

NAWL-I

Name _____

Date _____

Score _____

SET 1	painful	industrialization	lab	seminar
	minus	conduction	audio	subtract
	facet	splice

No.	Sentence
1	The committee admitted that the reform had produced growth, but also created a deeply _____ transition for workers whose skills were suddenly obsolete.
2	Rapid _____ transformed the coastal province from a farming region into a manufacturing hub, but it also intensified pollution and inequality.
3	The samples were stored in a sealed university _____ because even slight contamination would have invalidated the entire experiment.
4	During the graduate _____, students were expected not merely to listen, but to challenge the speaker's assumptions with evidence.
5	The final score was calculated as the total number of correct responses _____ the number of penalties for late submission.
6	Copper is often used in electrical wiring because its high level of _____ allows energy to pass through it efficiently.
7	The editor improved the documentary by replacing the distorted _____ with a clearer recording from the original interview.
8	To calculate the company's net profit, analysts had to _____ taxes, transport costs, and administrative expenses from gross revenue.
9	The ethical _____ of the decision was more complicated than the financial one, since it affected patients who had few alternatives.
10	The technician had to carefully _____ two sections of cable so that the signal would remain stable across the repaired line.

NAWL-I

Name _____

Date _____

Score _____

SET 2	incumbent	biodiversity	chunk	credibility	tutor
	super	fin	aluminum	gram	liable

No.	Sentence
1	The _____ mayor defended his record during the debate, arguing that continuity was safer than an inexperienced challenger's promises.
2	The collapse of local _____ has made the ecosystem less resilient, because many species once supported one another through complex relationships.
3	The researcher divided the long transcript into a manageable _____ so that the coding process would be more consistent and less exhausting.
4	The journalist's _____ suffered after several quoted sources denied making the statements attributed to them in the published article.
5	The family hired a private _____ to help their son prepare for the entrance examination, especially in academic writing and interview skills.
6	The new laptop casing is made of recycled _____, making it lighter than steel while still offering reasonable protection.
7	The patient was advised to take one _____ of the powder daily, because a larger amount could interfere with other medication.
8	Under the contract, the supplier may be _____ for damages if the delayed shipment causes measurable losses to the buyer.
9	The biologist identified the fish by the shape of its dorsal _____, which remained visible above the water as it swam near the surface.
10	The manager was _____ careful during negotiations because one vague clause could later expose the company to legal risk.

NAWL-I

Name _____

Date _____

Score _____

SET 3	marble	pesticide	technically	criteria	fringe
	messenger	biologist	connotation	delta	tremendous

No.	Sentence
1	The museum floor was made of polished _____, which looked elegant but became dangerously slippery when visitors entered on rainy days.
2	Excessive use of _____ can protect crops in the short term, yet it may damage soil health and contaminate nearby water sources.
3	The policy is _____ legal, but several experts argue that it violates the spirit of the original consumer protection law.
4	The word "ambitious" has a positive _____ in business contexts, but it may sound slightly negative when describing a ruthless politician.
5	The river formed a fertile _____ near the coast, where sediment had accumulated for centuries and supported intensive agriculture.
6	The discovery represented a _____ advance in cancer research, although doctors warned that clinical use was still years away.
7	The candidate appealed to a _____ group of voters whose views were rarely represented in mainstream political debate.
8	The emergency _____ carried written instructions across the flooded district because mobile networks had failed during the storm.
9	The marine _____ spent ten years studying how rising ocean temperatures were altering the migration patterns of endangered fish.
10	The scholarship committee uses strict _____, including academic performance, leadership experience, and evidence of financial need.

NAWL-I

Name _____

Date _____

Score _____

SET

4 snake flesh

ghost

marrow

surgeon

instinct

industrialize

denominator

stripe

junior

No.	Sentence
1	The hikers froze when they saw a _____ lying across the narrow trail, its body almost hidden among the dry leaves.
2	The wound was deep enough to expose the _____ beneath the skin, so the doctor insisted that it needed immediate treatment.
3	Many children imagine a _____ as a frightening figure, although most traditional stories use it to express guilt or unfinished business.
4	The transplant required healthy bone _____ from a donor whose tissue type closely matched that of the patient.
5	The senior _____ explained the risks of the operation carefully before asking the patient to sign the consent form.
6	Her first _____ was to reject the offer, but after reviewing the contract she realized the opportunity was unusually strong.
7	The government tried to _____ the rural economy by attracting factories, expanding transport networks, and training local workers.
8	In this fraction, the _____ determines how many equal parts the whole has been divided into.
9	The uniform had a narrow blue _____ on each sleeve, indicating that the officer belonged to a specialized unit.
10	As a _____ analyst, he was not allowed to approve investment reports without supervision from a senior colleague.

NAWL-I

Name

Date

Score

SET

5 solvent

kilometer

slab

click hedge spray

cinema plug

naked

indifference

No.	Sentence
1	The company remained financially _____ despite the recession, largely because it had avoided excessive borrowing during the previous expansion.
2	The village was only one _____ from the border, yet residents felt culturally closer to the capital than to the neighboring country.
3	Workers lifted a heavy concrete _____ into position before sealing the joints and checking that the surface was level.
4	To reduce risk, the investor used gold as a _____ against inflation and sudden currency depreciation.
5	The gardener used a fine _____ to water the seedlings, because a stronger stream would have damaged their delicate roots.
6	The old _____ was restored as an independent cinema, showing documentaries and foreign films that commercial chains rarely offered.
7	The technician warned us not to touch the damaged _____ because the exposed wire could cause an electric shock.
8	The lecturer asked students to _____ on the link only after reading the security warning at the top of the page.
9	The article presented the _____ facts without emotional language, allowing readers to judge the evidence for themselves.
10	Public _____ to corruption may be more dangerous than anger, because it allows abuse to become normal and invisible.

