

BBC 6 Minute English Listening Practice

Why We Love Dumplings

Name: _____

Class: _____

Score: _____ / 16

NO MORE THAN THREE WORDS - Dumplings around the world

No.	Sentence
1	In China, the examples described are _____ and contain pork and cabbage.
2	Alongside rice and corn, _____ is one grain commonly used as a dough base.
3	Over time, cooks have changed the _____ to create local varieties.
4	The time and place of the first dumpling remain _____.
5	One proposed birthplace lies along the _____, which connected China with Central Asia and Turkey.
6	In Ghana, dumplings can add _____ to a meal and absorb its sauces.
7	Kenkey is a regular main food for the _____, although people eat it across Ghana.
8	One accompaniment is a _____; another is a dark sauce containing seafood.
9	The meal gives eaters a strong feeling of _____.
10	Preparation takes time: the maize is left in water for _____.

11 What is the main point of the examples from China, Nepal, Ireland and Italy?

- A Dumplings from each place are normally eaten with a sauce.
- B Dumplings take different local forms across the world.
- C Dumplings from each place use the same kind of dough.
- D Dumplings are usually fried outside their place of origin.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

- 12 How does the description of dumplings distinguish the dough from the filling?
- A The dough determines the shape, while the filling determines the name.
 - B The dough is always boiled, while the filling may be fried.
 - C The dough is made from vegetables, while the filling is made from grains.
 - D The dough surrounds the filling, which may contain very different foods.
- 13 Besides adding substance to a Ghanaian dish, what other job can a dumpling do?
- A Take up sauce and juices from the dish.
 - B Replace the dish's need for any sauce.
 - C Help the dish stay warm throughout the meal.
 - D Give the sauce its distinctive dark colour.
- 14 What contrast is made between the two sauces eaten with kenkey?
- A One is a chilli sauce; the other is made mainly from maize.
 - B One is served hot; the other is served only after the meal.
 - C One is a chilli sauce; the other contains seafood and other proteins.
 - D One is eaten across Ghana; the other belongs to a single tribe.
- 15 If a manual worker cannot eat again for several hours, why might kenkey be a useful choice?
- A They can prepare it quickly before starting work.
 - B They can eat it without another food or sauce.
 - C They can buy it wherever they are working.
 - D It can keep them feeling full for much of the day.
- 16 Which detail about kenkey's ingredients is given after the interview?
- A Its dough is made from maize sourdough.
 - B Its dough is made from wheat and potato.
 - C Its filling is made from fish and shrimp.
 - D Its filling is made from cabbage and pork.