

BBC 6 Minute English Listening Practice

What Makes A Good Citizen?

Name: _____

Class: _____

Score: _____ / 30

No.	Sentence
1	Participates in _____ activities
2	Citizens have specific rights and _____
3	Idea has received recent media _____
4	Obeys laws and pays _____
5	Works to enhance their _____ area
6	Those aged 18 to 30 feel _____ by politicians
7	Voting participation has _____
8	Helps Portuguese youth reconnect with their _____
9	Name originates from _____ states
10	Ancient Greek word 'polis' means _____
11	Holds _____ where children suggest improvements
12	Topics range from repairing facilities to modifying the _____
13	Local politicians attend and _____ to ideas
14	Bernardo Goncalves started the initiative in his _____
15	Concerned about declining _____ in democratic institutions
16	Warned the widening gap threatens _____
17	Incorporated into the _____

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

No.	Sentence
18	Politicians listen and provide _____
19	Develops _____ for the future
20	Successfully replicated in Hungary, _____ and Mozambique

What is Neil's opinion about what makes a good citizen?

- A A good citizen is mainly someone who avoids breaking laws
- B A good citizen is someone who volunteers and helps within the community
- C A good citizen is someone who only follows legal rules without extra involvement
- D A good citizen is defined mainly by their political beliefs

What is the main idea expressed by Myra Anubi about good citizenship?

- A Paying taxes is the most important duty of a citizen
- B Good citizens should improve their community beyond obeying laws
- C Citizenship only requires obeying existing laws and regulations
- D Voting is the only way to show good citizenship

What does the term 'law of the land' mean as explained in the programme?

- A A system of rules applied only in rural areas
- B The collection of laws and rules valid in a country
- C Laws that change based on local government decisions
- D Laws specifically related to land ownership

What problem regarding young people and politics does Neil highlight?

- A Young people are more likely to participate in elections
- B Young people feel disconnected and ignored by politicians
- C Politicians rely heavily on youth votes for decisions
- D Young people are well informed but uninterested in voting

The name 'MyPolis' is derived from an Ancient Greek word. What does 'polis' actually mean?

- A Vote
- B People
- C City
- D Government

According to Bernardo Goncalves, what issue does MyPolis aim to address?

- A Increasing trust between citizens and political institutions
- B Making parliament sessions more entertaining for youth
- C Encouraging young people to form political parties
- D Reducing taxes to involve young citizens in democracy

What does 'erosion of trust' mean in the context of this programme?

- A Sudden loss of trust caused by political scandals
- B Gradual weakening of confidence in political institutions
- C Complete loss of trust in government due to war
- D Temporary decrease in trust during election campaigns

How is MyPolis incorporated into schools, as Alison Roberts mentions?

- A As a compulsory subject replacing traditional classes
- B As an optional after-school activity unrelated to curriculum
- C As a part of the national curriculum from the start
- D As a one-time event to raise awareness about citizenship

What impressed Myra Anubi most about the MyPolis programme?

- A Politicians listen seriously to children and respond to their ideas
- B Children always succeed in changing school policies
- C Politicians rarely attend school council meetings
- D The programme is run solely by government officials

What does the phrase "hard to pin down" mean as used in the programme?

- A Difficult to force someone to reveal their true intentions
- B Easy to contact politicians and get clear answers
- C Physically unable to catch or hold someone
- D Someone who is frequently absent from public events