

BBC 6 Minute English Listening Practice

The Power Of Poetry

Name: _____

Class: _____

Score: _____ / 20

No.	Sentence
1	Different people respond to _____ very differently after school.
2	One speaker wants to read more poems but finds them hard to _____.
3	A live event where people may perform songs or poems is an _____.
4	At such events, people's words can _____, even after a difficult day.
5	One poetry group attends events such as the UN _____.
6	They listen to _____ before turning the ideas into poems.
7	A major barrier is that much scientific _____ is difficult for ordinary listeners.
8	If science feels too hard to access, it can become a _____.
9	The group tries to make complex _____ easier through poems.
10	Hearing the poem still gives the scientist _____.

11 How is poetry presented at the beginning of the discussion?

- A As a subject that everyone continues to enjoy.
- B As something people may either leave behind or value deeply.
- C As a skill mainly used by professional writers.
- D As a school topic that has lost all importance.

12 What problem does one speaker have with poetry?

- A He thinks poetry is only for schoolchildren.
- B He dislikes hearing poetry performed aloud.
- C He has written too much poetry already.
- D He is interested but finds it hard to follow.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

- 13 What is an open mic night described as?
- A A live event where people can perform songs or poems.
 - B A private meeting where poets edit each other's work.
 - C A formal school exam about poetry reading.
 - D A radio programme for professional poets only.
- 14 What effect can open mic poetry have, according to the speaker?
- A It guarantees that personal problems disappear.
 - B It makes poems easier to publish.
 - C It can improve someone's emotional state.
 - D It helps people avoid difficult topics.
- 15 What process does Hot Poets follow when working with scientific issues?
- A They write poems first and then ask scientists to justify them.
 - B They listen to research, create poems, and perform them to an audience.
 - C They replace scientific meetings with poetry competitions.
 - D They collect poems from the public and turn them into research.
- 16 What kind of study is Liv's poem based on?
- A A study of school poetry lessons.
 - B A study of public speaking anxiety.
 - C A study of restaurant behaviour.
 - D A study related to biodiversity.
- 17 What problem does Liv identify in communicating science?
- A Specialist language can make science hard for ordinary people.
 - B Scientists avoid presenting their research in public.
 - C Poets usually refuse to work with researchers.
 - D Audiences already know too much technical vocabulary.
- 18 What is one likely result when scientific material feels impenetrable?
- A People become more willing to read technical reports.
 - B People stop needing explanations from experts.
 - C People may find the subject unappealing.
 - D People immediately understand the research more deeply.

19 What is the main function of poetry in the Hot Poets project?

- A To make difficult environmental ideas more accessible.
- B To remove the need for scientific research.
- C To entertain audiences without any educational aim.
- D To criticise scientists for using evidence.

20 What does Kat's reaction suggest about Liv's poem?

- A It made her reject the original study.
- B It was accurate but emotionally meaningless.
- C It was too technical for scientists to understand.
- D It expressed the science in an emotionally powerful way.