

BBC 6 Minute English Listening Practice

The School That Puts the Kids in Charge

Name: _____

Class: _____

Score: _____ / 16

NO MORE THAN THREE WORDS - Decisions and daily work

No.	Sentence
1	Students help decide who works at the school by _____.
2	Running the school is intended to teach pupils _____.
3	Pupils visit the vegetable market _____.
4	Other pupils check prices; one student manages the _____.
5	Doing the accounting lets students see the school's _____, not just a practice exercise.
6	Compared with her previous school, one pupil can now develop _____ with friends.
7	Trying different activities may help pupils discover their personal _____.
8	Children give a positive _____ when adults place trust in them.
9	One observer describes the school as partly _____ despite its unusual approach.

11 What best describes the students' role in the school's operation?

- A They advise teachers on rules while adults handle most daily decisions.
- B They take responsibility for decisions and tasks across school life.
- C They manage food purchases while staff make the school's rules.
- D They choose new staff but leave student discipline to teachers.

12 Which arrangement would best fit the school's way of teaching responsibility?

- A Giving pupils extra talks about why everyday school duties matter.
- B Asking pupils to watch support staff organise their daily work.
- C Letting pupils choose a job to discuss in a classroom presentation.
- D Putting pupils in charge of arranging the school's cleaning rota.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

- 13 What does the description of food shopping show about student responsibility?
- A Pupils help buy food for the whole school, with an adult accompanying them.
 - B Pupils compare menus for different classes before an adult buys the food.
 - C Pupils purchase food independently for a small group of classmates.
 - D Pupils check food prices after an adult has chosen what to purchase.
- 14 Why does the pupil interested in accounting enjoy managing the food records?
- A The task gives her a break from studying school subjects.
 - B The task allows her to supervise the other market shoppers.
 - C The task lets her work with actual purchases and spending.
 - D The task prepares her to teach accounting to younger pupils.
- 15 How does the pupil contrast her former school with the Bamboo School?
- A Her former school offered practical tasks, while her current school stresses classroom lessons.
 - B Her former school stressed individual work, while her current school avoids lessons.
 - C Her former school offered leadership roles, while her current school limits them.
 - D Her previous school centred on lessons; her current one also offers practical experience.
- 16 What does the account of adults and children suggest about the school's approach?
- A It transfers classroom teaching to children while adults manage activities outside.
 - B It keeps adult authority in all areas but invites student suggestions.
 - C It combines familiar classroom teaching with unusual student control outside it.
 - D It lets each class decide whether teachers or pupils should lead lessons.
- 17 What further responsibility is mentioned alongside the pupils' schoolwork?
- A They also have a regular commitment to unpaid work for the community.
 - B They must complete community work before joining ordinary lessons.
 - C They spend most of each school week on community work.
 - D They choose whether community work replaces classroom lessons.