

SET 1	articulate	rotation	productivity	profitable	array stabilize	divine	confession	rotate	stability

No.	Sentence
1	After the factory introduced flexible scheduling and better inventory software, managers reported a measurable increase in overall _____.
2	To prevent fatigue and reduce unconscious bias, the committee decided that senior reviewers would _____ every three months.
3	Investors were less concerned with rapid expansion than with the company's long-term financial _____ after two volatile years.
4	The new research centre offers an impressive _____ of laboratories, digital archives, interview rooms, and collaborative teaching spaces.
5	During the televised interview, the minister made a rare _____ that the original policy had been poorly communicated.
6	Medieval rulers often claimed that their authority was _____, which made political opposition seem morally unacceptable.
7	The subscription model became surprisingly _____ once the company reduced customer-acquisition costs and improved retention.
8	Doctors changed the nurses' weekly _____ because the old schedule placed too much pressure on night-shift staff.
9	Central banks sometimes raise interest rates not to accelerate growth, but to _____ prices after inflation has risen sharply.
10	Although the proposal contained sensible ideas, the young researcher struggled to _____ her argument clearly during the public hearing.

SET 2	ruling	confine	documentation	projection
	ash	doctrine	configuration	stake
	rumour	profound

No.	Sentence
1	The engineer changed the server _____ only after confirming that every backup system could still communicate securely.
2	The party's education policy was shaped less by evidence than by an old political _____ about individual responsibility.
3	The documentary had a _____ impact on viewers because it connected personal grief with wider historical injustice.
4	The court's latest _____ forced several companies to revise how they collected and stored customer data.
5	Because the merger involved millions of dollars and hundreds of jobs, every shareholder had a serious _____ in the negotiations.
6	By morning, the wooden house had collapsed into blackened _____, leaving firefighters to search carefully for evidence.
7	The government tried to _____ the outbreak to one district by limiting travel and closing several public facilities.
8	Without accurate technical _____, even experienced developers found it difficult to maintain the old payment system.
9	The finance team's revenue _____ looked optimistic, but it assumed that demand would continue rising for another year.
10	A damaging _____ spread through the school after one student claimed that the principal intended to cancel the exchange programme.

SET 3	aspire	prominent	domain	dominance
	confirmation	confront	aspiration	pronounced
	standing	stark

No.	Sentence
1	The university has a _____ committee on academic integrity, so cheating cases are reviewed through a fixed procedure every semester.
2	Her strongest professional _____ was not simply to earn more money, but to design public services that genuinely improved lives.
3	Before booking the venue, the organiser waited for written _____ that all international speakers had received their visas.
4	Climate modelling is a specialised _____, and careless interpretations of its findings can easily mislead the public.
5	The journalist became a _____ figure in investigative reporting after exposing corruption in several major institutions.
6	The photographs revealed a _____ contrast between the renovated business district and the neglected neighbourhoods surrounding it.
7	Many first-generation university students _____ to careers their families had never had the chance to imagine.
8	Instead of avoiding criticism, effective leaders must _____ uncomfortable evidence when a project is clearly failing.
9	The company's market _____ weakened after several smaller competitors began offering cheaper and more flexible products.
10	There was a _____ improvement in the patient's speech after six months of targeted therapy and daily practice.

SET 4	donor	dose	congratulate	assassination
	statistical	confrontation	propaganda	proposition
	steer	assault

No.	Sentence
1	The researchers rejected the claim because it relied on weak _____ evidence and ignored several important demographic variables.
2	The president's _____ shocked the country and immediately raised concerns about political instability and national security.
3	A minor disagreement over parking quickly became a public _____ when both drivers refused to step away from the argument.
4	The hospital contacted every registered _____ after the blood shortage became critical during the holiday weekend.
5	State media repeated the same _____ until many citizens began to accept the official version without examining alternative sources.
6	A skilled chairperson can _____ a heated discussion back toward practical solutions without silencing legitimate disagreement.
7	The police investigated the late-night _____ after the victim reported being attacked outside the railway station.
8	The doctor reduced the daily _____ because the stronger medicine was causing dizziness and persistent nausea.
9	The teachers gathered after the ceremony to _____ the students who had completed the demanding international programme.
10	The central _____ of the report is that economic growth alone cannot solve deep social inequality.

SET 5	drift	congressional	prosecution	stereotype
	stem	assembly	prosecute	assemble
	congregation	drain

No.	Sentence
1	Botanists examined the damaged _____ of the plant to understand why water was no longer reaching the upper leaves.
2	Technicians had to _____ the emergency shelter within six hours because hundreds of residents had lost their homes.
3	The elderly members of the _____ stayed after the service to discuss how the church could support local refugees.
4	Years of underfunding began to _____ the hospital's capacity, leaving doctors exhausted and patients waiting longer for treatment.
5	The district attorney decided to _____ the former executive after investigators uncovered clear evidence of accounting fraud.
6	The film challenges the lazy _____ that rural communities are backward, isolated, and resistant to technological change.
7	The student _____ approved a new rule requiring clubs to publish their budgets before requesting additional funding.
8	Several _____ committees questioned whether the defence contract had been awarded through a fair and transparent process.
9	Without a clear research question, the discussion began to _____ away from evidence and into personal opinion.
10	The _____ argued that the defendant had deliberately hidden financial records from both auditors and investors.

