

- 1 Set 1 - Words 1-10. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box. Write your answers in the Answer column. (10 marks)

Words: domain | repertoire | impact | denote | distribution | aspect | publish | obtain | dynamic | parameter

Sentence	Answer
1. After years of performing in experimental theatre, the actress expanded her professional _____ to include comedy, tragedy, and musical roles.
2. Researchers were unable to _____ reliable data from the remote villages because several roads had been blocked by flooding.
3. The uneven _____ of medical resources across the country became obvious when rural hospitals ran out of basic equipment.
4. Before the experiment began, the team defined every _____ carefully so that later measurements would remain consistent.
5. One important _____ of the policy has been overlooked: how it affects families who depend on informal employment.
6. In a rapidly changing market, companies need a more _____ strategy rather than a fixed plan written years in advance.
7. The new transport system had a measurable _____ on air quality, especially in districts previously affected by heavy traffic.
8. Although psychology is his main _____, he often borrows methods from linguistics, computer science, and economics.
9. The journal refused to _____ the article until the authors provided stronger evidence for their main claim.
10. In this diagram, the black circles _____ confirmed cases, while the grey circles represent suspected but unverified cases.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

2

Set 2 - Words 11-20. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box. Write your answers in the Answer column. (10 marks)

Words: correlation | authority | ion | linguistic | matrix | semantic | cognitive | linear | par | graph

Sentence	Answer
1. The health agency has the legal _____ to close restaurants that repeatedly fail basic hygiene inspections.
2. The distinction may look minor, but it reflects a deeper _____ difference between the two words in academic writing.
3. In finance, the bond was trading below _____, which worried investors who expected its value to remain stable.
4. A sodium _____ carries a positive charge after losing one electron, which changes how it behaves in solution.
5. The data were arranged in a large _____ so that each row represented a participant and each column represented a variable.
6. The engineer assumed a _____ relationship between pressure and temperature, although the real pattern later proved more complex.
7. Good reading instruction should support not only vocabulary growth but also broader _____ development in young learners.
8. Students were asked to _____ the results, making the trend easier to compare across different age groups.
9. The study found a strong _____ between sleep quality and memory performance, although it did not prove causation.
10. His research focuses on _____ variation, especially how pronunciation changes across regions and social groups.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

3

Set 3 - Words 21-30. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box. Write your answers in the Answer column. (10 marks)

Words: electron | receptor | velocity | discourse | acid | finite | induce | interval | vector | stimulus

Sentence	Answer
1. The laboratory technician added a weak _____ to the solution, causing the indicator to change colour immediately.
2. Certain medicines may _____ sleep, but doctors usually warn patients not to rely on them every night.
3. The car's _____ increased sharply as it moved downhill, forcing the driver to brake before entering the tunnel.
4. Participants completed the same memory task after a short _____, allowing researchers to compare immediate and delayed recall.
5. Public _____ around climate policy often becomes emotional when economic costs are discussed alongside environmental responsibility.
6. The committee had only a _____ amount of funding, so it could not support every promising research proposal.
7. In the experiment, the flashing light acted as a visual _____ that triggered a rapid response from the animal.
8. In mathematics, a _____ has both magnitude and direction, making it different from a simple scalar quantity.
9. When an atom gains an extra _____, its overall electrical charge becomes negative rather than neutral.
10. The hormone binds to a specific _____ on the cell surface before sending a signal into the cell.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

4

Set 4 - Words 31-40. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box. Write your answers in the Answer column. (10 marks)

Words: spatial | coefficient | developmental | algorithm | theorem | molecular | transformation | fluid | bound | translation

Sentence	Answer
1. The proof of the _____ was difficult, but it established a relationship that later became central to modern geometry.
2. Search engines use a complex _____ to rank pages, combining relevance, popularity, and user behaviour signals.
3. During the storm, water behaved like a powerful _____, moving through narrow streets and carrying debris with it.
4. The psychologist studied _____ changes in children, paying particular attention to language, memory, and social awareness.
5. Because the contract had already been signed, the company was legally _____ to deliver the equipment by Friday.
6. At the _____ level, even a tiny structural change can alter how a drug interacts with the body.
7. The city's economic _____ was not sudden; it resulted from decades of investment in education and infrastructure.
8. Good architects must consider _____ relationships carefully, especially how people move between rooms and public areas.
9. The regression _____ was positive, meaning that higher levels of education were associated with higher reported income.
10. The English _____ of the poem preserved the general meaning, but it lost some of the rhythm and ambiguity.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

5

Set 5 - Words 41-50. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box. Write your answers in the Answer column. (10 marks)

Words: empirical | neuron | lexical | marker | simulation | robot | membrane | molecule | variance | regime

Sentence	Answer
1. The cell _____ controls which substances can enter or leave, helping maintain a stable internal environment.
2. A single _____ can transmit electrical signals to thousands of other cells through complex networks in the brain.
3. The flight _____ allowed trainee pilots to practise emergency procedures without exposing passengers to real danger.
4. In second-language research, _____ knowledge includes not only word meaning but also collocation and appropriate usage.
5. The authoritarian _____ restricted independent media and punished journalists who questioned official economic statistics.
6. High _____ in test scores suggested that students differed widely in their preparation, even within the same class.
7. Water is a simple _____, but its unusual properties make it essential for biological systems and climate processes.
8. The blood test identified a biological _____ that may help doctors detect the disease at an earlier stage.
9. The claim sounded persuasive, but it lacked _____ support from controlled studies or reliable field observations.
10. The factory introduced a _____ to handle repetitive welding tasks that were dangerous and physically exhausting for workers.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

