

BBC 6 Minute English Listening Practice

Should We Cycle More?

Name: _____

Class: _____

Score: _____ / 18

No.	Sentence
1	Electric bikes have opened cycling to more people, including _____.
2	The rise of cycling began in the _____, as bicycle manufacturing expanded.
3	Bikes changed from wealthy people's toys into a form of _____.
4	Later, new factories made bicycles _____ to buy.
5	Cycling may offer visitors a greener way to explore _____.
6	The _____ among Gulf cities helps explain their wish to rank highly worldwide.
7	Cycling can benefit people physically and _____.
8	Dubai's temperature regularly reaches _____.
9	Planners look abroad for useful _____ rather than complete systems to copy.
10	Measures for cycling in the heat include _____ and shaded rest areas.

11 Why do many people in Britain choose to cycle?

- A It gives them access to tourist attractions abroad.
- B It helps their cities rise in global rankings.
- C It benefits their health and the environment.
- D It makes every journey cheaper than driving.

12 What effect are electric bikes having on cycling in Britain?

- A They are making it accessible to a wider group.
- B They are replacing conventional bicycles entirely.
- C They are turning cycling into a wealthy hobby.
- D They are reducing the number of older riders.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

- 13 What can be inferred about bicycles before they became everyday transport in the Netherlands?
- A They were mainly designed for hot climates.
 - B They were widely used for daily commuting.
 - C They were already inexpensive for most people.
 - D They were less accessible to ordinary people.
- 14 What did some Dutch bicycle brands come to represent?
- A A new network of city cycle routes.
 - B A newer, more comfortable bike style.
 - C A cheaper form of electrical transport.
 - D A return to wealthy people's toys.
- 15 How do competitive Gulf cities view cycling in relation to their reputation?
- A It could contribute to their standing for quality of life.
 - B It could remove the need for cities to compete.
 - C It could make Dutch factories more profitable.
 - D It could guarantee the highest position in every ranking.
- 16 What do Dubai's planners hope the existing cycle tracks will achieve?
- A Make cycling compulsory for local residents.
 - B Make the city resemble the Netherlands in climate.
 - C Make the city more attractive as a place to live.
 - D Make other kinds of transport unnecessary.
- 17 Why have water stations and shaded rest areas been created?
- A To make Dutch cycle routes less expensive.
 - B To help people cycle despite the local heat.
 - C To raise the number of bikes in the Netherlands.
 - D To replace existing tourist attractions in Dubai.
- 18 What overall conclusion about cycling is supported by the discussion?
- A It should replace other transport in every location.
 - B It is useful only where cycling has a long history.
 - C It succeeds whenever cities compete for rankings.
 - D It can be a green option where conditions suit it.