

1

Set 1 - Words 1601-1610. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column.

(10 marks)

Words: moderate | solidarity | comparable | resignation | trigger | ally | excess | presently | intent | diplomatic

No.	Sentence	Answer
1	The minister avoided blaming either side directly, choosing a more _____ response that kept negotiations open.
2	Although the two schools use different grading systems, their final examination standards are broadly _____.
3	The charity accepted help from every reliable _____ because the crisis was too large for one organization to manage.
4	The company reduced _____ packaging after customers complained that the product looked wasteful and environmentally irresponsible.
5	Investigators found no clear evidence of criminal _____, although the decision had caused serious financial damage.
6	Doctors advised him to take _____ exercise, because intense training could worsen his heart condition.
7	The museum is _____ closed for renovation, but officials expect it to reopen before the summer holidays.
8	Her sudden _____ surprised the board, especially because she had defended the policy only a week earlier.
9	The photo became a political _____ after thousands of people shared it as proof of government negligence.
10	Workers gathered outside the factory in _____ with colleagues who had been dismissed without proper compensation.

2

Set 2 - Words 1611-1620. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column.

(10 marks)

Words: interactive | aluminium | resistance | directory | preservation | exclusion | modification | trio | compassion | solo

No.	Sentence	Answer
1	The aircraft manufacturer replaced several steel parts with _____ to reduce weight without seriously weakening the structure.
2	A good doctor needs technical knowledge, but also genuine _____ when speaking to frightened patients.
3	I checked the university _____ for her office number, but the professor had recently moved departments.
4	The policy led to the quiet _____ of poorer families, who could not afford the extra application fees.
5	The new museum app is fully _____, allowing visitors to answer questions and explore exhibits through touch screens.
6	One small _____ to the contract changed the payment schedule but left the main obligations untouched.
7	The campaign focused on the _____ of old neighborhoods before developers could replace them with luxury apartments.
8	Local _____ to the highway project grew after residents learned that several homes would be demolished.
9	After years in a successful band, the singer finally released her first _____ album under her own name.
10	The jazz _____ performed without a drummer, relying on piano, bass, and saxophone to carry the rhythm.

3

Set 3 - Words 1621-1630. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column.

(10 marks)

Words: momentum | disastrous | preside | triumph | respective | interface | amateur | sound | exclusive | compel

No.	Sentence	Answer
1	The rescue plan looked _____ on paper, but nobody had tested whether it would work under real pressure.
2	His first documentary was made with _____ equipment, yet critics praised its honesty and emotional force.
3	A court order may _____ the company to release documents it has refused to share voluntarily.
4	The decision to ignore early safety warnings proved _____ when the bridge collapsed during rush hour.
5	The software's old _____ confused new users, even though the underlying system was technically powerful.
6	After three successful launches, the start-up gained enough _____ to attract serious investors from overseas.
7	The chairperson will _____ over tomorrow's meeting because the director is away on official business.
8	The students returned to their _____ classrooms after the joint assembly ended in the main hall.
9	The club sells _____ merchandise that is available only to members who attend official events.
10	Winning the appeal was a rare legal _____ for families who had fought the policy for years.

4

Set 4 - Words 1631-1640. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column.

(10 marks)

Words: trophy | sovereignty | interfere | presidency | ambassador | exclusively | compelling | discard | respectively | monk

No.	Sentence	Answer
1	The country appointed a new _____ to improve relations after months of tension with its neighbor.
2	The lawyer presented a _____ argument that forced even hostile committee members to reconsider the proposal.
3	Please do not _____ these notes until the audit is complete, because they may still contain useful evidence.
4	The scholarship is offered _____ to students from low-income families who meet the academic requirements.
5	Parents should guide their children, but they should not constantly _____ with every small decision teenagers make.
6	The old _____ lived in a remote monastery and spent most of his day studying religious texts.
7	During his _____, the government expanded healthcare but faced criticism over rising public debt.
8	The two candidates received 42% and 38% of the vote, _____, while the remaining votes went to smaller parties.
9	The island declared that any foreign military base would violate its national _____ and political independence.
10	The captain lifted the silver _____ after his team won the regional championship for the first time.

5

Set 5 - Words 1641-1650. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column.

(10 marks)

Words: execute | restoration | monopoly | troubled | amend | presidential | interference | spam | compensate | discharge

No.	Sentence	Answer
1	Lawmakers voted to _____ the bill after civil-rights groups pointed out several dangerous loopholes.
2	The airline agreed to _____ passengers whose flights had been cancelled without proper notice.
3	The hospital will _____ the patient tomorrow if her test results remain stable overnight.
4	Managers failed to _____ the strategy properly, so the expensive reform produced almost no measurable improvement.
5	Radio _____ made it difficult for pilots to hear instructions clearly during the storm.
6	Critics argued that the company had built a dangerous _____ by buying most of its smaller competitors.
7	The candidate's _____ campaign focused heavily on national security and economic recovery.
8	The castle's careful _____ took nearly ten years because experts used traditional materials and methods.
9	I receive so much _____ every morning that important client emails sometimes get buried in my inbox.
10	The school created extra counseling sessions for _____ students who were struggling with family or behavioral problems.

