

1

Set 1 - Words 1801-1810. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column.

(10 marks)

Words: articulate | rotation | productivity | profitable | array | stabilize | divine | confession | rotate | stability

No.	Sentence	Answer
1	After the factory introduced flexible scheduling and better inventory software, managers reported a measurable increase in overall _____.
2	To prevent fatigue and reduce unconscious bias, the committee decided that senior reviewers would _____ every three months.
3	Investors were less concerned with rapid expansion than with the company's long-term financial _____ after two volatile years.
4	The new research centre offers an impressive _____ of laboratories, digital archives, interview rooms, and collaborative teaching spaces.
5	During the televised interview, the minister made a rare _____ that the original policy had been poorly communicated.
6	Medieval rulers often claimed that their authority was _____, which made political opposition seem morally unacceptable.
7	The subscription model became surprisingly _____ once the company reduced customer-acquisition costs and improved retention.
8	Doctors changed the nurses' weekly _____ because the old schedule placed too much pressure on night-shift staff.
9	Central banks sometimes raise interest rates not to accelerate growth, but to _____ prices after inflation has risen sharply.
10	Although the proposal contained sensible ideas, the young researcher struggled to _____ her argument clearly during the public hearing.	