

BBC 6 Minute English Listening Practice

Learning a New Food Culture

Name: _____

Class: _____

Score: _____ / 17

No.	Sentence
1	At first, the new surroundings took one woman outside her familiar _____.
2	Living and working in another country brought _____, including unfamiliar local foods.
3	Some _____ from her previous cooking were unavailable.
4	Using Dutch ingredients required recipe _____.
5	The second woman moved from England to the Caribbean island of _____.
6	Seasoning was an _____ part of preparing food there.
7	Flavours were added in several _____.
8	Individual cooks made their own small _____.
9	There were no set _____ for the seasoning.
10	With no fixed quantities, learning involved _____: trying different methods and learning from mistakes, some of which her family did not appreciate.

11 What broad difficulty can arise when people move to another country?

- A They may have to give up cooking familiar dishes entirely.
- B They may need to adjust to food that differs from what they know.
- C They may find that local people reject food from abroad.
- D They may struggle to learn the names of local dishes.

12 What led the first woman to leave Ukraine?

- A An invitation to open a restaurant abroad.
- B A wish to train with Dutch cooks.
- C A plan to join relatives in Poland.
- D The Russian invasion of her country.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

- 13 What contrast does she draw between staying in one place and moving abroad?
- A Familiar routines give way to situations that require adjustment.
 - B Familiar ingredients become easier to obtain after a move.
 - C Working abroad removes the difficulties of daily life.
 - D Moving abroad makes cooking less important than before.
- 14 How did she respond when some ingredients from home were unavailable?
- A She stopped preparing her usual kinds of meals.
 - B She ordered the missing ingredients from Ukraine.
 - C She found local substitutes and cooked with what she had.
 - D She asked her customers to choose replacement ingredients.
- 15 How did customers respond to the cooking she developed in the Netherlands?
- A They rejected it because it used unfamiliar ingredients.
 - B They enjoyed the new kind of cooking she created.
 - C They insisted that she restore every original recipe.
 - D They welcomed it only after she imported Ukrainian staples.
- 16 Why are the small personal adjustments to seasoning relevant?
- A They show that cooks develop individual ways of flavouring food.
 - B They show that cooks normally measure every spice precisely.
 - C They show that food preparation is identical across families.
 - D They show that the newcomer rejected local cooking methods.
- 17 What wider conclusion is supported by the two food experiences?
- A Successful adaptation requires people to abandon foods from home.
 - B Food customs are easier to learn than other parts of a culture.
 - C Encountering local food can reveal how people live and cook.
 - D A new culture can be understood only by opening a restaurant.