6

Set 6 - Words 1651-1660. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column.

(10 marks)

Words: trustee | restraint | interim | disclose | span | prestigious | compensation | morality | execution | amendment

No.	Sentence	Answer
1	The committee added an _____ to clarify how student data should be collected, stored, and deleted.
2	After the accident, the company offered financial _____ to workers who had suffered long-term injuries.
3	The report will _____ private messages only after the court confirms that publication is legally required.
4	The plan was ambitious, but its poor _____ meant that most departments never changed their daily routines.
5	An _____ manager will lead the team until the board appoints a permanent director next month.
6	The scandal raised difficult questions about political _____, especially when legal behavior still seemed deeply unethical.
7	She won a _____ scholarship that only a small number of international students receive each year.
8	Good journalism requires _____ when reporting personal tragedies, even if shocking details would attract more clicks.
9	The bridge will _____ the river at its narrowest point, reducing travel time between the two towns.
10	Each _____ must protect the charity's assets and act in the best interests of its beneficiaries.

7

Set 7 - Words 1661-1670. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column.

(10 marks)

Words: tuition | competence | exert | amid | resume | disclosure | spare | motive | interior | presumably

No.	Sentence	Answer
1	The prime minister delivered the speech _____ growing criticism from business leaders and opposition parties.
2	Her professional _____ was obvious from the way she handled the crisis calmly and efficiently.
3	The company's late _____ of financial risks damaged investor trust more than the losses themselves.
4	Large technology firms can _____ enormous influence over public debate through search results and recommendation systems.
5	The designer kept the building's plain exterior but completely redesigned the _____ to create brighter workspaces.
6	Detectives still have no clear _____ for the attack, because nothing valuable was stolen from the house.
7	The missing files were _____ deleted by mistake, although nobody has admitted responsibility yet.
8	Negotiations will _____ next week after both sides review the revised salary proposal.
9	Could you _____ ten minutes after class to explain the assignment to students who were absent?
10	Rising university _____ has forced many families to compare programs more carefully before applying.

8

Set 8 - Words 1671-1680. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column.

(10 marks)

Words: discourse | intermediate | retreat | presume | turnout | analogy | exile | motorist | spark | competent

No.	Sentence	Answer
1	The teacher used an _____ between the brain and a computer to explain how memory stores information.
2	Public _____ around immigration became less emotional after researchers released clearer long-term employment data.
3	After criticizing the regime, the writer spent fifteen years in _____ and published most of his work abroad.
4	The course is designed for _____ learners who understand basic grammar but still struggle with academic vocabulary.
5	Every _____ should slow down near schools, even when there are no children visible on the road.
6	We cannot simply _____ that higher spending improves education unless we examine how the money is actually used.
7	The army was forced to _____ after supply lines collapsed and winter conditions made further fighting impossible.
8	One careless comment can _____ a major online controversy when it touches sensitive social or political issues.
9	Voter _____ increased sharply after the candidates agreed to hold a televised debate before election day.
10	A technically _____ employee may still fail as a manager if they cannot communicate or delegate effectively.

9

Set 9 - Words 1681-1690. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column.

(10 marks)

Words: compile | municipal | turnover | anchor | discretion | specialized | prevail | retrieve | intervene | exit

No.	Sentence	Answer
1	The ship dropped its _____ near the harbor entrance because strong winds made docking too dangerous.
2	Researchers will _____ the survey results into a single report before presenting recommendations to the ministry.
3	Judges must use _____ when deciding whether young offenders deserve punishment, treatment, or a combination of both.
4	Please _____ the building through the side door, because construction has blocked the main entrance.
5	Teachers should _____ early when bullying becomes repeated and direct, rather than waiting for serious harm.
6	The city announced new _____ regulations to limit noise from bars in residential neighborhoods.
7	Despite several failed reforms, traditional teaching methods still _____ in many exam-focused schools.
8	The technician managed to _____ the deleted files from an old backup stored on the school server.
9	Children with severe reading difficulties may need _____ support rather than ordinary after-school tutoring.
10	High staff _____ usually suggests poor management, weak training, or salaries below the industry standard.

10

Set 10 - Words 1691-1700. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column.

(10 marks)

Words: specification | expenditure | twist | angel | mutual | discrimination | revelation | intervention | complement | prevalence

No.	Sentence	Answer
1	My grandmother called the nurse an _____ because she stayed after her shift to comfort anxious patients.
2	The new curtains _____ the wooden furniture, making the room feel warmer and more carefully designed.
3	The company was accused of racial _____ after qualified applicants from minority groups were repeatedly rejected.
4	Government _____ on transport increased sharply after floods damaged several major roads and bridges.
5	Early medical _____ can prevent a mild learning difficulty from becoming a long-term academic problem.
6	The agreement depends on _____ trust, because both companies must share data that could be commercially sensitive.
7	The high _____ of childhood obesity has pushed schools to reconsider lunch menus and physical-education time.
8	The sudden _____ that the witness had lied changed the direction of the entire investigation.
9	The engineer rejected the parts because they failed to meet the exact technical _____ in the safety document.
10	The film begins like a simple crime story, but the final _____ reveals that the detective caused the accident.	