6

Set 6 - Words 51-60. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box. Write your answers in the Answer column. (10 marks)

Words: diagnosis | statistical | partial | candidate | identification | vowel | node | intensity | equilibrium | regression

Sentence	Answer
1. The report used advanced _____ methods to estimate how income, education, and location influenced voting behaviour.
2. In English, the sound /i:/ is a long _____, as in the words “see” and “machine”.
3. After several hours, the chemical reaction reached _____, meaning the forward and reverse processes occurred at equal rates.
4. The _____ of the earthquake was so great that buildings hundreds of kilometres away still shook slightly.
5. The economist used linear _____ to examine whether housing prices could be predicted from interest rates and population growth.
6. An early _____ allowed doctors to begin treatment before the infection spread to the patient’s lungs.
7. Biometric _____ systems can recognise individuals by comparing fingerprints, facial features, or patterns in the iris.
8. Each _____ in the network stores information and passes signals to neighbouring units when certain conditions are met.
9. The leading _____ promised to reform education, but critics questioned whether her plan was financially realistic.
10. The committee gave only _____ approval because several safety documents still needed to be reviewed.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

Set 7 - Words 61-70. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box. Write your answers in the Answer column. (10 marks)

Words: duration | behavioral | particle | consumption | temporal | sensitivity | correlate | mortality | antibody | bilingual

Sentence	Answer
1. Researchers tried to _____ stress levels with sleep patterns, but the relationship became weaker after controlling for income.
2. Child _____ rates fell sharply after clean drinking water and vaccination programmes became more widely available.
3. The vaccine stimulates the body to produce an _____ that can recognise and neutralise the virus more quickly.
4. In grammar, _____ expressions such as “before” and “after” help organise events in relation to time.
5. A dust _____ may be too small to see, yet it can still affect air quality and human health.
6. The _____ of the interview was limited to thirty minutes, so several important questions were left unanswered.
7. The school introduced a _____ intervention to reduce bullying by changing peer norms and classroom routines.
8. Excessive energy _____ remains a major environmental problem, especially in cities with inefficient transport systems.
9. Growing up in a _____ household can influence pronunciation, vocabulary choice, and cultural identity in complex ways.
10. The instrument’s _____ was high enough to detect tiny changes in temperature that ordinary thermometers would miss.

Set 8 - Words 71-80. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box. Write your answers in the Answer column. (10 marks)

Words: phonological | explicit | mutation | integration | onset | optimal | colonial | similarity | spectrum | nucleus

Sentence	Answer
1. The two studies show a clear _____ in design, although their conclusions about student motivation are quite different.
2. For long-term health, the _____ amount of exercise depends on age, medical history, and individual recovery capacity.
3. The teacher gave _____ instructions about citation rules because previous essays had included several serious referencing errors.
4. A genetic _____ can be harmless, beneficial, or dangerous, depending on where it occurs and how it affects protein function.
5. The country's _____ history still shapes its legal system, language policy, and patterns of economic inequality.
6. Political opinions exist on a broad _____, so reducing every position to "left" or "right" can be misleading.
7. Children with _____ difficulties may struggle to recognise rhyme, syllable patterns, or subtle differences between speech sounds.
8. The cell's _____ contains most of its genetic material and controls many essential biological processes.
9. The sudden _____ of fever and chest pain led doctors to suspect a serious respiratory infection.
10. The successful _____ of migrant students requires language support, academic guidance, and social inclusion.

Set 9 - Words 81-90. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box. Write your answers in the Answer column. (10 marks)

Words: orientation | pathway | inequality | calculation | proposition | dominant | syntactic | coordinate | precede | subset

Sentence	Answer
1. The _____ political party controlled parliament for more than a decade, making major reforms difficult for smaller groups.
2. Scientists have identified a biological _____ that explains how stress can influence inflammation and immune responses.
3. The project manager had to _____ the work of designers, engineers, and marketing staff across three different time zones.
4. A small error in the final _____ changed the predicted cost of the bridge by several million dollars.
5. In formal ceremonies, senior officials usually _____ junior members when entering the hall or signing official documents.
6. The research focused on a _____ of patients who had received treatment within six months of diagnosis.
7. A _____ analysis examines how words are arranged in a sentence rather than only what individual words mean.
8. The university's _____ programme helps international students understand academic expectations before regular classes begin.
9. The philosopher defended the _____ that moral responsibility requires the ability to make genuine choices.
10. Income _____ increased during the crisis as asset owners benefited while low-paid workers lost hours and wages.

10

Set 10 - Words 91-100. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box. Write your answers in the Answer column. (10 marks)

Words: trait | prediction | generalize | identical | pulse | differential | correspondence | norm | beam | prevalence

Sentence	Answer
1. The twins looked almost _____, but close friends could still distinguish them by their voices and gestures.
2. The survey measured the _____ of asthma among children living near busy roads and industrial areas.
3. A _____ equation describes how a quantity changes continuously, making it useful in physics, engineering, and economics.
4. Researchers should not _____ from a small urban sample to the whole population without stronger supporting evidence.
5. The laser _____ was directed at the sensor, allowing scientists to measure extremely small changes in distance.
6. The patient's _____ became irregular after the surgery, so nurses monitored his heart rate throughout the night.
7. In this school, completing homework before class is considered the _____ rather than an unusual sign of motivation.
8. Curiosity is a valuable _____ in researchers because it pushes them to question easy explanations and examine evidence carefully.
9. The economist's _____ about inflation proved inaccurate because energy prices rose much faster than expected.
10. There was a close _____ between the two maps, suggesting that poverty and poor transport access often overlapped.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.