NAWL-I

Name _____

Date _____

Score _____

SET 6	erase	powder	micro	clip	solute
	dissection	censor	portrayal	statistics	thumb

No.	Sentence
1	The company tried to _____ the negative comments from its website, but screenshots had already spread across social media.
2	The chemist added a white _____ to the solution and waited to see whether the liquid would change color.
3	The editor selected a short video _____ from the interview because it captured the speaker's argument more clearly than the full recording.
4	In this experiment, salt is the _____ because it dissolves in the water rather than acting as the liquid medium.
5	The biology class performed a careful _____ of the frog to identify its major organs and understand their functions.
6	The government attempted to _____ the report before publication, removing passages that criticized senior officials.
7	The film's _____ of rural poverty was praised for its realism, but some viewers found it too bleak to watch.
8	The economist used recent _____ to show that wage growth had slowed even though headline unemployment remained low.
9	The engineers detected several _____ cracks in the metal surface that were too small to see without special equipment.
10	He injured his _____ while closing the car door, making it difficult to write or hold small objects.

NAWL-I

Name

Date

Score

SET

7 acidic uplift flip congruent parcel lecturer

skip poster sword

photographic

No.

Sentence

1

The charity's main goal was to _____ communities by improving schools, public health services, and access to reliable employment.

2

The chef asked me to _____ the pancake only once the edges had become firm and small bubbles appeared on the surface.

3

The two triangles are _____ because their corresponding sides and angles are exactly equal.

4

The courier left the _____ with a neighbor after failing to find anyone at home during the delivery window.

5

The visiting _____ argued that urban design affects mental health more directly than many policymakers assume.

6

Students who regularly _____ the introductory readings often struggle later because the advanced material assumes detailed background knowledge.

7

The campaign team designed a large _____ to attract voters' attention near the entrance to the train station.

8

The museum displayed a ceremonial _____ that had never been used in battle but symbolized royal authority.

9

The journalist's memory was almost _____, allowing her to recall faces, dates, and conversations with unusual precision.

10

Lemon juice is naturally _____, which is why it can react with baking soda and produce bubbles.

NAWL-I

Name _____

Date _____

Score _____

SET 8	auction	barrel	mentor	nicely	lump
	quiz	watershed	liter	oxidize	mercury

No.	Sentence
1	The rare painting was sold at _____ after several collectors competed aggressively during the final minutes of bidding.
2	Oil prices rose sharply after the market expected each _____ of crude to become more expensive during the supply shortage.
3	The doctor examined the small _____ under the patient's arm and recommended further tests to rule out anything serious.
4	The court's decision became a _____ moment in privacy law, changing how companies handled personal data.
5	The bottle contains one _____ of solution, so the technician must measure the chemicals carefully before diluting it.
6	Iron will gradually _____ when exposed to oxygen and moisture, producing rust on the surface.
7	The thermometer once contained _____, but modern versions avoid it because the substance is toxic if released.
8	A senior researcher agreed to _____ the new graduate students, helping them design experiments and avoid common mistakes.
9	The teacher gave a short _____ at the beginning of class to check whether students had understood the reading.
10	The new software works _____ with existing databases, which means users can upgrade without redesigning their entire workflow.

NAWL-I

Name

Date

Score

SET 9	noisy	headquarters	phenomenal	multinational
	comma	bizarre	specialty	socialize
	novice	enormously

No.	Sentence
1	The apartment became unbearably _____ after the construction work began, especially when drilling continued early every morning.
2	The school's main _____ is advanced mathematics, although it also offers strong programs in literature and economics.
3	New students are encouraged to _____ during orientation because early friendships can make university life less isolating.
4	As a complete _____, she made predictable mistakes, but her questions revealed a serious willingness to learn.
5	The company's new _____ occupies three floors of a downtown tower and houses its legal, finance, and strategy teams.
6	The explanation sounded _____ at first, but the evidence showed that the strange behavior had a clear scientific cause.
7	The results improved _____ after the team replaced vague instructions with a structured checklist and weekly feedback.
8	A missing _____ can change the meaning of a sentence, especially when several clauses are joined together.
9	The company is a _____ corporation, with factories in Asia, research centers in Europe, and sales teams worldwide.
10	The athlete delivered a _____ performance, breaking the national record by a margin that shocked even experienced coaches.

NAWL-I

Name

Date

Score

SET 10 rope

campus clever mole

sometime bucket

swap

recipe

airplane

deflection

No.	Sentence
1	The climbers tied the equipment with a strong _____ before crossing the exposed ridge in increasingly dangerous weather.
2	The two departments agreed to _____ office spaces because each team's new location better matched its daily workflow.
3	The chef adjusted the _____ by reducing the sugar and adding lemon zest to make the dessert taste fresher.
4	We should meet _____ next week to review the proposal properly, rather than rushing through it between other meetings.
5	The _____ was delayed for three hours because heavy fog made it unsafe to land at the destination airport.
6	She filled a metal _____ with water and carried it across the garden to wash the tools.
7	The scientist used the concept of a _____ to compare quantities of atoms in different chemical samples.
8	The bridge's slight _____ under heavy traffic was expected, but engineers still monitored it for safety.
9	The university _____ includes libraries, laboratories, sports facilities, and several quiet gardens for students.
10	Her solution was _____ because it solved the technical problem without increasing cost or adding unnecessary complexity.