

1

Set 1 - Words 1401-1410. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column.

(10 marks)

Words: methodology | cocktail | remedy | detain | simultaneously | portray | long-standing | enterprise | inspection | frustration

No.	Sentence	Answer
1	The report criticized the factory because several safety problems were discovered during the final _____ before production resumed.
2	After months of complaints from residents, the council finally proposed a practical _____ to reduce late-night noise downtown.
3	The documentary tried to _____ the former president as a cautious reformer rather than an ambitious revolutionary.
4	The police may _____ passengers for questioning if their documents appear false during a border-control operation.
5	Her _____ grew steadily when the software kept crashing minutes before the international presentation began.
6	The university rejected the paper because its research _____ was unclear, inconsistent, and impossible for other scholars to reproduce.
7	The start-up began as a small family _____ but later developed into a major supplier of medical equipment.
8	The two departments had to update the database and contact clients _____, because delaying either task would damage the launch.
9	The agreement ended a _____ dispute between the two companies over patents, pricing, and regional distribution rights.
10	The festival served a colourful fruit _____ at the reception, though many guests chose coffee before the evening speeches.

Set 2 - Words 1411-1420. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column.

Words: inspiration | cognitive | toxic | detection | midst | breed | long-time | aftermath | enthusiast | functional

No.	Sentence	Answer
1	The hospital installed new software to improve early _____ of rare diseases before symptoms become too severe to treat.
2	The artist said her grandmother's letters were the main _____ behind the exhibition about memory, migration, and family loss.
3	The laboratory warned that the chemical was highly _____ and should never be handled without gloves and protective glasses.
4	The earthquake destroyed several villages, and in the painful _____, thousands of families needed food, water, and shelter.
5	The school replaced the old computers because only three machines were still fully _____ after years of heavy daily use.
6	The scientist studied how stress affects _____ development in young children who grow up in unstable home environments.
7	A _____ supporter of the club, Martin had attended almost every home match for more than thirty years.
8	She stayed calm in the _____ of the crisis, even as reporters shouted questions and staff searched for missing documents.
9	Farmers often _____ sheep selectively so that the next generation is stronger, healthier, and better suited to local weather.
10	As a serious cycling _____, she spent weekends repairing old bikes, reading race reports, and training on mountain roads.

3

Set 3 - Words 1421-1430. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column.

(10 marks)

Words: broadband | fundraising | detention | aggression | coincide | postpone | entitle | reminder | trace | sin

No.	Sentence	Answer
1	The school decided to _____ the outdoor concert because heavy rain was forecast throughout the entire weekend.
2	The new policy will _____ employees who work overtime to additional pay or extra leave the following month.
3	The charity dinner was mainly a _____ event, designed to collect money for children affected by the flood.
4	Slow _____ made online lessons almost impossible, especially when several students tried to stream video at the same time.
5	The teacher gave him a final _____ about the deadline, because his research essay was already two weeks late.
6	Auditors found a faint _____ of unauthorized payments in the old accounts while reviewing files from the previous year.
7	The two conferences will _____ next Friday, making it impossible for several speakers to attend both events.
8	The school introduced stricter rules after repeated acts of _____ between older students and younger pupils on the playground.
9	He received after-school _____ because he repeatedly ignored warnings and used his phone during the exam.
10	In the novel, the character believes that betraying a close friend is a greater _____ than breaking the law.

4

Set 4 - Words 1431-1440. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column.

(10 marks)

Words: trademark | instinct | collaborate | agricultural | removal | browser | migration | situated | post-war | loom

No.	Sentence	Answer
1	The museum is _____ near the old harbour, where visitors can see both the city skyline and the fishing boats.
2	The sudden _____ of birds each autumn has fascinated scientists who study climate patterns and animal navigation.
3	The company protected its _____ carefully, because the logo had become strongly associated with quality and trust.
4	Several universities agreed to _____ on the climate project by sharing data, equipment, and field researchers.
5	The new tax policy was designed to support _____ communities that depend heavily on rice, wheat, and vegetable production.
6	Her first _____ was to refuse the offer, although later she realized the position could improve her career.
7	The article examined _____ reconstruction in Europe, focusing on housing shortages, food supply, and political instability.
8	The government ordered the _____ of illegal advertisements from public buildings before the international summit began.
9	A funding crisis began to _____ as ticket sales fell and several major sponsors withdrew support.
10	This website works best in a modern _____, because older software cannot display the interactive maps correctly.

5

Set 5 - Words 1441-1450. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column.

(10 marks)

Words: institutional | trail | funeral | practitioner | deteriorate | render | sketch | entity | loop | militant

No.	Sentence	Answer
1	The patient's condition began to _____ after the infection spread, so doctors transferred him to intensive care immediately.
2	The designer showed us a rough _____ of the new classroom layout before creating the final digital model.
3	The charity operates as an independent legal _____, separate from the university that originally funded its research.
4	The mountain _____ became dangerous after heavy rain washed away several wooden bridges and warning signs.
5	The new rule created a confusing _____ in which managers kept sending the same form back for repeated approval.
6	Years of poor funding caused serious _____ problems in the hospital, including staff shortages and outdated medical records.
7	The president attended the soldier's _____ and praised his courage during a short public speech at the cemetery.
8	A qualified medical _____ should explain the treatment options clearly before any patient agrees to surgery.
9	The explosion could _____ the building unsafe, even if the external walls still appeared stable from the street.
10	The speech was criticised for its _____ tone because it rejected compromise and encouraged confrontation.

