

SET

6

epidemic

inversion

irrelevant

mechanic

epidemiology

dissolve

fatigue

nonetheless

bargain

infectious

No.	Sentence
1	The government declared an _____ after thousands of new cases were reported in several major cities.
2	In English grammar, subject-verb _____ can occur after negative adverbials such as "rarely" or "never".
3	The judge ruled that the witness's personal opinion was _____ to the central question of whether fraud had occurred.
4	My car made a strange noise, so I asked a _____ to inspect the engine before the journey.
5	Public-health students study _____ to understand how diseases spread through populations and how outbreaks can be controlled.
6	Sugar will _____ more quickly in hot tea than in cold water because higher temperatures increase molecular motion.
7	Long-term sleep deprivation can lead to serious _____, reducing concentration, memory, and emotional control.
8	The evidence was incomplete; _____, the committee decided that immediate action was necessary.
9	The buyer tried to _____ with the dealer, but the price had already been reduced significantly.
10	Measles is highly _____, so one infected child can expose many others in a crowded classroom.