

6

Set 6 - Words 1851-1860. Fill in each blank with ONE word from the box and write your answers in the Answer column.

(10 marks)

Words: prospective | conquer | assertion | prosecutor | conscience | stir | stimulus | driving | drown | assert

No.	Sentence	Answer
1	The sudden tax cut acted as a powerful economic _____, encouraging households to spend rather than save.
2	During the debate, the candidate tried to _____ that the policy was affordable, but she offered few concrete numbers.
3	Historians challenged the minister's _____ that the conflict had been unavoidable from the very beginning.
4	His religious _____ made it impossible for him to support a policy that he believed would harm innocent civilians.
5	The lifeguard warned children not to swim near the rocks because strong currents could easily cause someone to _____.
6	The university invited _____ students to an open day so they could meet professors and compare different departments.
7	After years of treatment and discipline, she managed to _____ her fear of public speaking and present confidently.
8	Rising energy prices became the _____ force behind public anger, even though several other issues had existed for years.
9	The experienced _____ avoided emotional language and focused instead on documents, timelines, and witness testimony.
10	The mayor's careless remarks began to _____ resentment among residents who already felt ignored by city officials.	