6

Set 6 - Words 1451-1460. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column.

(10 marks)

Words: loyalty | brutal | aide | instruct | renew | epidemic | preach | devastate | collaboration | militia

No.	Sentence	Answer
1	The minister's senior _____ prepared the briefing notes before the press conference on education reform began.
2	The village formed a local _____ during the conflict, but its members had little formal military training.
3	The coach will _____ the players to focus on defence if the opposing team controls possession for long periods.
4	The hurricane could _____ the coastal town if emergency barriers fail and residents refuse to leave low-lying areas.
5	The report described a growing obesity _____ among teenagers, linking the trend to diet, sleep, and screen time.
6	The police condemned the _____ attack, saying the victim had been beaten repeatedly without any chance to escape.
7	Her _____ to the company remained strong, even after competitors offered her a higher salary and better title.
8	The university and local hospital began a formal _____ to improve clinical training for young doctors.
9	The activist continued to _____ about social justice, although some listeners felt his speeches ignored practical solutions.
10	You need to _____ your passport before travelling, because it will expire less than six months after your flight.

Set 7 - Words 1461-1470. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column.

Words: equality | collective | precedent | mill | devil | albeit | instrumental | buck | trailer | skip

No.	Sentence	Answer
1	The court's decision created an important _____ that later judges used when ruling on similar privacy cases.
2	The factory began as a small textile _____ before becoming one of the region's largest clothing manufacturers.
3	The new law aims to promote gender _____ by requiring companies to report differences in pay and promotion.
4	She accepted the position, _____ reluctantly, because the experience would strengthen her application for graduate school.
5	The official film _____ revealed only a few scenes, but it was enough to excite fans before the release.
6	The committee made a _____ decision after listening to teachers, parents, students, and local employers.
7	His early research was _____ in changing public attitudes toward air pollution and urban transport policy.
8	Many students _____ breakfast before exams, even though hunger can reduce concentration during long morning papers.
9	He spent his last _____ on a bus ticket, then walked home because he could not afford dinner.
10	In the story, the villagers believe the old cave is guarded by a dangerous _____ who punishes greedy travellers.

8

Set 8 - Words 1471-1480. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column.

(10 marks)

Words: renowned | devise | collision | transaction | minimal | insufficient | alert | buddy | slam | equation

No.	Sentence	Answer
1	The software records every online _____, including the buyer's details, payment time, and delivery address.
2	The engineers had to _____ a safer bridge design after several tests revealed weaknesses in the original plan.
3	Police said the serious _____ occurred when a truck crossed the centre line and hit a bus during heavy rain.
4	The company made only _____ changes to the contract, leaving most of the original terms exactly the same.
5	The museum invited a _____ historian to give a lecture on trade, empire, and cultural exchange in Asia.
6	The evidence was _____ to prove that the manager had stolen money, so the court dismissed the case.
7	The guard stayed _____ throughout the night, because several valuable paintings had recently been moved into the gallery.
8	Please do not _____ the door when you leave, because the glass panel is already cracked.
9	My study _____ reminded me about the vocabulary test after I forgot to bring the review sheet home.
10	The teacher wrote a complex _____ on the board to show how speed, time, and distance were related.

9

Set 9 - Words 1481-1490. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column.

(10 marks)

Words: colonial | buffer | erect | precision | alien | insult | diagnose | rental | slap | transcript

No.	Sentence	Answer
1	The surgeon worked with extraordinary _____, because even a tiny movement could damage the patient's eyesight permanently.
2	The ancient wall served as a defensive _____ between the city and the open desert beyond its northern gate.
3	The historian studied _____ architecture, especially government buildings constructed during the period of foreign rule.
4	The committee decided to _____ a statue in memory of the firefighters who died during the rescue operation.
5	The doctor could not _____ the illness immediately, so she ordered blood tests and a chest scan.
6	The apartment _____ increased sharply after the new subway station opened nearby and demand rose among young professionals.
7	The court reporter prepared a full _____ of the witness interview for the lawyers to review.
8	His rude comment was clearly an _____, not a harmless joke, because it attacked her family background directly.
9	The customs officer found the traveller's explanation completely _____ to local regulations and refused the application.
10	The child tried to _____ the mosquito on his arm, but it flew away before he could hit it.

10

Set 10 - Words 1491-1500. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column.

(10 marks)

Words: transformation | columnist | bulk | diagnosis | align | escalate | minimize | replacement | slash | predator

No.	Sentence	Answer
1	The company tried to _____ costs by reducing waste, improving logistics, and negotiating better contracts with suppliers.
2	The newspaper hired a political _____ whose weekly articles often criticized government spending and foreign policy.
3	The manager bought office paper in _____ because large orders were cheaper than several small purchases.
4	The doctor's final _____ confirmed that the patient's chest pain was caused by stress rather than heart disease.
5	The school chose a temporary _____ for the broken projector so classes could continue without major disruption.
6	The government promised a complete _____ of the transport system, including cleaner buses and faster regional trains.
7	The two departments must _____ their goals before the project begins, or they will waste time solving avoidable conflicts.
8	The argument could _____ into a legal dispute if both sides refuse mediation and continue making public accusations.
9	The airline decided to _____ ticket prices during the promotion, hoping to attract travellers before the holiday season.
10	The shark is an efficient _____, using movement, smell, and pressure changes to find injured fish.	