

BBC 6 Minute English Listening Practice

How The World Learned To Love Fast Food

Name: _____

Class: _____

Score: _____ / 20

No.	Sentence
1	Major fast food brands are described as _____.
2	The episode focuses on the _____ of fast food.
3	The story begins in _____.
4	Many founders did not have a _____.
5	Fast food made business _____ easier for ordinary people.
6	A can-do attitude includes confidence and _____.
7	The American dream links success to _____ and determination.
8	Today, two McDonald's restaurants far apart can serve exactly the _____.
9	Iceland already had a long-standing _____.
10	The financial crash helped cause McDonald's final _____ in Iceland.

11 What historical development is the programme mainly discussing?

- A How fast food spread globally from mid-century America
- B Why British people stopped eating fast food
- C How home cooking replaced restaurant chains
- D Why all fast food brands began in Iceland

12 Which foods are given as examples of cheap and easy American fast food?

- A Pizza, pasta and salads
- B Soup, rice and vegetables
- C Fish, chips and tea
- D Hamburgers, French fries and milkshakes

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

- 13 What does Adam Chandler suggest about early fast-food founders?
- A They usually came from wealthy academic families
 - B They could succeed without traditional educational advantages
 - C They mainly worked outside the United States
 - D They avoided joining established systems
- 14 Why is the phrase "at the heart of the story" explained?
- A To introduce a medical problem caused by fast food
 - B To show that fast food was unpopular after the war
 - C To identify the key idea behind fast food's rise
 - D To argue that the story is mainly about recipes
- 15 What does a can-do attitude involve?
- A Confidence and determination to solve problems
 - B Refusing to follow any system
 - C Waiting for others to provide money
 - D Avoiding new challenges
- 16 Why did fast food brands connect with the American dream?
- A They made success depend on family background
 - B They promised success without effort
 - C They were limited to one social class
 - D They suggested ordinary people could succeed through work
- 17 What does the example of two McDonald's on opposite sides of the planet show?
- A Menus change completely in each country
 - B The brand offers a highly standardised product
 - C Fast food is no longer available in America
 - D Customers must travel far to eat the meal
- 18 How did Iceland differ from places where McDonald's was easily accepted?
- A It had no local food traditions
 - B It welcomed every foreign chain warmly
 - C It gave McDonald's a cold reception
 - D It banned all burger restaurants immediately

19 Why is the shalpuborgari mentioned?

- A To show Iceland already had its own version of a burger
- B To prove Iceland copied McDonald's exactly
- C To explain why burgers were unknown in Iceland
- D To describe McDonald's most popular product

20 What does McDonald's experience in Iceland imply?

- A Global brands always succeed everywhere
- B Financial crises help fast food chains expand
- C Local food culture has no effect on foreign chains
- D Local habits and economic shocks can limit global brands