

SET 1	thereafter	outlet	characterize	persistent
	wipe	villager	acid	reconstruction
	senator	betray

No.	Sentence
1	The charity opened a small downtown _____ so local families could buy repaired furniture at reduced prices after the flood.
2	Despite repeated warnings from doctors, his _____ cough continued for months and eventually forced him to cancel several lectures.
3	After the earthquake, the city began a careful _____ of the old theatre using photographs, maps, and surviving stone fragments.
4	The _____ argued that the new transport bill would help rural communities without increasing taxes on working families.
5	The company merged with a foreign partner in 2019 and _____ expanded into markets that had previously been closed to it.
6	Every _____ was asked to report damage to roads, bridges, and wells before emergency supplies were distributed.
7	Before presenting the data, please _____ the screen with a dry cloth so the figures are clearly visible to the audience.
8	Her review was unusually _____, attacking not only the policy but also the motives of everyone who supported it.
9	He promised to protect the witness, but later agreed to _____ her location to the men who had threatened her.
10	Scholars often _____ the period as one of rapid reform, although ordinary citizens experienced the changes unevenly.