened.
8	His legal _____ was persuasive because it connected each piece of evidence to a clear and consistent interpretation of events.
9	The plan was _____ simple at first, but it later revealed several hidden technical and financial complications.
10	The chef added roasted nuts to the dish because their crisp _____ contrasted well with the softness of the vegetables.

2

Set 2 - Words 1011-1020. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column.

(10 marks)

Words: heritage | accountable | veteran | grave | beloved | wholly | firearm | cautious | embarrassment | deficiency

No.	Sentence	Answer
1	The retired diplomat was a _____ negotiator who understood how small wording changes could affect an entire international agreement.
2	Public officials must remain _____ to citizens when their decisions involve large budgets, public safety, or basic legal rights.
3	The city held a memorial service for its _____ mayor, whose decades of public service had shaped local education policy.
4	The investment team took a _____ approach because the market data was mixed and several major risks remained unresolved.
5	A severe vitamin _____ can weaken the immune system, especially when poor diet is combined with long-term medical problems.
6	His public apology did little to reduce the _____ caused by the leaked recording of his careless private remarks.
7	The security officer confirmed that no _____ had been found inside the building after the emergency evacuation was completed.
8	The judge warned that lying under oath was a _____ offence that could seriously damage the fairness of the trial.
9	The old temple is part of the region's cultural _____ and should not be demolished for a short-term commercial project.
10	The report was _____ misleading because it ignored the strongest evidence against the company's preferred conclusion.

3

Set 3 - Words 1021-1030. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column.

(10 marks)

Words: segment | viable | inclined | legislative | marginal | orientation | peak | reassure | non-profit | thankfully

No.	Sentence	Answer
1	Investors are increasingly _____ to support companies that can show both strong revenue growth and credible environmental standards.
2	The committee reviewed the _____ process carefully because several proposed changes would affect citizens' privacy and voting rights.
3	The tax cut produced only a _____ improvement in household spending, far smaller than the government had publicly predicted.
4	The clinic operates as a _____ organisation, so any surplus income is used to expand services rather than reward shareholders.
5	New employees attend a two-day _____ programme before they are allowed to handle confidential client information independently.
6	Tourist numbers reached their _____ in August, when hotel prices were highest and the old town became extremely crowded.
7	The manager tried to _____ staff that the restructuring would not automatically lead to job losses across the department.
8	The documentary included a short _____ on migrant workers, but it failed to examine their living conditions in real depth.
9	The storm damaged several roads near the village; _____, no residents were injured during the night of heavy flooding.
10	The proposal is technically _____, but it will require careful budgeting and unusually strong cooperation between departments.

4

Set 4 - Words 1031-1040. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column.

(10 marks)

Words: cease | embassy | widen | hierarchy | accumulate | deficit | inclusion | gravity | fit | bench

No.	Sentence	Answer
1	The education gap may continue to _____ if poorer schools cannot attract experienced teachers or provide stable digital resources.
2	Dust can _____ inside old ventilation systems when maintenance is delayed and air filters are not replaced regularly.
3	The company agreed to _____ operations in the region after regulators found repeated violations of safety and labour standards.
4	The government announced a larger budget _____ after tax revenues fell sharply and emergency spending increased during the crisis.
5	Protesters gathered outside the foreign _____ to demand the release of journalists detained during the military crackdown.
6	The candidate seemed like a good _____ for the role because her experience matched both the technical and managerial requirements.
7	The physicist explained that _____ affects every object with mass, although its force becomes weaker over very large distances.
8	The organisation's rigid _____ made it difficult for junior employees to challenge decisions made by senior executives.
9	True social _____ requires more than inviting people into a room; it also requires giving them influence over decisions.
10	The coach kept his injured captain on the _____ until the final minutes because the match was already under control.

5

Set 5 - Words 1041-1050. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column.

(10 marks)

Words: originate | marine | nonsense | seize | vibrant | legislature | rebel | peasant | theatrical | widow

No.	Sentence	Answer
1	The national _____ debated the emergency bill for three days before voting to expand the government's temporary powers.
2	Scientists warned that plastic waste could cause serious damage to _____ ecosystems, especially in coastal areas with heavy tourism.
3	The claim that the project would cost nothing was complete _____, since several departments had already requested extra funding.
4	Many of the village traditions appear to _____ from seasonal farming rituals that were later adapted into public festivals.
5	The novel follows a poor _____ who leaves the countryside after repeated droughts make survival almost impossible for his family.
6	The _____ leader promised political reform, but his movement quickly became divided over strategy and personal ambition.
7	Police moved quickly to _____ documents that might prove the company had hidden evidence from financial investigators.
8	His speech was powerful but unnecessarily _____, with dramatic pauses and exaggerated gestures that distracted from the argument.
9	The district has become a _____ cultural centre, full of independent cinemas, small galleries, and late-night music venues.
10	After her husband died, the _____ had to manage the family business while also raising three young children alone.

6

Set 6 - Words 1051-1060. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column.

