

BBC 6 Minute English Listening Practice

Are We Getting More Allergic To Things?

Name: _____

Class: _____

Score: _____ / 20

No.	Sentence
1	Mia has more than 50 allergies, including all nuts and their _____.
2	She cannot eat most fish, except cooked tuna and cooked _____.
3	These allergies affect her life _____.
4	Before going to a restaurant, she needs to speak to the manager and the _____.
5	The restaurant must follow rules to avoid allergen _____ with her food.
6	Social situations can be difficult because she does not want to feel like a _____.
7	Australia is described as the allergy _____ of the world.
8	Research shows that almost one in ten Australian _____ have an allergy.
9	Allergy rates show a clear _____ as children grow older.
10	One possible treatment is to build up a baby's _____.

11 What makes Mia's situation unusual compared with many people who have allergies?

- A She has allergies only during certain seasons.
- B She has a very large number of allergies.
- C She is mainly allergic to dairy products.
- D She became allergic only as an adult.

12 Why does Mia contact restaurants before visiting them?

- A To ask whether they offer cheaper meals.
- B To check whether they can meet her dietary safety needs.
- C To request a private room for her friends.
- D To explain why she does not eat dairy.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

- 13 Why are restaurant protocols important for Mia?
- A They help staff prepare meals faster.
 - B They make it easier for Mia to choose from the menu.
 - C They reduce the chance of allergens reaching her food.
 - D They allow Mia to avoid speaking to the chef.
- 14 What is Mia worried about when socialising?
- A Her friends may not understand medical advice.
 - B Her friends may feel that her needs cause trouble.
 - C Restaurants may not allow her to bring friends.
 - D She may have to explain allergies to strangers.
- 15 Why is Australia called the allergy capital of the world?
- A It has the most allergy doctors.
 - B It is famous for allergy research.
 - C It has especially high allergy rates.
 - D It has the strictest food rules.
- 16 What does Frances Mao say about allergies among Australians as they get older?
- A The percentage becomes lower with age.
 - B Food allergies become more serious.
 - C Respiratory allergies disappear completely.
 - D Adults are more likely to develop allergies than infants.
- 17 What does "or so" show when talking about age six?
- A The speaker is giving an approximate number.
 - B The speaker is correcting a previous mistake.
 - C The speaker is comparing two age groups.
 - D The speaker is giving a scientific definition.
- 18 What is one method scientists are studying to reduce allergies?
- A Giving babies vitamin D.
 - B Avoiding restaurants completely.
 - C Testing adults every six years.
 - D Removing dairy from children's diets.

19 How does immunotherapy work according to the programme?

- A Children are kept away from all allergens.
- B Children receive small amounts of the allergen gradually.
- C Babies take medicine only after an allergic reaction.
- D Doctors replace food allergies with respiratory allergies.

20 What is the overall picture given about allergies in this episode?

- A Allergies are becoming more common, but researchers are exploring ways to manage them.
- B Allergies mainly affect adults and are usually easy to avoid.
- C Most allergies are caused by poor restaurant safety rules.
- D Australia has solved the problem of childhood allergies.