

|                  |             |           |          |          |             |
|------------------|-------------|-----------|----------|----------|-------------|
| SET1 | achievement | negotiate | dominate | supplier | prize       |
|                  | typically   | peer      | pension  | wing     | acquisition |

| No. | Sentence                                                                                                                 |
|-----|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1   | Completing the research project before the deadline was a real _____ for a team that had never worked together before.   |
| 2   | Before the hotel signs the annual contract, the manager wants to _____ a lower price with the cleaning company.          |
| 3   | In some small towns, one large supermarket can _____ the local food market and leave little space for smaller shops.     |
| 4   | The factory changed its main _____ after several orders arrived late and customers began to complain about delays.       |
| 5   | The first _____ in the school science competition was a laptop and a certificate from the local university.              |
| 6   | Teenagers _____ become more independent when they start making daily decisions without constant help from their parents. |
| 7   | A student may accept criticism more easily from a _____ than from a teacher, especially during group work.               |
| 8   | After forty years as a bus driver, my uncle receives a monthly _____ from the company he worked for.                     |
| 9   | The injured bird could not fly because one _____ had been damaged during the storm.                                      |
| 10  | The company's _____ of a smaller software business allowed it to enter the education technology market quickly.          |

|          |          |            |              |             |            |
|----------|----------|------------|--------------|-------------|------------|
| SET2 | laughter | deeply     | recognition  | electricity | assistance |
|          | roof     | retirement | respectively | variation   | ultimately |

| No. | Sentence                                                                                                                     |
|-----|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1   | The children's _____ filled the classroom after the teacher accidentally drew a cat that looked more like a potato.          |
| 2   | Many people were _____ moved by the speech because it described ordinary workers who had helped rebuild the city.            |
| 3   | After years of quiet practice, the young pianist finally received public _____ when she won an international competition.    |
| 4   | The storm cut off the _____ in several villages, so families had to cook dinner by candlelight.                              |
| 5   | The charity provides food, medicine, and legal _____ to families who have lost their homes after floods.                     |
| 6   | Heavy rain came through the broken _____, forcing the family to move their furniture away from the bedroom wall.             |
| 7   | My grandfather found _____ difficult at first because he missed the daily routine and friendships of his old job.            |
| 8   | The two students scored 82 and 91 in the final test, _____, which means Anna got the lower score and Ben got the higher one. |
| 9   | There is a slight _____ in pronunciation between the northern and southern versions of this word.                            |
| 10  | The team made several mistakes during the first half, but they _____ won because their defence improved after the break.     |

|                 |         |        |                |             |
|-----------------|---------|--------|----------------|-------------|
| SET3 | proof   | soil   | smart          | layer       |
|                 | upset   | tooth  | representation | preparation |
|                 | dispute | agenda |                |             |

| No. | Sentence                                                                                                                |
|-----|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1   | The police said they needed stronger _____ before they could accuse anyone of stealing money from the company account.  |
| 2   | Farmers in dry areas often add natural materials to the _____ so that it can hold more water during the summer.         |
| 3   | The new phone is not only _____ but also practical, with a battery that lasts for nearly two full days.                 |
| 4   | The cake has a thin _____ of chocolate on top, which keeps the inside soft and gives it a richer taste.                 |
| 5   | She looked visibly _____ when she realised that her presentation file had disappeared from the shared computer.         |
| 6   | The little boy cried because one front _____ was loose and he was afraid it would fall out during lunch.                |
| 7   | The painting is not a realistic _____ of the city, but it still captures the energy of the streets.                     |
| 8   | Careful _____ before the interview helped her answer difficult questions calmly and clearly.                            |
| 9   | The neighbours had a long _____ about the fence because each family believed the other had built it in the wrong place. |
| 10  | A short meeting was added to the _____ so that everyone could discuss the budget before voting.                         |

|                 |          |           |        |               |
|-----------------|----------|-----------|--------|---------------|
| SET4 | emphasis | edition   | silver | entertainment |
|                 | honest   | undertake | retail | wire          |
|                 | unlikely | gay       |        |               |

