

BBC 6 Minute English Listening Practice

Stress-Free Family Meals

Name: _____

Class: _____

Score: _____ / 20

No.	Sentence
1	When children reject the meal prepared for them, family dinners may lead to _____ instead of enjoyment.
2	Children may have periods when their _____ is much lower, before it suddenly returns.
3	Whether children eat well may depend on the day, the weather and their _____.
4	Food choices at dinner can trigger a lot of family _____.
5	For young children, eating is one of the few areas where they have some _____.
6	Deciding whether to eat can have special _____ for young children.
7	One mother's daughter was born with _____, which made feeding her difficult at first.
8	The family eventually found a safe food combination: _____.
9	Experts recommend giving children a _____ rather than controlling every part of the meal.
10	A calmer dinner atmosphere can be created by avoiding _____ on children to finish all their food.

11 What problem is introduced about family mealtimes?

- A Parents usually cook food too late
- B Children rarely know what food they like
- C Refusing food can turn dinner into conflict
- D Family meals are no longer common

12 What pattern does Charlotte describe in her children's eating?

- A Their appetite rises and falls over time
- B They consistently refuse all healthy food
- C They eat better only when the weather is cold
- D Their food preferences never change

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

Answers written in the margins will not be marked.

- 13 Which factor is mentioned as affecting whether children eat happily?
- A The price of the meal
 - B The size of the kitchen
 - C The parents' cooking skill
 - D The child's mood
- 14 What issue does Ruth Alexander's question highlight?
- A Children are naturally interested in nutrition science
 - B Mealtimes can become emotionally charged
 - C Parents should stop asking children what they want
 - D Food allergies are the main source of all tension
- 15 According to Anne Fishel, why can dinner become difficult with small children?
- A Children are usually trying to upset their parents
 - B Parents serve meals at unpredictable times
 - C Eating is one area where children can exercise control
 - D Children understand nutrition better than adults
- 16 What can be inferred from the phrase "a big deal" in this context?
- A Food decisions matter strongly to children
 - B The meal itself is usually expensive
 - C Children are making a formal agreement
 - D Parents have lost all authority
- 17 What extra difficulty is introduced after the discussion of control?
- A Children eating too quickly
 - B Families avoiding dinner together
 - C Parents refusing to cook vegetables
 - D A child having a food allergy
- 18 Why is Sharon Wee's example of rice and beans mentioned?
- A To show that allergic children should eat only two foods forever
 - B To illustrate a safe routine that worked for her daughter
 - C To prove that Singaporean food causes allergies
 - D To argue that all families need the same meal plan

19 What does "the winning formula" refer to in Sharon's case?

- A A professional diet plan for all children
- B A method for making children try new flavours
- C A food combination her daughter could safely eat
- D A rule requiring children to finish the plate

20 What is the overall practical advice given at the end?

- A Offer choice and reduce pressure at mealtimes
- B Make children finish meals before snacks
- C Introduce many new tastes as quickly as possible
- D Avoid giving children any food before dinner