

1

Set 1 - Words 1201-1210. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column.

(10 marks)

Words: hostile | infant | fluid | acute | circulate | guilt | worthwhile | density | encouraging | blade

No.	Sentence	Answer
1	Although the research project required months of unpaid interviews and repeated revisions, the final policy impact made it genuinely _____.
2	In the emergency ward, doctors treated the patient first because his chest pain was sudden, severe, and medically _____.
3	The chef warned the apprentice that even a slightly damaged _____ could make the knife unpredictable during fast preparation.
4	False claims can _____ rapidly on social media when users share emotional stories before checking reliable sources.
5	Urban planners measured population _____ carefully before deciding whether the district could support another metro station.
6	The early trial results were not conclusive, but the improvement in several patients was still considered highly _____.
7	After the surgery, nurses monitored the patient's blood pressure and the amount of _____ entering through the intravenous line.
8	He accepted responsibility for the failed inspection, but his private sense of _____ became unhealthy and disproportionate.
9	The negotiations collapsed because several representatives adopted a deliberately _____ tone instead of addressing the proposal calmly.
10	The charity focused on early nutrition because damage during the first year can seriously affect an _____ later in life.

2

Set 2 - Words 1211-1220. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column.

(10 marks)

Words: refusal | adaptation | liberty | thrilled | medieval | vulnerability | oversee | worthy | pioneer | settlement

No.	Sentence	Answer
1	The constitution protects individual _____, but it also allows limited restrictions when public safety is genuinely at risk.
2	The museum's new exhibition explains how _____ trade routes shaped food, warfare, and religious life across Europe.
3	The board hired an external expert to _____ the audit after several departments failed to report expenses accurately.
4	Many scientists regard her as a _____ because she developed techniques that later transformed climate modelling.
5	His repeated _____ to answer basic safety questions made regulators suspect that the company was hiding evidence.
6	Archaeologists found evidence of a small coastal _____ where families probably lived, traded, and repaired fishing tools.
7	She was visibly _____ when the university offered her a full scholarship after years of uncertain applications.
8	The cyberattack exposed a serious _____ in the hospital's outdated payment system, forcing managers to suspend online services.
9	The committee rejected several popular ideas and funded only projects it considered genuinely _____ of long-term public investment.
10	The film's _____ of the novel removed several minor characters but preserved the central moral conflict.

3

Set 3 - Words 1221-1230. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column.

(10 marks)

Words: license | meditation | footage | dependence | circulation | gut | endeavour | hostility | infect | blast

No.	Sentence	Answer
1	A sudden _____ from the chemical plant broke windows nearby and forced residents to leave the area immediately.
2	Poor blood _____ can make hands and feet feel unusually cold, especially when patients sit still for long periods.
3	The government's excessive _____ on imported grain became dangerous when shipping routes were disrupted by conflict.
4	Building a bilingual school from nothing was an ambitious _____ that required money, patience, and political support.
5	Security officers reviewed hours of CCTV _____ before identifying the person who had entered the laboratory after midnight.
6	Recent studies suggest that the human _____ may influence mood, immunity, and the way the body processes medication.
7	Years of political _____ made it difficult for the two communities to discuss even simple infrastructure projects together.
8	Hospitals isolate certain patients quickly because one careless procedure can _____ many others in a crowded ward.
9	The agency refused to _____ the new drug until the manufacturer provided stronger evidence of long-term safety.
10	Regular _____ helped the lawyer manage stress without losing concentration during complex cross-examinations.

4

Set 4 - Words 1231-1240. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column.

(10 marks)

Words: bleed | thrive | overturn | vulnerable | citizenship | pipeline | depict | adhere | regain | set-up

No.	Sentence	Answer
1	The appeal court may _____ the earlier ruling if it finds that key evidence was ignored during the original trial.
2	The company built a digital _____ to move customer data securely from regional stores to its central analytics team.
3	After months of physical therapy, the athlete slowly began to _____ confidence in the injured knee before returning to competition.
4	The laboratory's current _____ allows researchers to test three samples at once, reducing delays without lowering accuracy.
5	Small businesses can _____ in difficult markets when they control costs carefully and build loyal relationships with customers.
6	Elderly patients are especially _____ during heat waves because dehydration can worsen existing heart and kidney conditions.
7	All employees must _____ to the confidentiality policy, even when discussing harmless-looking details outside the office.
8	The wound continued to _____ after the fall, so the coach stopped the match and called medical staff immediately.
9	Applicants for _____ must usually prove legal residence, language ability, and basic knowledge of the country's institutions.
10	The documentary tries to _____ the migrant experience honestly, avoiding both sentimental exaggeration and political simplification.

5

Set 5 - Words 1241-1250. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column.

(10 marks)

Words: humanitarian | melody | regardless | foreigner | overwhelm | endless | pirate | sexuality | inflict | lifelong

No.	Sentence	Answer
1	The meeting felt _____ because each solved problem immediately produced three new complaints from another department.
2	Many residents initially treated him as a _____, although he had lived in the town longer than most local officials.
3	The organization sent _____ aid after the earthquake, focusing first on clean water, temporary shelter, and emergency medicine.
4	International law forbids armies to deliberately _____ suffering on civilians as a way of pressuring political leaders.
5	She described reading not as a school requirement but as a _____ habit that shaped her judgment and imagination.
6	The simple piano _____ stayed in my mind for days because it matched the emotional rhythm of the scene.
7	The amount of paperwork can _____ new teachers unless the school provides clear templates and experienced mentors.
8	The captured _____ admitted attacking merchant ships but denied harming passengers who surrendered without resistance.
9	The team decided to continue the rescue operation _____ of bad weather because several hikers were still missing.
10	Schools should discuss _____ responsibly so that students receive accurate information rather than shame, rumours, or silence.