| No. | Sentence                                                                                                                 |
|-----|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1   | The teacher placed special _____ on clear topic sentences because many students wrote paragraphs without a central idea. |
| 2   | The latest _____ of the dictionary includes new words related to artificial intelligence and online communication.       |
| 3   | The silver necklace looked simple, but the shop assistant said it was made of real _____ from northern Italy.            |
| 4   | The city offers plenty of evening _____, including live music, street performances, and small theatres near the river.   |
| 5   | An _____ answer may be uncomfortable, but it helps people solve problems before they become more serious.                |
| 6   | The research team agreed to _____ a difficult survey of 2,000 families across three different cities.                    |
| 7   | My cousin works in _____, so she spends most weekends helping customers choose clothes in a busy department store.       |
| 8   | The electrician replaced a damaged _____ behind the wall because it had become unsafe after years of use.                |
| 9   | It is _____ that the train will arrive on time today, since heavy snow has already closed several stations.              |
| 10  | The film includes a _____ character whose relationship with his family is shown in a sensitive and realistic way.        |

|                  |             |        |         |            |       |
|------------------|-------------|--------|---------|------------|-------|
| SET5 | publication | slight | unknown | framework  | zone  |
|                  | restrict    | trace  | inch    | equivalent | solid |

| No. | Sentence                                                                                                                    |
|-----|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1   | The newspaper delayed _____ of the report because lawyers were still checking whether some names could be printed legally.  |
| 2   | There was a _____ improvement in his pronunciation after two weeks, but he still needed more speaking practice.             |
| 3   | The cause of the fire remains _____, although investigators believe it may have started in the kitchen.                     |
| 4   | The school built a clear _____ for online learning, including rules for attendance, homework, and teacher feedback.         |
| 5   | The city centre is now a low-traffic _____, so private cars are not allowed during working hours.                           |
| 6   | Parents can _____ children's screen time by setting daily limits and keeping phones out of bedrooms at night.               |
| 7   | Scientists can _____ the movement of plastic waste by placing tiny tracking devices inside floating bottles.                |
| 8   | The car moved forward inch by _____ as traffic slowly cleared near the airport entrance.                                    |
| 9   | The online course is considered _____ to the classroom course, so students receive the same certificate after finishing it. |
| 10  | The table is made of _____ wood, not cheap plastic, so it should last for many years.                                       |

|                 |              |         |       |          |
|-----------------|--------------|---------|-------|----------|
| SET6 | enterprise   | elderly | owe   | governor |
|                 | uniform      | port    | pitch | arrival  |
|                 | contemporary | gate    |       |          |

| No. | Sentence                                                                                                       |
|-----|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1   | The company began as a small family _____, but it later became one of the largest food brands in the region.   |
| 2   | Many _____ people prefer living near public transport because they no longer feel confident driving every day. |
| 3   | I still _____ my success to the teacher who encouraged me when I nearly gave up learning English.              |
| 4   | The state _____ announced new safety rules after several factories failed basic inspections last month.        |
| 5   | Students must wear a school _____ on Mondays because the head teacher wants the whole school to look formal.   |
| 6   | The ship stayed in the _____ for two days while workers unloaded food, machines, and medical supplies.         |
| 7   | The football match was cancelled because the _____ was too wet after three hours of heavy rain.                |
| 8   | Her _____ at the airport was delayed by nearly an hour because the flight had to circle above the city.        |
| 9   | The exhibition focuses on _____ art, especially works created by young painters in the last ten years.         |
| 10  | We waited at the wrong _____ and almost missed the flight when the airline changed the boarding information.   |

