

BBC 6 Minute English Listening Practice

Which Cooking Oil Is The Best?

Name: _____

Class: _____

Score: _____ / 20

No.	Sentence
1	People may watch the amount of _____ they eat, but cooking oil is often overlooked.
2	Some costly oils are advertised as containing extra _____.
3	Older advice supported polyunsaturated oils such as _____.
4	Some online experts now recommend _____ instead.
5	The listener is unsure whether olive oil is safe at _____.
6	Some advice promotes costly choices, for example _____ and avocado oil.
7	Supporters describe these oils as _____.
8	The key question is whether the benefits justify the _____.
9	Avocado oil may suit a taste _____ who can afford it.
10	Many claims about super foods and wonder oils are dismissed as _____.

11 What problem does the programme raise about the fat people eat?

- A People usually know exactly how much oil they consume.
- B A significant amount may come from everyday cooking oils.
- C Most fat comes from obvious treats such as chocolate and cake.
- D Cooking oils contain no fat unless they are used for frying.

12 What conflicting advice has the listener heard about cooking oils?

- A Butter is healthier than every plant-based oil.
- B Olive oil should only be used in cold dishes.
- C Fast food is safer than food cooked at home.
- D Seed oils may be harmful while extra-virgin olive oil is encouraged.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

- 13 What practical cooking problem does the listener want answered?
- A Which oil can be used for frying and roasting.
 - B How to make olive oil taste less strong.
 - C Whether sunflower oil is cheaper than avocado oil.
 - D Why online doctors disagree with radio presenters.
- 14 What feeling is expressed by the phrase used in the listener's question?
- A Confidence about following expert advice.
 - B Excitement about trying unusual oils.
 - C Frustration about not knowing what to use.
 - D Satisfaction with traditional cooking methods.
- 15 What general point is made after the listener's question?
- A Most advice about cooking oils is now settled.
 - B There is plenty of advice, but it is not consistent.
 - C Only expensive oils create confusion among listeners.
 - D People should stop using oil when cooking.
- 16 How do supporters of oils such as coconut and avocado oil present them?
- A As basic low-cost kitchen products.
 - B As oils mainly useful for East Asian food.
 - C As products that should never be heated.
 - D As unusually beneficial or effective products.
- 17 Under what condition does Nita suggest someone might buy avocado oil?
- A They particularly like its taste and can afford it.
 - B They want to avoid all other fats completely.
 - C They need the cheapest option for frying fish.
 - D They believe every superfood claim they hear.
- 18 What is Nita's implied position on many claims about expensive oils?
- A They are all proven by strong scientific studies.
 - B They are mainly useful for professional chefs.
 - C They are often exaggerated or not worth believing.
 - D They are true only when oils are used cold.

- 19 Why is Nita not fully convinced by avocado oil's benefits?
- A She says it has no positive qualities at all.
 - B She questions whether its benefits justify its cost.
 - C She thinks its taste is always unpleasant.
 - D She says it cannot be used in any cooked dish.
- 20 What final warning is given about expensive 'wonder' cooking products?
- A They are dangerous whenever used at home.
 - B They should replace cheaper oils immediately.
 - C Their health claims may not deserve extra spending.
 - D Their benefits are limited to people in Cambridge.