

BBC 6 Minute English Listening Practice

What's Your Favourite Snack?

Name: _____

Class: _____

Score: _____ / 30

No.	Sentence
1	Worldwide spending on snacks reaches approximately _____ annually
2	New products like the _____ have emerged
3	Enjoys _____ combined with a banana
4	Prefers 'chipa', which is a _____
5	Made using cassava, cheese, _____
6	Snacks serve as an _____ for consumers
7	Remain popular even when _____ for many people
8	Americans prefer smaller and more _____
9	People no longer consume _____ regularly
10	Snacks are consumed _____ instead
11	Modern snacks contain specific _____
12	Target improvements in _____, gut health and muscle development
13	These benefits come in _____
14	Prefers preparing and consuming _____ snacks
15	Finds it difficult to _____ regarding food choices
16	Her son, aged _____, prefers packaged options
17	He enjoys small _____ snacks

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

No.	Sentence
18	These represent a _____ on traditional recipes
19	Most favoured category: _____
20	Approximately _____ of British people consume these weekly

What is Annie Gray's attitude towards her preferred snack combination?

- A She is uncertain whether it is a healthy choice
- B She is genuinely satisfied with how well it meets her needs
- C She is embarrassed to admit her unusual preference
- D She is concerned about the nutritional value

Why does Neil admit to loving crisps despite wanting to mention something healthier?

- A He believes crisps are actually nutritious
- B He is trying to impress Beth with his honesty
- C He feels pressured by the survey results
- D He is being candid about his genuine preference

According to Christine Cochran, what is the main reason snacks remain popular even during difficult economic times?

- A They provide an inexpensive form of indulgence
- B They are heavily advertised to consumers
- C They contain essential nutritional ingredients
- D They are easier to prepare than regular meals

What change in eating habits does Christine Cochran observe among American consumers?

- A They are increasingly adopting vegetarian diets
- B They are returning to traditional home cooking
- C They are shifting away from conventional meal schedules
- D They are consuming larger portions at each sitting

What is Christine Cochran's view on functional ingredients in snacks?

- A They cater to consumers' specific health objectives
- B They represent unnecessary marketing gimmicks
- C They should replace traditional snack ingredients
- D They are too expensive for average consumers

What does the term "mental clarity" describe in the context of snack benefits?

- A A focused and engaged state of mind
- B The ability to read ingredient labels carefully
- C A marketing strategy targeting educated buyers
- D The transparent packaging of modern snacks

Why does Barbara Oievari say she "can't swim against the current"?

- A She lacks confidence in her cooking abilities
- B Her son refuses to eat anything homemade
- C She finds it impractical to resist prevailing trends
- D She has limited access to natural ingredients

What similarity does Barbara Oievari notice between her son's snack and her own preference?

- A They both originate from Argentinian cuisine
- B They both feature cheese as a key component
- C They both are considered unhealthy options
- D They both require baking in an oven

What function does Beth's comment "all those snacks have made me hungry" serve in the conversation?

- A To genuinely express her physical hunger
- B To introduce the revelation of the quiz answer
- C To criticize the discussion of unhealthy foods
- D To propose ending the recording session

According to the YouGov survey mentioned in the programme, what proportion of British people consume confectionery and chocolate weekly?

- A Around 45% partake in them regularly
- B More than half select them as favorites
- C Approximately one-third prefer them
- D Nearly 60% consume them daily