SET
7

ease

beer

specialist

assure

profile

mood

episode

crack

numerous

submit

| No. | Sentence                                                                                                                      |
|-----|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1   | The new bus route should _____ traffic problems by giving commuters a cheaper and faster way to reach the city centre.        |
| 2   | The restaurant serves several kinds of local _____, although many customers prefer fresh juice or tea with dinner.            |
| 3   | A heart _____ examined my father and explained which tests he needed before starting treatment.                               |
| 4   | The manager tried to _____ customers that their personal information had not been shared with any outside company.            |
| 5   | The university asked each applicant to create an online _____ with their education history, test scores, and contact details. |
| 6   | Her cheerful _____ changed quickly when she heard that the outdoor concert had been cancelled because of rain.                |
| 7   | The final _____ of the documentary explains how the family rebuilt their business after the accident.                         |
| 8   | A small _____ appeared in the wall after the earthquake, so the landlord called an engineer to check the building.            |
| 9   | The school received _____ complaints from parents after the new timetable left students with almost no lunch break.           |
| 10  | Students must _____ their essays by Friday evening, or the online system will mark the work as late.                          |

|                        |         |           |         |          |         |
|------------------------|---------|-----------|---------|----------|---------|
| SET8 | symptom | virtually | era     | coverage | tension |
|                        | cable   | sensitive | nervous | input    | isolate |

| No. | Sentence                                                                                                                   |
|-----|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1   | A high temperature is often the first _____ that parents notice when a child is getting sick.                              |
| 2   | The village was _____ cut off from the outside world after the bridge collapsed and mobile signals failed.                 |
| 3   | The printing press helped begin a new _____ in which books became cheaper and ideas spread much faster.                    |
| 4   | The new law received wide media _____ because it affected millions of workers and several major industries.                |
| 5   | There was clear _____ between the two managers after they disagreed openly during the staff meeting.                       |
| 6   | The television stopped working because the _____ behind the screen had been pulled out during cleaning.                    |
| 7   | She is very _____ about her accent, so classmates should correct her pronunciation politely rather than laugh at mistakes. |
| 8   | He felt _____ before the interview, even though he had prepared carefully and practised common questions many times.       |
| 9   | The teacher asked students to _____ their answers into the online form before the end of the lesson.                       |
| 10  | During the experiment, researchers had to _____ one chemical from the others to test its effect accurately.                |

|                        |          |           |         |        |           |
|------------------------|----------|-----------|---------|--------|-----------|
| SET9 | prisoner | eliminate | tight   | wet    | secondary |
|                        | welfare  | recruit   | exclude | string | cloud     |

| No. | Sentence                                                                                                                    |
|-----|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1   | The _____ escaped through a small window but was caught again less than two hours later.                                    |
| 2   | The new software can _____ many repeated tasks, allowing employees to spend more time solving difficult customer problems.  |
| 3   | The jeans were too _____ around the waist, so I returned them and bought a larger size.                                     |
| 4   | The clothes were still _____ after two hours outside because the air was cold and there was no sunlight.                    |
| 5   | History is a _____ subject in this programme, while mathematics and science receive most of the teaching time.              |
| 6   | The government increased spending on child _____ after reports showed that many families could not afford basic healthcare. |
| 7   | The company plans to _____ twenty new engineers before opening its second office next spring.                               |
| 8   | The school should not _____ students from the trip simply because their parents cannot pay the full cost immediately.       |
| 9   | He tied a _____ around the box so that it would not open while he carried it downstairs.                                    |
| 10  | Personal anger can _____ your judgement, making it harder to see what actually happened in a disagreement.                  |

SET
10 persuade

inspire

grand

hence

crew

phenomenon

pupil

false assist restore

| No. | Sentence                                                                                                             |
|-----|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1   | The coach tried to _____ the players to keep training, even though they had lost three matches in a row.             |
| 2   | A good teacher can _____ students to read more widely by choosing texts that connect with their real interests.      |
| 3   | The hotel entrance looked _____, with tall glass doors, bright lights, and a wide staircase leading to the lobby.    |
| 4   | The company lost money for two years; _____, the directors decided to close several smaller offices.                 |
| 5   | The airline _____ prepared the plane quickly after passengers had waited at the gate for more than an hour.          |
| 6   | The rise of short video platforms is a global _____ that has changed how many young people learn and relax.          |
| 7   | The eye doctor checked each _____ carefully to see how it reacted when a bright light was moved closer.              |
| 8   | The news report was later proved _____ because the photos had been taken in a different country years earlier.       |
| 9   | The teaching assistant will _____ weaker students during the writing task by checking their plans before they begin. |
| 10  | Volunteers helped _____ the old library after the flood damaged the floors, shelves, and reading rooms.              |