SET 6	prospective	conquer	assertion	prosecutor	conscience
	stir	stimulus	driving	drown	assert

No.	Sentence
1	The sudden tax cut acted as a powerful economic _____, encouraging households to spend rather than save.
2	During the debate, the candidate tried to _____ that the policy was affordable, but she offered few concrete numbers.
3	Historians challenged the minister's _____ that the conflict had been unavoidable from the very beginning.
4	His religious _____ made it impossible for him to support a policy that he believed would harm innocent civilians.
5	The lifeguard warned children not to swim near the rocks because strong currents could easily cause someone to _____.
6	The university invited _____ students to an open day so they could meet professors and compare different departments.
7	After years of treatment and discipline, she managed to _____ her fear of public speaking and present confidently.
8	Rising energy prices became the _____ force behind public anger, even though several other issues had existed for years.
9	The experienced _____ avoided emotional language and focused instead on documents, timelines, and witness testimony.
10	The mayor's careless remarks began to _____ resentment among residents who already felt ignored by city officials.

SET 7	asylum	dual	consecutive	protective assurance	consciousness	prosperity	straightforward
	storage	dub

No.	Sentence
1	The company rented extra _____ space because seasonal products were arriving faster than shops could sell them.
2	Before signing the agreement, workers demanded a written _____ that their pensions would not be reduced after the merger.
3	The patient briefly lost _____ after the accident, but doctors said there was no evidence of permanent brain damage.
4	The new policy has a _____ purpose: it reduces administrative costs while also improving access for remote communities.
5	Many governments link national _____ to innovation, education, and stable institutions rather than to natural resources alone.
6	The instructions were unusually _____, so even staff with limited technical training could complete the installation safely.
7	The journalist requested political _____ after publishing documents that exposed corruption in her home country.
8	The athlete won three _____ championships, making him one of the most consistent competitors of his generation.
9	Critics were quick to _____ the unpopular tax "the loneliness penalty" because it seemed to punish people living alone.
10	Parents sometimes become overly _____ when teenagers need enough freedom to make responsible decisions independently.

SET 8	consensus	strand	consent	attain	atrocities
	duo	province	strain	protocol	dumb

No.	Sentence
1	Years of caring for an ill parent placed a heavy emotional _____ on the whole family, especially the youngest daughter.
2	Human rights investigators described the massacre as an _____ because civilians had been deliberately targeted.
3	After weeks of negotiation, the committee finally reached a broad _____ on how to distribute the emergency funds.
4	Calling a policy " _____ " may express frustration, but it does not prove that the policy is irrational or ineffective.
5	The laboratory followed a strict safety _____ whenever researchers handled infectious samples or hazardous chemicals.
6	The lawyer examined one _____ of evidence that connected the suspect's phone records with the stolen vehicle.
7	Few students _____ fluency in academic writing without sustained reading, repeated feedback, and deliberate revision.
8	The hospital cannot release personal medical information unless the patient gives explicit _____ in writing.
9	The comedy _____ became famous for turning ordinary family arguments into sharp observations about class and culture.
10	The earthquake damaged several towns in the northern _____, where older buildings had not been reinforced.

SET 9	consistency	attendance	attorney	provincial	strip
	dynamic	provision	striking	strategic	conserve

No.	Sentence
1	The charity made a _____ decision to partner with local schools because teachers already understood the community's needs.
2	School _____ improved after administrators changed the timetable and contacted parents earlier about repeated absences.
3	During the drought, residents were asked to _____ water by taking shorter showers and repairing leaking pipes.
4	The relationship between teachers and parents has a complicated _____ because both sides want influence over children's learning.
5	The _____ government announced new transport funding for rural towns that had been neglected for decades.
6	What made the exhibition so _____ was not its size, but the emotional force of the photographs on display.
7	The defence _____ argued that the police search had violated his client's constitutional rights.
8	The contract included a special _____ allowing either side to withdraw if government approval was delayed.
9	The artist glued a narrow _____ of red fabric across the canvas to divide the image into two unequal halves.
10	The restaurant's success depends on _____; customers return because the food tastes reliable every time.

SET

10

audit psychiatric constitute consolidate attribute authentic constituency

strip

strive

provoke

No.	Sentence
1	Economists often _____ long-term productivity growth to better education, stronger institutions, and technological innovation.
2	After the acquisition, the company tried to _____ three overlapping departments into one more efficient regional office.
3	The minister avoided language that might _____ public anger during an already tense period of economic uncertainty.
4	Investigators ordered a full financial _____ after several unexplained transfers appeared in the charity's accounts.
5	The politician lost support in a key rural _____ after backing a policy that threatened local farming subsidies.
6	The hospital opened a new _____ unit for patients who needed intensive mental-health assessment and treatment.
7	Competitive schools may _____ students of confidence when rankings are treated as more important than genuine learning.
8	Young lawyers often _____ for years to build credibility before they are trusted with complex international cases.
9	Archaeologists confirmed that the vase was _____ after chemical tests matched the clay to the correct historical period.
10	Under international law, deliberately targeting civilians may _____ a war crime even if commanders claim military necessity.