6

Set 6 - Words 1251-1260. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column.

(10 marks)

Words: deploy | likelihood | influential | blend | adjacent | humanity | civic | tide | forge | endorse

No.	Sentence	Answer
1	The evening _____ was unusually high, so the harbour authority delayed loading until the water level became safer.
2	The two classrooms are _____, which makes it easy for teachers to share equipment during science demonstrations.
3	Good designers can _____ practical function with visual elegance without making the final product confusing or expensive.
4	The city launched a _____ education campaign to encourage young residents to vote, volunteer, and attend public meetings.
5	Engineers will _____ additional sensors across the bridge to detect small cracks before they become structurally dangerous.
6	The mayor refused to _____ the proposal publicly until economists had reviewed its cost and long-term consequences.
7	After years of mistrust, the two universities managed to _____ a research partnership based on shared data standards.
8	The charity's speech appealed to our common _____, reminding donors that displaced families needed dignity as well as food.
9	Her book became highly _____ because it changed how policymakers understood poverty, schooling, and family stability.
10	The _____ of another supply shock increased after several ports closed and fuel prices rose sharply within one week.

7

Set 7 - Words 1261-1270. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column.

(10 marks)

Words: deployment | shareholder | overwhelming | pit | bless | adjustment | memo | civilian | regime | tighten

No.	Sentence	Answer
1	The manager sent a brief _____ explaining why all travel requests must now be approved two weeks in advance.
2	Public support for the reform was _____, but officials still had to explain how the new system would be funded.
3	Rescue workers climbed carefully into the deep _____ after hearing a trapped miner calling from below the collapsed platform.
4	The authoritarian _____ controlled newspapers, courts, and schools, leaving citizens with few ways to challenge official decisions.
5	As a major _____, she questioned whether the board's expansion plan would create value or simply increase risk.
6	The central bank may _____ credit conditions if inflation continues rising faster than wages and business productivity.
7	A small pricing _____ helped the company retain customers without damaging its reputation for quality service.
8	The priest agreed to _____ the marriage ceremony in front of both families and several close friends.
9	The army denied targeting any _____ building, although photographs showed serious damage to homes and a local clinic.
10	The rapid _____ of peacekeepers reduced violence in the capital but created security gaps in several rural provinces.

Set 8 - Words 1271-1280. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column.

Words: regulator | memoir | endorsement | limb | formula | timber | inherent | humble | shatter | plea

No.	Sentence	Answer
1	The candidate welcomed the union's public _____ because it signalled trust from thousands of experienced workers.
2	The old engineering _____ worked under normal pressure, but it failed when temperature and humidity changed together.
3	Despite winning international prizes, the scientist remained _____ and gave most credit to her research assistants.
4	Risk is _____ in early-stage investing, so no founder should treat uncertainty as proof of personal failure.
5	The surgeon explained that the damaged _____ could probably be saved if blood flow returned within the next hour.
6	Her _____ combines family history with political observation, showing how private choices were shaped by national crisis.
7	His emotional _____ for more time persuaded the judge to postpone the hearing until medical records were available.
8	The financial _____ ordered the bank to improve internal controls after investigators found repeated reporting failures.
9	One careless comment can _____ years of trust when clients already feel ignored, misled, or exploited.
10	The builder chose local _____ because it was cheaper, easier to transport, and suitable for the wet climate.

9

Set 9 - Words 1281-1290. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column.

(10 marks)

Words: clarity | inhibit | deposit | hydrogen | endure | linear | administer | formulate | memorial | blessing

No.	Sentence	Answer
1	Nurses are trained to _____ vaccines safely, record each dose accurately, and respond quickly to allergic reactions.
2	Losing that job felt disastrous at first, but it later proved to be a hidden _____ because it forced him to retrain.
3	The editor improved the report's _____ by removing repeated claims and placing the strongest evidence near the conclusion.
4	Customers must _____ a small amount before opening the account, although they can withdraw it after thirty days.
5	The refugees had to _____ freezing temperatures and food shortages before aid convoys finally reached the mountain village.
6	Researchers are trying to _____ a policy that reduces emissions without destroying jobs in poorer industrial regions.
7	_____ is often discussed as a clean fuel because its use can produce water instead of carbon dioxide.
8	Excessive fear of criticism can _____ creativity, especially when students are punished for every imperfect answer.
9	The textbook presents history as a neat, _____ progression, but real social change is usually messy and uneven.
10	The city built a quiet _____ for the victims, placing their names beside trees planted by their families.

10

Set 10 - Words 1291-1300. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column.

(10 marks)

Words: boast | deprive | administrative | forth | enforce | regulatory | timely | clash | plead | shed

No.	Sentence	Answer
1	The defendant decided to _____ guilty after prosecutors offered a reduced sentence in exchange for full cooperation.
2	The new _____ rules require companies to disclose data breaches within forty-eight hours of discovering them.
3	A _____ response from the health department prevented the infection from spreading beyond the first two schools.
4	The university hired more _____ staff because teachers were spending too much time processing forms and room bookings.
5	The hotel can _____ a rooftop pool, two conference halls, and one of the best harbour views in the city.
6	Years of underfunding can _____ children of basic educational opportunities that wealthier districts take for granted.
7	Police were sent to _____ the curfew, but officers were told to avoid unnecessary force during peaceful gatherings.
8	The public _____ between scientists and politicians made it harder for citizens to understand the actual level of risk.
9	Many reptiles _____ their skin as they grow, leaving behind a dry outer layer that no longer fits.
10	The witness finally came _____ with documents proving that senior managers had known about the safety failures.	