

BBC 6 Minute English Listening Practice

What Can We Learn from Toddlers?

Name: _____

Class: _____

Score: _____ / 13

NO MORE THAN THREE WORDS - Early development

No.	Sentence
1	Toddlers learn to move and make sense of the _____.
2	Being unable to do what they want can leave them feeling _____.
3	At this stage, a child's _____ begins to develop.
4	For everyday care, two- or three-year-olds still rely on _____.
5	A toddler's self-talk may help reduce _____ in an anxiety-provoking situation.
6	As people grow up, their inner voice often becomes _____.
7	Adults who feel angry with themselves can imagine speaking to a _____.
8	Adults can learn to treat themselves with greater _____.

11 Why does the idea of learning from toddlers initially seem surprising?

- A They can explain their feelings more clearly than adults can.
- B They still need adults to meet many basic needs.
- C They are already able to manage most daily tasks alone.
- D They learn mainly by copying adults' spoken advice.

12 What do the examples of the mitts and the boots show together?

- A Toddlers speak to themselves both to encourage themselves and to acknowledge mistakes.
- B Toddlers need an adult to correct each small mistake.
- C Toddlers learn to dress by repeating the same task silently.
- D Toddlers become anxious whenever clothing is difficult.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

- 13 How does the discussion contrast toddlers' and adults' inner voices?
- A Toddlers' inner voices are private, whereas adults' are usually spoken aloud.
 - B Toddlers rely on praise from others, whereas adults rely on their own judgment.
 - C Toddlers' self-talk is usually critical, whereas adults' is encouraging.
 - D Toddlers' self-talk tends to encourage, whereas adults' may become critical.
- 14 An adult makes a small mistake and begins insulting themselves. Which response best applies Dr Merali's advice?
- A "I made a mistake; I can learn from it and try again."
 - B Ask a good friend to decide what should be said next.
 - C Stop thinking about the situation until the anger passes.
 - D Repeat the mistake aloud to understand its cause.
- 15 Why is learning to get dressed used as an example near the end?
- A It shows why young children often depend on adult care.
 - B It illustrates how toddlers avoid difficult tasks.
 - C It shows how toddlers value small achievements.
 - D It illustrates how toddlers develop their personalities.