(10 marks)

Words: fixture | legitimate | accumulation | incur | grid | cemetery | defy | embed | high-profile | benchmark

No.	Sentence	Answer
1	The slow _____ of small errors eventually produced a serious accounting problem that no single manager could easily explain.
2	The exam results became a national _____ for judging whether the new curriculum had improved students' analytical writing skills.
3	The old _____ on the hill contains several graves from the nineteenth century and remains protected by local heritage rules.
4	The journalist decided to _____ hidden assumptions in the article so readers could understand the political bias behind the claims.
5	The broken light _____ in the hallway was reported months ago, yet the landlord still had not arranged proper repairs.
6	Engineers warned that the electricity _____ would become unstable if several large factories increased consumption at the same time.
7	The _____ trial attracted national attention because it involved a famous executive and allegations of systematic financial misconduct.
8	Companies that ignore data-protection rules may _____ heavy fines, even when no customer information is publicly leaked.
9	Her complaint was entirely _____ because the contract clearly promised a refund if delivery was delayed by more than thirty days.
10	The mayor chose to _____ the party leadership by voting against the bill, even though it damaged his chance of promotion.

7

Set 7 - Words 1061-1070. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column.

(10 marks)

Words: vice | theology | noon | outbreak | width | rebellion | seldom | marketplace | accusation | peculiar

No.	Sentence	Answer
1	The online _____ allows small producers to sell directly to customers without depending on traditional retailers or distributors.
2	The meeting was scheduled for _____ so that colleagues in different time zones could all attend without working too late.
3	A sudden _____ of food poisoning forced the school to close its cafeteria while health officials inspected the kitchen.
4	The king crushed the _____ within weeks, but the resentment that caused it continued to shape politics for decades.
5	She _____ speaks in public, so her detailed criticism of the board's decision surprised almost everyone in the room.
6	The professor specialised in medieval _____ and examined how religious ideas influenced law, education, and political authority.
7	His main _____ was arrogance: he refused to listen to warnings until the company had already lost its strongest clients.
8	The bridge's unusual _____ made it difficult for two buses to pass safely, especially during heavy rain and poor visibility.
9	The journalist denied the _____ that he had invented sources to make the investigation appear more credible.
10	The smell in the laboratory was so _____ that even experienced researchers stopped working and checked the equipment immediately.

8

Set 8 - Words 1071-1080. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column.

(10 marks)

Words: delegate | mask | chamber | hint | grief | beneath | lengthy | indicator | embody | flaw

No.	Sentence	Answer
1	The documents were hidden _____ a loose floorboard, where investigators found them during a second search of the apartment.
2	The parliamentary _____ remained silent as the minister admitted that the rescue plan had failed to protect vulnerable families.
3	Each regional _____ was asked to present local concerns before the national committee voted on the final reform package.
4	The school's scholarship programme aims to _____ the principle that talent should not be limited by family income.
5	The main _____ in the proposal is its assumption that volunteers can replace trained professionals in high-risk situations.
6	Her sudden withdrawal from work reflected deep _____ after the death of her sister, not a lack of professional commitment.
7	The minister gave a subtle _____ that taxes might rise, although he avoided making any direct promise or announcement.
8	Unemployment is often used as an economic _____, but it does not fully capture job quality or income insecurity.
9	The report was so _____ that many councillors read only the summary before voting on the most controversial section.
10	The actor wore a plain white _____ to suggest that the character had lost his personal identity within the regime.

9

Set 9 - Words 1081-1090. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column.

(10 marks)

Words: vicious | accused | notable | theoretical | recipient | persist | beneficiary | selective | outing | willingness

No.	Sentence	Answer
1	The study made a _____ contribution by showing that early reading habits affect later academic confidence as well as vocabulary growth.
2	The class planned a weekend _____ to the science museum after finishing a unit on climate systems and renewable energy.
3	If symptoms _____ for more than two weeks, patients should seek medical advice rather than relying on temporary home remedies.
4	The grant _____ must submit a progress report every six months to show how the public money has been used.
5	Elite universities are highly _____, so strong grades alone may not guarantee admission without evidence of independent achievement.
6	The model remains largely _____ because it has not yet been tested under real market conditions or with actual users.
7	The online debate became increasingly _____, with participants attacking each other personally instead of addressing the evidence.
8	Her _____ to revise the policy surprised critics who had expected the minister to defend the original version stubbornly.
9	The _____ remained silent throughout the hearing while his lawyer challenged the reliability of the witness testimony.
10	Under the trust agreement, the youngest child became the main _____ of the family estate after both parents died.

10

Set 10 - Words 1091-1100. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column.

(10 marks)

Words: notably | indictment | lesbian | delegation | flawed | massacre | chaos | grin | homeland | emergence

No.	Sentence	Answer
1	The sudden cancellation caused complete _____ at the airport, with passengers receiving contradictory instructions from different airline staff.
2	The trade _____ included business leaders, transport officials, and university researchers who hoped to strengthen regional cooperation.
3	The rapid _____ of digital banking has changed how many people save money, transfer funds, and evaluate financial services.
4	The investigation found that the safety review was deeply _____ because it ignored warnings from engineers and excluded independent experts.
5	He tried to _____ when the cameras turned toward him, but his nervous expression made the apology seem less convincing.
6	After twenty years abroad, she returned to her _____ and began documenting the stories of families displaced by earlier conflicts.
7	The grand jury issued an _____ accusing several executives of hiding losses and misleading investors during the company's collapse.
8	The film includes a sensitive portrayal of a _____ couple trying to raise a child in a conservative rural community.
9	Historians still debate the exact number of victims killed during the _____, but its political consequences are beyond dispute.
10	Several cities improved public transport last year, most _____ through cheaper monthly passes and better late-night services.	