

SET 2	proton	phosphate	gravity	pole	puzzle
	respiratory	elimination	exit	corruption	circulate

No.	Sentence
1	A hydrogen atom contains one _____ in its nucleus, which gives the nucleus its positive electric charge.
2	Farmers often apply _____ fertilisers because crops need phosphorus for healthy root development.
3	Astronauts must adapt to low _____ because ordinary movements become very different in space.
4	The expedition set out to measure changes in sea ice near the North _____ during late summer.
5	The sudden disappearance of several documents created a legal _____ that investigators struggled to solve.
6	Doctors warned that the virus could cause serious _____ complications in elderly patients and people with asthma.
7	The tournament uses a single-_____ system, so one defeat is enough to remove a team from the competition.
8	Passengers were asked to move calmly toward the nearest emergency _____ after smoke was detected on the train.
9	Years of political _____ had weakened public trust in the police, the courts, and local government.
10	False rumours began to _____ online before officials had released any verified information about the accident.